BOERS WORSTED!

Two Commandoes, Including 109 Men Captured, and One of the Botha Family.

London, Sept. 22.—The war office has received a dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Sept. 22, to the effect that the British captured by the Boers in the ambush near Scheepers' Neck, Sept. 17, have been released, and the British casualties in the recent Vlakfontein engagement, when the Boers captured a company of mounted infantry and two guns, were one officer and five men killed, 23 men wounded and 6 officers and 169 men taken prisoners. He announces that these prisoners have since been released.

He further reports the capture of two commandoes—one consisting of 55 men, under Commandant Kochs, who were taken, together with their entire transport, west of Adenburg, and the other consisting of 54 men, including P. J. Botha, who were taken with 48 wagons and their belongings, 45 miles southeast of Carolina.

SERIOUS LOSS FOR THE BRITISH.

Lord Kitchener also reports:

"Kritzinger, while endeavoring to force a passage of the Orange River, near Hershell, at 5 o'clock Friday morning, rushed the camp of a party of Lovatt's Scouts. He failed to cross the railway, but the Scouts lost heavily."

"Lieut.-Col. the Hon. Andrew Murray and Capt. Murray, his adjutant, were killed. Deeply regret loss of Col. Murray, who throughout the war had led Lovatt's Scouts with great gallantry.

"Under cover of darkness the Boers managed to carry off a gun. They were promptly followed up, and the gun was recovered in a smart engagement, in which Kritzinger lost two killed and twenty taken prisoners."

BOERS 50 MILES FROM CAPE TOWN.

London, Sept. 22.—A most sensational letter is published by the Daily Express. The writer says: "The Boers are over-running Cape Colony. They are on both the coasts and within 50 miles of Cape Town. Even the intelligence department does not know how many colonists have taken up arms in the last fortnight. The town guard of Cape Town has handed in the magazine rifles and ammunition. Ostensibly these are wanted at the front. Martini-Henris have been served out instead." In conclusion, the writer declares: "The Dutch element in the colony is in revolt, and it is useless to disguise the fact. At Pretoria, the strength of the Boers in the field is now estimated at 11,000. If these figures be correct the Boers must be constantly getting recruits. Their supply of arms and ammunition seem to be inexhaustible. In Boer circles in Holland, it is said, that everything is ready for a Dutch rising in Cape Colony and Natal."

LEON F. CZOLGOSZ

The Murderer of President McKinley On Trial for His Dastardly Deed.

Buffalo, Sept. 23.—The trial of Leon F. Czolgosz for the murder of President McKinley began at 10 o'clock this morning. Long before that hour the streets near the city hall were the objective of many curious people. They were willing to take chances on being admitted to the court room, even though they knew that there were but 150 seats available.

The officer at the door of the court room was especially vigilant, and the city hall elevator man was even forbidden to stop at the second floor, where the court room is located. Everyone had to walk up the stairs, and before the lines of policemen.

PRISONER WON'T TALK.

The counsel for Czolgosz, former Justices Loran L. Lewis and Robert C. Titus, and Carlton E. Ladd, saw him again this morning before the time for the opening of court, but he had no more to say to them than at each of the previous times when they have visited him.

In view of the meagerness of the opportunity for a defense, and the fact that the prisoner refuses absolutely to aid them, it is not improbable that the entire proceedings may be completed within two days.

THE DEFENSE.

"The mental condition of the assassin will absolutely be the only defense to be offered" are the words of Judge Titus, and there is no little expectancy that they will publicly abandon the case today or tomorrow and merely represent Czolgosz formally during the trial.

As a result of the examination of two famous experts on mental diseases, Dr. Carlos T. McDonald and Dr. Allan M. Hamilton, of New York city, the question of insanity is eliminated from the subjects upon which the defense can rely for support. Counsel are therefore placed in the peculiar position of being chosen to defend a prisoner for whom no defense is possible. The trial, therefore, is but a mere necessary formality of law, and its result is probably less in doubt than any other trial for murder in the history of American courts.

GETTING A JURY.

Promptly at 10 o'clock Justice White took his place on the bench and the court was convened. The clerk began calling the names of the first panel of jurors.

The spectators' seats were filled very slowly, owing to the extreme care shown by the officers in the corridors about admitting those who applied, and it was not until "court" was announced that the last one was occupied.

Dr. Allen McLane Hamilton, of New York city, who examined Czolgosz yesterday, was one of the first persons connected with the case to take a position inside the inclosure. Dr. Hamilton, who was the chief insanity expert at the trial of Garfield's assassin, Guiteau, ocupied a seat at the table reserved for the prosecution, and this indicated that he was to be called by the government to prove the sanity of the prisoner.

