LOCAL BREVITIES.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. Harry Slater, of Winnipeg, are in the city.

—Mrs. R. C. Macfie and Miss Macfie are in New York, where the latter will attend college.

—Mr. A. D. Holman left for Toronto this afternoon in the interests of the Western Fair.

—The two Boug sisters, who were poisoned by eating canned salmon, show very little signs of improvement.

—Mr. J. Bevans Giles, accountant of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, city, is on a short visit to his father in Montreal.

—Mrs. Butler, Washington, D. C., mother of Capt. Wm. Butler, formerly adjutant of the Seventh, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Spence, London West.

—Snide jewelry fakirs are rampant at Toronto Fair. They may come to the Western Fair, too. Beware of them! It pays to patronize a legitimate dealer.

—Lots in the old Renwick estate in the north end of the city were offered at auction on Tuesday, but no sales were made. Several lots were afterwards disposed of by private sale.

—A little son of Mr. Andrew Kenny, 21 Ann street, London West, was playing with a companion this morning, when he let an axe fall on his right foot. Three toes were severed. The youth will be laid up for some weeks.

—Mr. H. Vincent Meredith, local manager of the Bank of Montreal, and Mrs. Meredith, who have returned from their fishing cottage at Carleton, N. B., have taken possession of their recently completed residence on Pine avenue. Miss Meredith, London, Ont., is the guest of Mrs. Meredith.—Montreal Star.

—At the invitation of the reception committee, composed of London representatives of labor, the delegates to the Canadian Labor Congress enjoyed a drive about the city and environs today. The Asylum was one of the first places visited. Here they were taken in hand by Dr. Bucke and shown over the grounds, and the working of the sewer farm was explained to them. Leaving there, the Military School was visited. From there they went to St. Joseph's Hospital and Mount Hope, the parks, and the various city avenues.

—Rev. Mr. Cassidy, the Japanese missionary, gave an interesting talk in the Collegiate Institute last night on Japan and his work there. Mr. Cassidy gave a description of his journey to the far east, his impressions as he entered the empire, the life and habits of the people, the construction of the cities, the effect of the religions of the east upon the people, and the encouragements in connection with his work. Rev. Mr. Lanceley presided. The quartet of the Dundas Center Church favored with selections, and the audience gave a liberal colection for the Woman's Missionary Society.

UNDER CANVAS.

The London Field Battery went into camp at Port Stanley today. The armery on Waterloo street was left shortly after noon, and the journey undertaken via the Lambeth road to Port. There was a full complement of men and officers, with Col. Peters in command.

A FARMER'S HEAVY LOSS.

On Wednesday night the three large barns belonging to Joseph Patrick, lot 22, con. 11, London township, were totally destroyed by fire. A separator, the property of Henry Bolton, was also burned. The fire occurred just before dark. Mr. Bolton's threshing machine was left twenty-five feet from the barn and was saved. The loss will be heavy, as the entire season's crops were destroyed. The barns were insured in the London Township Insurance Company for $1,600.

BICYCLES STOLEN.

The city police have been notified of two bicycle thefts this week, but so far no clue to the whereabouts of the wheels has been obtained. Mr. Ed Plewes, who resides on the Hamilton road, east of the limits, is one of the losers. While at dinner he left his wheel standing at the front of the house. When he returned it was gone. George Yeo, of Egerton street, is the second loser. He is employed at Mr. A. J. Watson's, Dundas street east, and on Tuesday evening he left his bike in a lane adjoining the store. He has not found it since. It was a Duke, No. 20,323. Mr. Fred Beltz also lost a wheel a week or two ago. He had left it in a Dundas street doorway. The police receive cards almost daily from outside towns notifying them of bicycle thefts, but rarely are the thieves caught, owing to the difficulty of tracing the stolen articles. In many cases owners cannot identify their own wheels.

DEATH OF MR. WM. TAYLOR.

The death occurred in the city this moning of Mr. Wm. Taylor, late of her Majesty's customs. Deceased had been in failing health for the past year, and left the city three months ago to visit his daughter, Mrs. W. S. Holmes, of Lucknow. While there he was suddenly stricken with paralysis, and after a partial recovery went to Toronto to seek medical advice. He was on his way to Brussels from the Queen City when he was again taken suddenly ill in London, and never rallied. Mr. Taylor was the son of a pioneer school teacher in London township and took an active interest in political affairs. He ran as a candidate for the Local House for East Middlesex, but was defeated by James Evans, of Nissouri, who was the Reform nominee. In the early seventies he was appointed to the custom house, where he remained until a few years since. Deceased leaves two sons and two daughters—Mr. R. L. Taylor, barrister, of Brussels; Mr. J. L. Taylor, of the customs house, Strathroy; Mrs. W. S. Holmes, of Lucknow, and Miss Taylor, of this city. Hon. Mr. Justice Ferguson and Hon. Senator Ferguson, of Toronto, are nephews of the deceased.

