A CONSERVATIVE CONFESSION.

[Montreal Star.]

The biggest boodle manipulator in Canada stands very near the throne.

OR AS A DUCK TAKES WATER.

[Washington Post.]

The Canadian Cabinet takes to the boodle business in a manner which indicates that it was made up of imported New York aldermen.

SIR JOHN'S CONFESSION VERIFIED.

[Montreal Star.]

The revelations which are being made at Ottawa impart an almost ghastly significance to the remark made by the late Sir John Macdonald at a banquet in Quebec a few years ago, to the effect that his Government bribed people with their own money.

A BLOW AT HIS BOSS.

[Chatham Banner.]

Major Gray, one of the engineers of the Public Works Department has a keener idea of the fitness of things than his chief. He has been superintending some improvements at Owen Sound, and now that the work is finished, the town council proposed to present him with a gold watch as a testimonial to the efficient work done. The major surprised the council by declining the gift on the ground that being a public servant he could not accept a present for service rendered in his official capacity. Sir Hector will be apt to suspend him for such talk. It is a reflection on his superior in office.

A USE FOR CONVICT LABOR.

[New York Journal of Commerce.]

We have urged at various times during the last 40 years the employment of convicts at road making. The iron horse with his steel track has come into the carrying business, to the great neglect of all the country thoroughfares. It would pay the people of every town and country to construct and maintain the very best country roads through every part of their settlement. If this was done in the most thorough manner at the expense of the taxpayers the outlay would be a most profitable investment. The want of united action has proved a serious obstacle to this most necessary work. The State might undertake it without any great expense, and by employing the convicts not only provide every part of the commonwealth with roads that would be useful and attractive, richly rewarding the service, but also make the penalty of imprisonment more of a real hardship to the soft-handed thief, burglar, forger, safe-breaker and the like, who think but little now of a sentence that provides them with food and clothing and easy labor.

THE REIGN OF TUPPER.

In a recent speech in the House of Commons Mr. Cameron, of Huron, got back at Sir Charles Tupper for his reference to leading members of the Liberal party as "ruined gamesters" in the following language:

"Whether Sir Charles is a ruined gamester or not, I know not nor care not. His political career for 25 years shows him to be anything but a ruined gamester. For a quarter of a century he was a member of Parliament, a member of the Government, or ruling the Government of the country.

"He was not a millionaire a quarter of a century ago. He left Canada a year or two ago, as I have already intimated, an English baronet and a reported Canadian millionaire. Everybody knows that a member of Parliament cannot become a millionaire on his sessional allowance, that a member of the Government cannot become a millionaire in a few years out of his official salary, if he discharges his duty as a member of the Government and an occupant of the treasury benches.

"If a gigantic fortune cannot be acquired in this way, how can it be acquired? The echo answers how? Canada would be startled to know the means whereby Canadian statesmen acquire baronetcies and even some English peerages, and at the same time become Canadian millionaires."

WHY SIR HECTOR LANGEVIN SHOULD RESIGN.

[Toronto Week.]

There is as yet neither confession nor positive proof of willful wrong-doing on the part of any Minister. And while it is true that in the eye of British law every man must be held innocent until he has been proved guilty, it is no less true that there is a certain degree of reasonable suspicion which destroys the usefulness of a public officer and disqualifies him for a position of responsibility and trust. No business man would retain a clerk in such a position, pending the results of an investition, when appearances and circumstantial evidence were as much against him, as they are, in view of the evidence of Mr. Murphy, Mr. Valin, and of written documents, against the present head of the Department of Public Works. So long as there is a possibility of innocence there is a possibility of grave hardship in acting on the presumption of guilt. But after all, as Butler long since pointed out, "probabilities are the very guide of life." And in the case of Sir Hector Langevin there is this to be said further. The very evidence that should prove the honesty of the man would shatter the honesty of the Minister and certify his utter incompetence for the position he holds. For there is absolutely no escape from the alternatives of incompetency or dishonorable conduct.

Perfectos.

The name of Perfecto is used by the leading Havana factories to designate a particular size and (generally extra fine) quality of a brand of cigars. It is well known to connoisseurs and in great demand in the principal clubs in Europe and America. A great many factories, owing to the great popularity this size has obtained, are using the word Perfecto on all classes of goods, some as low as $20 per 1,000; therefore, we caution the public to be particular when purchasing and see that they obtain the genuine size and quality that should be represented in the Perfecto size. Our "La Cadena" or "La Flora" will be found a creditable example. S. DAVIS & SONS, Montreal. 1-tf