PLEADED GUILTY.

At 10:15 Czolgosz was brought into the court room surrounded by deputy sheriffs and policemen. He was seated between guards directly in front of the bar.

District Attorney Penney read the charge against Czolgosz at 10:20 and asked the prisoner how he pleaded.

"Guilty," responded Czolgasz, in a low tone.

Judge Lewis arose and addressing the court, stated that according to the law this plea could not be accepted, and on behalf of the prisoner asked that a plea of not guilty be entered. The trial then proceeded.

CARD OF THANKS—SEPT. 20, 1901.—To the many friends who by their kindness and sympathy so very materially aided me and my family during my late husband's sickness and death, I desire to express my grateful thanks; and to London Tent of the Maccabees I would particularly say, their attention during Mr. Tanner's sickness, and the prompt payment of the insurance due me, will never be forgotten. I hope the order may live long to make glad many homes, as it has mine during my sorrow and bereavement. Very respectfully, FANNY TANNER. b

DOWN THE OTTAWA LUMBER SLIDES!

Royal Party Left Rideau Hall This Morning for a New Experience—Date of Thanksgiving Day Changed.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 23.—The royal party left Rideau Hall at 10:30 o'clock this morning for their trip down the lumber slides. At Rideau Hall gate they boarded an electric car, built specially for their trip. It is a magnificently furnished car, 50 feet in length. On either side is the British coat of arms in gold. The interior is furnished in antique polished oak, the ceiling being of birdseye maple. There are numerous plate mirrors, book cases, etc., and the car contains fourteen large easy chairs, upholstered in olive green plush. The car is capable of a speed of 50 miles an hour and is the first electric car ever provided exclusively for the use of royalty.

A number of police were on board the car, but there was no military escort. The car proceeded via Sussex, Sparks, Bank, Wellington and Queen streets to Oregon street, the head of the lumber slides.

Thanksgiving day will be observed on the last Thursday in November, instead of the last Thursday in October, as given out at first. It will therefore take place on Thursday, Nov. 28.

SIFTON CASE WILL BEGIN TOMORROW

Fall Assizes Were Opened at Court House Today.

Grand Jurors Sworn in Before Mr. Justice McMahon.

Court Decides to Hear Evidence in Famous Murder Trial at 10 O'Clock Tomorrow.

By 1 o'clock this afternoon, the hour set for the opening of the fall assizes for the county of Middlesex, a crowd had commenced to gather in the corridors and at the entrance of the courthouse. They were for the most part jurors and witnesses, for the curious public expected that the Sifton murder trial, the chief feature of the assizes, would not be called on the opening day. Among those in the crowd were John and Allie Sifton, brothers of the late Joseph Sifton, and uncles of the accused Gerald Sifton. They have, it will be remembered, believed in Gerald's innocence all through, and have placed at the disposal of the defense all their resources. In the crowd were also seen James and Martin Morden, who, with Edgar Morden, are expected to be the crown's chief witnesses. Edgar Morden himself had not made his appearance up to the time of the court's opening.

Although Mr. Justice MacMahon was expected at 10 o'clock, he did not arrive until an hour later. By that time the courthouse was comfortably filled with jurors and witnesses, the constables having orders to exclude all others until those having business in court were accommodated. If this is adhered to, the general public have little chance to be present at the trial. For the Sifton case alone about 100 witnesses are in attendance, 60 of the number being for the crown. In addition, there are the witnesses interested in the fifteen civil suits and two additional criminal cases entered. There are also in attendance thirteen grand jurors, and the panel of 96 petit jurors. The duties of the grand jury will be light, as true bills have been found at a previous assizes in each of the criminal cases set for trial. The grand jurors are as follows: Henry Gough, Metcale, foreman; George Ballantyne, Caradoc; A. J. Brock, Adelaide; Humphrey Badge, Caradoc; Sam Brown, Wardsville; John Friend, London; James Henderson, West Nissouri; James Lyons, sen., Metcalfe; Zachariah McCallum, Ekfrid; James Priddis, London township; Robert S. Robson, London; James Fitzgerald, London; John C. Scott, Strathroy.

The presiding judge is Mr. Justice MacMahon, who tried and sentenced J. Reginald Birchall in the famous trial at Woodstock. Some of the leading legal and medical men of Canada are also engaged for the Sifton trial. W. R. Riddell, K. C., of Toronto, as crown prosecutor, is assisted by Crown Attorney James Magee and Assistant Crown Attorney J. B. McKillop. E. F. B. Johnston, of Toronto, is the chief counsel for the defense, and with him are I. F. Hellmuth, of Toronto, and T. W. Scandrett and J. M. McEvoy, of London. Mr. Riddell is present, while Messrs. Johnston and Hellmuth are expected to arrive tonight. The official court reporter is Mr. M. J. Johnston, of Toronto.

