DR. CHANNING'S Sarsaparilla

FOR THE BLOOD

CURES SYPHILIS, SCROFULA, SALT-RHEUM, ALL SKIN-DISEASES, TUMORS, ENLARGEMENT OF THE LIVER AND SPLEEN, RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS, DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER AND URINARY ORGANS, LEUCORRHŒA, CATARRH, AND ALL DISEASES RESULTING FROM A DEPRAVED AND IMPURE CONDITION OF THE BLOOD.

A HIGHLY CONCENTRATED EXTRACT OF

RED JAMAICA SARSAPARILLA

AND THE

DOUBLE IODIDES

Space forbids the giving more testimony in this place, in favor of this great medicine. Is not one certificate, however, from an eminent and well-known Physician like Dr Bessey, of Montreal, sufficient to establish its superiority over the numerous mixtures called Blood Purifiers offered by Druggists and others?

T. C. STRATTON, Esq.

Montreal, Feb. 1st, 1877.

I cannot but regard the formula from which Dr. Channing's Sarsaparilla is prepared, as one of the best possible combinations to constitute an effectual remedy, for the cure of Blood Impurities. So far as my experience leads me with this remedy, I can testify to its great value in the treatment of all Strumous and Cachectic affections, as Glandular Enlargements, and a wide range of skin affections; as a reliable preparation for general use as a blood purifier, I know of none equal to it, combining as it does, all the imputed virtues of Sarsaparilla, and several other valuable remedies, with the extraordinary alterative properties of the "Double Iodides," and of none that can be more highly recommended as safe, certain and reliable, and I have every confidence that such a remedy for general use, taking the place of the many worthless nostrums of the day, will be a great boon to suffering humanity, and its use will be attended with the most satisfactory results. It should be invaluable to persons beyond the reach of medical advice, and will, no doubt, become popular with Medical men throughout the country.

Respectfully yours,

W. E. BESSEY, M.D
Beaver Hall Square.

NOTE.—Dr. Channing's Sarsaparilla is put up in large bottles, with the name blown in the Glass, and retails at $1.00 per bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars. Sold by Druggists generally, and most Country Stores. Be sure, and ask for Dr. Channing's Sarsaparilla and take no other. If not readily obtained in your locality, address the General Agent.

Bloodroot, from whose brittle stem
The red drops fell like blood.

With their quiet shy habits, seldom disturbed by the hand of man, these interesting flowers can be found on the islands on the North West branch of the Miramichi by Redbank. The plant is called Sanguinaria; if the plant is cut, or leaves punctured, a red juice is discharged which resembles blood.

Lovers of Hiawatha may remember the following:—

"Saw the earliest flowers of Spring-time,
Saw the beauty of the Spring-time,
Saw the Misto-deed in blossom."

What is this Misto-deed mentioned? it is no less than the little "Spring Beauty" which may be found at Indiantown—pretty rose-colour flowers.

The Buckbean is found in a most unattractive spot, where few people would ever think of going, viz., the swamps opposite Newcastle by the ferry landing, but one is apt to forget the surroundings on looking at the exquisite workmanship of these floral petals, irregular bundles of soft hairs that block up the star shaped corolla like plugs of wool. These hairs present an endless amount of interest to the botanist, and are placed differently on other plants, all for a purpose, protecting some portion of the plant, and determining whether the visits of those unbidden guest, the insects, would confer a benefit or an injury to it.

In the marsh pink orchid's faces
With their coy and dainty graces
Lure us to their hiding places—

Back of Chatham in the vicinity of the Railway track, I one day found the Calopogan. This flower is not considered very rare. I have found it on Escuminac barren, and no doubt it is to be seen in many a marsh. Orchids are very interesting flowers and assume remarkable shapes, possessing usually the the brightest tints. The visitation of flying insects aid in cross fertilization. We have quite a variety of orchids, Ladies Tresses, Lady's Slipper White Fringed orchis, Adder's mouth, Coral root and others.

A walk by the banks of Miramichi, where the land is high

The harebell trembled on its stem
Down where the rushing waters gleam.
Oh! roses and lilies are fair to see
But the wild blue-bell is the flower for me.

I have found numbers between Newcastle and the Mill Cove.

In the woods by Sinclair's mill close to the North-West bridge

The starry fragile wind-flower
Poised above in airy grace,
Virgin white, suffused with blushes
Shyly creeps her lovely face.

The Anemone,—called the wind-flower from the supposition that the flower only opened when the wind blew. I have seen numbers of them about Indiantown.

The Painted Trillium, another of our spring flowers is quite common with us. This is what botanists call a complete flower. Numbers may be found close by the rifle range, Chatham, Chaplain Island Road, Newcastle, and Beaubear Island. I have seen upwards of two hundred on the Island. For decorative purposes these flowers would be most appropriate at the special Church season, when they usually blossom.

On Fox, Portage and other Islands at the mouth of the river may be found what one of the inhabitants in that locality called the Heather. Not unlike the "Bonny Heather Bell" the creeping Hudsonia has pretty yellow flowers, and these are said to only open for one day, the sands in places are literally covered with these plants.

The favourite of the immortal Swedish botanist, Linneus, and called after him "Linnea." Who does not know it? It was found by the Arctic explorer Nordensgjold in the far North, and I have no doubt is plentiful in Norway and Sweden, for I recollect some Norwegian captains being highly delighted at finding some of these flowers by the Water Mill, Lower Mill Cove, some years ago, called often times the Twinflower—two flowers issuing from the flower stalk. These flowers are found almost everywhere in our woods. Let any one at end of June or 1st July walk through Beaubear Island, he will then know there is something fragrant in the air as well as beauty lining his footsteps.

In the woods usually growing under deciduous trees, the Partridge Berry, Prince's Pine and Wood-sorrel may be found. The Partridge berry is a smooth and trailing herb, with red berries which remain over winter. The flowers are very pretty, white, fragrant, tinged with purple. I have not found very many of them. They are also very interesting to the botanist.

Prince's Pine, I have seen quite numerous at Mill Cove. This is a plant rather difficult to find out, the flowers are handsome.

Around sheltered hillocks
Where the wood-sorrel grows—

A midsummer stroll when the heat is very oppressive, in woods where the birch, maple and beech look their best, here and there wood fern, and a copious growth of Pigeon Berry and False's Solomon's Seal, one of the gems of the forest peeps out, disclosing violet petals. At times it may be found in damp woods, surrounded on all sides by varieties of feather moss. On the cross roads between Chatham and Nelson, any number of these wild beauties may be collected.

The largest vessels in the English navy cost $1,250,000 to build, and nearly $1,000 a day to keep them at sea afterward.

There is no remedy in the world so valuable to use in the case of sudden accident or illness as Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. It can be used internally and externally, and its power is truly marvelous.

Cramps are immediately relieved by taking a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer in a little milk and sugar; it takes about two minutes to relieve the worst cases.

O. E. Comstock, Caledonia, Minn. writes "I was suffering the most excruciating pains from inflammatory rheumatism. One application of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil afforded almost instant relief, and two bottles effected an permanent cure.

There is nothing so dear as cheap medicine; it is dear at any price. This is true of the large packs of condition powders now sold. Buy Sheridans Cavalry Condition Powders and you can't make a mistake. The large packs are utterly worthless.

Mr. Henry M. Stanley's mother is an inn-keeper at the little Welsh village of Cross Foxes. The explorer's step-father is a thatcher and tiler in the village, and had never seen London until his adopted son brought him thither, when the African explorer was the lion of the day.