CHARGED WITH HORSE STEALING.

Peter Brandeburg, a fair-haired Dane, aged 22, residence Pottersburg, secured a horse and rig from Dreaney's livery today. Driving to Walsh's Hotel yard, he put both up at auction and offered to sell them for the modest sum of $35. He claimed to have come from the country and wished to leave at once for the States. Detective Rider, who was looking for a stolen horse from the country, came across Brandeburg's outfit, but it did not answer the description. Detective Nickle also inspected the animal, and thought he recognized it as Ald. Dreaney's. His opinion was confirmed and the horse returned to its owner. Brandeburg was locked up. In a few minutes a sale could easily have been made.

UNHAPPY TORONTO.

Her Citizens Will Have to Drink Diluted Sewage

For Months—A Break in the Water Pipe.

Toronto, Sept. 5.—The conduit pipe across the bay went all to pieces this morning, and the citizens of Toronto will have nothing now but dilated sewage drawn from the middle of the bay delivered through the city mains for months to come.

The pipe is in a much worse condition than when it rose in the winter of 1892. It began to come to the surface in Blockhouse Bay about 8 o'clock this morning, and from that hour till 9:30 it kept rising in sections. At the hour stated 200 feet of the pipe rose to the surface directly opposite Hanlan's Point, where the water is very low and particularly foul.

The cause of the accident is not yet determined, but it is supposed to have been due to air getting into the pipe in consequence of the low water.

The water is only about half pressure all over the city, and the health officer has notified the public of the necessity of boiling all water intended for domestic use. The opinion largely prevails that this will necessitate prompt and radical action being taken in improving the waterworks system.

UNCLE SAM WILL TRY HIM.

Holmes Will Be First Tried in Philadelphia for the Murder of Pietzel.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 5.—H. H. Holmes, the multi-murderer, will be placed on trial here shortly for the murder of Benj. F. Pietzel, the father of the two little girls, whom Holmes is alleged to have murdered in a St. Vincent street cottage in Toronto. In the event of a failure to convict Holmes in Philadelphia, he will be handed over to the Indianapolis authorities, and will only be brought to Canada after all attempts to convict him in the United States of a capital offense have proved abortive.

The Philadelphia district attorney will today lay an indictment against Holmes, charging him with Benj. Pietzel's murder.

The evidence against Holmes, is, it is said, even more substantial than is generally believed, and important disclosures are expected when the case comes up for trial.

PARLIAMENT PROROGUED.

London, Sept. 5.—The House of Commons, in response to a summons in the usual form, appeared in the House of Lords today, where the royal assent to the acts passed during the session was announced. A decree was then read proroguing Parliament until Nov. 18.

"UNEASY LIES THE HEAD."

Berlin, Sept. 5.—The Lokal Anseiger's correspondent at St. Petersburg confirms the statement recently published that in consequence of the activity of the Nihilists it has been found necessary to guard the Czar's every step as completely as the movements of his father, Alexander III., were guarded by the police at the most perilous period of his reign. The Czarina, whose accouchment is expected in October, is suffering from extreme nervousness in consequence of the danger threatening the Czar.

STUCK FAST IN TORONTO MUD.

Toronto, Sept. 5.—A farmer at Mount Denis, a suburb, has been searching for a week for a team of horses he supposed were stolen from the pasture. Yesterday he found them dead, sunk to their heads in a swamp.

A LONDON MUTUAL LOSS.

Forest, Ont., Sept. 5.—The fine brick residence of D. F. McIntyre, in Bosanquet township, eight miles from Forest, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss, $2,000; insured for $1,200 in the London Mutual.

DROWNED IN A WELL.

Burford, Ont., Sept. 5.—Mrs. Whitman—an aged and well known lady living at Mount Vernon—was drowned in a water cistern at her residence this morning. It is supposed that she attempted to raise the water with the bucket, and, losing her balance, fell in.

THERE IS NOT a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—a pulmonic of acknowledged efficacy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back; and, as an inward specific, possesses most substantial claims to public confidence.
