For sale—135 acres in the township of Delaware, in the County of Middlesex, being westerly part of lot 7, concession 1, Delaware. This farm is a rich clay loam, in first-class state of cultivation. On the premises are a splendid brick house, with 10 rooms; also frame barn, frame stable, shed, granary, pig pen and hen house, all in good state of repair. The farm is well tile drained. There is a ravine running through the farm, which makes the best of pasture land, the grass remaining green through the dryest portion of the summer; there is an abundance of water, a spring creek being on the farm. There is a good orchard of fall and winter fruit; also a number of shade and ornamental trees. This is a rare chance for any one who wants to go into the stock raising or dairying business. It is also an excellent grain farm. It is about half a mile from the village of Delaware, about four miles from Komoka and Mt. Brydges, and 10 or 12 miles from London. Splendid gravel road in front of farm and all the way to London. There are 20 acres of land prepared for fall wheat, which will be sown by the 20th of September, 1900, the day of sale.

Anyone having 50 or 100 acre farm, with good soil and in good locality, desirous of purchasing this farm, can apply the value of his or her farm on account of the purchase money, if the value of the 50 or 100 acre farm is settled and arranged with us before the day of sale. Anyone wishing to make this arrangement must send us, before the day of sale, full particulars of the farm, giving the number of lot or part of lot, concession and township, also number of acres cleared, kind of buildings, if any, how watered, kind of soil, etc. This 125-acre farm will be sold on the premises, on Thursday, Sept. 20, 1900, at 2 p.m. For further particulars see posters or apply to us.

To Rent—Frame house, on corner of Ridout and Fullarton streets; two blocks from market and postoffice; $13 a month.

$5 or $6 a month will buy a cottage in London South; five minutes' walk from market and postoffice.

If you want to buy a farm in Western Ontario, call or send for our printed list of farms which we have on hand for sale.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT ST. CATHARINES.

St. Catharines, Sept. 11.—James Beaver, teamster for Carter's brickyard, was fatally injured yesterday by falling off a load of cordwood near the brickyard, and died at the hospital about half an hour after he was admitted. Deceased was a married man, with six children. He was steady and industrious, and was a member of the Salvation Army.

NO PERSON SHOULD GO from home without a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellog's Dysentery Cordial in their possession, as change of water, cooking, climate, etc., frequently brings on summer complaint, and there is nothing like being ready, with a sure remedy at hand, which oftentimes saves great suffering, and frequently valuable lives. This Cordial has gained for itself a widespread reputation for affording prompt relief from all summer complaints.

WARNED OF THE CYCLONE

Predicted to Strike Galveston on Friday Night.

The Conditions Were Ominous, Though the Storm Was Delayed—Wind Reached a Velocity of 100 Miles an Hour.

Galveston, Texas, by dispatch boat to Houston, Texas, Sept. 10.—The terrific cyclone that produced such a distressing disaster in Galveston, and all through Texas, was predicted by the United States weather bureau to strike Galveston Friday night and created much apprehension. The night passed without the prediction being verified, but the conditions were ominous. The southwestern sky was sombre. The gulf beat high on the beach with a dismal thunderous roar that presaged trouble. The air had the stillness that betokens a storm.

Then from out the south the wind began to come in spiteful puffs, increasing in volume as the day dawned.

SATURDAY MORNING.

By 10 o'clock Saturday morning it was almost a gale. At noon it had increased in velocity, and was driving the rain, whipping the pools, and tearing foliage in a vicious manner. Residents near the beach were aroused to the danger that threatened their homes, as stupendous waves began to send their waters far inland. The gulf force drove the waves with irresistible pressure high upon the beach, and the gale from the northeast pitched the waters against and over the wharves, choking the sewers and flooding the city from that quarter.

THE FLOOD BEGINS.

The streets rapidly began to fill with water; communication became difficult, and the helpless people were caught between two powerful elements, while the wind howled and rapidly increased in velocity. Railroad communication was cut off shortly after noon by the track being washed out; wire facilities completely failed at 3 o'clock, and Galveston was

ISOLATED FROM THE WORLD.

The wind momentarily increased, the waters rapidly rose, and the night drew on, with dreaded apprehension depicted on the faces of every one. Already hundreds and thousands were bravely struggling with their families against the mad waves and fierce wind for places of refuge. The public school buildings, court house, hotels, in fact, any place that offered apparently a safe refuge from the elements, became crowded to their utmost.

At 6 p.m., just before the anemometer blew away, the wind had reached the frightful velocity of 100 MILES AN HOUR.

Then sturdier buildings swayed and trembled and crashed, carrying death and destruction to hundreds of people. Windows were driven in or shattered by flying slate; telegraph, telephone and electric light poles, with their masses of wires, were snapped off like pipe stems, and through the air flew house roofs like stringless kites before the hurricane. What velocity the wind attained after the anemometer blew off, is purely a matter of speculation. The lowest point touched by the barometer in the Associated Press correspondent's office, which was filled by frightened men and women, was 28:04½ at about 7:30 p.m. It then began to rise very slowly, and by 10 p.m. had reached 28.09.

SUBSIDED AT MIDNIGHT.

Then it gradually subsided, and by midnight the storm had passed. The water, which had reached a depth of eight feet on the Strand at 10 o'clock p.m. began to ebb very rapidly, and by
