At Kansas City on Tuesday the last race at Exposition Park resulted in a fatal accident. Bennie Vail, who had the mount on Al Watts, was so badly injured that he died before he could be carried from the track. The horse was killed. As they came around the course into the back stretch, Al Watts was next to the last, and Mrs. S. was trailing behind. Al Watts attempted to bolt. Vail leaned over to take another turn on the reins. As he did his hand slipped and the horse got his head and fell, rolling completely over the boy. Mrs. S., coming upon them, leaped over the horse and rider. Though the latter horse did not fall, her shoulder was badly sprained.

At St. Louis, Outaway, in the third race, opened at 200 to 1, but the active backing of one man who entered the betting ring cut the price to 40 as the books closed. The horse won in a canter. Two long shots and three favorites took the other races. By the breaking of a girth, Assignee, in the fourth race, dropped 30 pounds of lead in the stretch, and shot under the wire. She was disqualified.
