: En anch- pre-music per-

In Concert: Live concerts from the B.B.C. in London. Some of contemporary music's most popular names recorded live, with some interesting and rare moments. Jan. 24: The Kinks. Jan. 31: The Police. Feb. ? E.L.O. Feb. 14: Valentine's Day with Joni Mitchell and James Taylor.

The Goon Show: Yes, it is the classic B.B.C. radio comedy of the 1950's starring the late Peter Sellers, Harry Secombe, and Spike Milligan. Comedy at its best, offering the roots of the famous B.B.C. comedy.

Focus: To inform the listening audience in regard to current news events with in-depth reporting and backgrounding, primarily dealing with Campus news. Will use a primary host, featuring recorded news features, interviews, telephone interviews, etc. Frequently will use Editorial comments.

Feedback: CHSR-FM's talk show, inquiring into current controversies that concern the Universities. It is an open line phone-in talk show, with a host interviewing 2 or 3 people on various sides of an issue, and fielding questions from the listening audience.

Happenings: A general run-down of upcoming social/entertainment/cultural interest activities on campus and in the community.

Cultures: Conveys to the listening audience an awareness of culture, social structure, lifestyle and ideology differing from the Canadian or North-American norm. A mixture of conversation, interview, news materials and some music.

Seminar: Recorded and edited lectures and speeches, perhaps with commentary and response from others. Jan. 27: Premier Richard Hatfield recorded on Nov. 28th, 1980 at a discussion presented by UNB's Political Science department in Tilley Hall.

Radio Theatre: Entertains the listening audience with productions of radio plays, drawing largely on local playwrights. Jan. 28: You Know What Thought Did by Prof. Robert Gibbs.

Rocks And Water: Features poetry, prose-poetry, experimental writing, improvisational works, etc. Will use local poets and writers, and some published works. For the first few weeks we will present selected performed works from the 1980 Maritime Writers Workshop.

Live Sports Broadcasts: Two a week, hopefully all on the weekend. Jan. 25: 2:00 PM: UNB Red Devils vs. UPEI at the Aitken. Jan. 30, 8:00 PM: Women's Basketball-UNB vs the New Brunswick Seniors. Jan. 31, 3:00 PM: Men's Basketball-UNB vs SMU. Feb. 6, 7:30 PM: UNB Red Devils at U de M. Feb. 7, 7:30 PM: UNB Red Devils at Mount A.

Living Science: Science news from in and around the campus. Join host Dr. Alan Sharp and his weekly guests from the various UNB science departments. This week - Atmospheric physicist Dr. Charles Young talks about weather forecasting.