In opening his address to the grand jury, the judge congratulated that body and the county on the comparative scarcity of crime, there being no cases to engage their attention, as true bills Dkd&Jrqddwofielfic engo the the the t had already been found in the cases set for trial. The judge therefore directed the grand jury to depart and return on Wednesday of next week, to see if any cases had in the meantime been sent for trial and to inspect the various institutions visited by grand juries. The judge referred to the favorable reports made on these institutions by former juries and hoped that a similar state of affairs would be found on the present occasion. He then released them from further attendance during the week.

Court was then adjourned till 10 a.m. Tuesday, when the Sifton case will be called.

PAN-AM. LOSS

The Tragedy at Buffalo Injured the Exposition.

Determination of the People to Make the Concluding Weeks Successful.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 22.—This city is pulling itself together again after a fortnight of anxiety and sorrow, such as it has never known. What was intended to be the gala period of its history was turned into unspeakable grief. There was never a community more engrossed in a great undertaking than Buffalo was with the Pan-American Exposition three weeks ago. When in his memorable address the president emphasized the Pan-American idea and made it part of history the people of Buffalo realized that their efforts were appreciated.

WILL LOSE $1,000,000.

The revulsion was terrible, and now that it has passed, the question of what is to come is interesting. The public feeling is strong and all one way. Everyone seems to realize that the stockholders of the exposition have met a great loss, probably not less than $1,000,000. That practically means the citizens, for about every Buffalonian has stock in the exposition. The dollar and cents seem pretty thoroughly to be eliminated from the calculation now, but they feel now that the exposition must be carried to a glorious finish as a labor of patriotism and of love.

President Milburn says: "The success of the Pan-American Exposition means much in the development of closer political and commercial relations between the people of the western hemisphere. That was a policy earnestly favored by President McKinley and which interested him so deeply in the exposition from its inception. It is a strange stroke of fate ful tragedy."

VERNON GALPIN'S BODY RECOVERED

Lost in Lake St. Clair for Six Days.

Was Brought Here Yesterday and Buried at Mount Pleasant This Afternoon.

The body of the late Vernon Ralph Galpin, only son of Mr. Joseph Galpin, of Detroit, formerly of this city, were recovered Saturday afternoon, and arrived here Sunday evening in a hermetically sealed casket. Concerning the finding of the body the Detroit News says:

"The body of Vernon R. Galpin, the young choir singer of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, who was drowned in Lake St. Clair last Sunday, was recovered this (Saturday) morning. Mr. Howell, of May avenue, Grosse Pointe, and John Donovan, mate of the Lily May, were at work on the wharf at the foot of Mt. Elliott avenue, when they saw the body floating in the river a little distance out. They rowed out in a small boat and pulled the body in. A gold watch, 75 cents in change and a number of other articles were found in the pockets, and a card bearing the name 'Vernon R. Galpin, St. Peter's Chapter,' established his identity. The body was badly decomposed. Howell and Donovan will receive the reward of $25 which Mayor Maybury offered for the recovery of Galpin's body. Coroner Forth decided that no inquest will be necessary."

On Sunday afternoon, at Detroit, the body was borne to St. Peter's Episcopal Church, six of the choir boys acting as pall-bearers. A choral funeral service was held, the full choir, of which the unfortunate young man had been a member for ten years, taking part. The edifice was crowded, many being unable to gain admittance. Rev. C. L. Leonard, the rector, officiated, and spoke in feeling terms of the sad event. The choir rendered appropriate music, and their keen sorrow at the loss of a favorite companion was many times plainly visible during the singing. The remains were conveyed to the G. T. R. at 3 o'clock, for shipment to London. On arrival here the body was at once taken to Stephenson's undertaking parlors, from whence the funeral took place this afternoon, Rev. J. H. Moorhouse officiating. The pallbearers were Messrs. A. R. and Thos. H. Galpin, uncles of the deceased, and J. J. Galpin, A. E. Galpin, E. B. Galpin and William West, all cousins of the young man. Interment took place in the family plot at Mount Pleasant. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Galpin, the parents of deceased, and his sister, Miss May Galpin, accompanied the remains to London. The casket was literally buried beneath beautiful floral emblems when it left Detroit, and several additional handsome pieces were contributed by friends here. The bereaved parents and family will have the sympathy of their many friends in London as well as Detroit in their sad affliction.
