TECUMSEHS ARE BLANKED WHEN THEY FAIL TO HIT

Ed Scott Pitches Gilt-Edged Ball, But Teammates Cannot Get Him Any Runs—"Dad" Stewart Appears as Pinch Hitter and Singles.

BRANTFORD, June 20.—The London team put up a nifty battle here tonight, but the Brantford Red Sox got the long end of the 2—0 score. The battle was as pretty a pitching duel as has been staged here this year, Scott showing splendid form for the Indians. At that, he lost the game in the second innings, when a three-bagger by Nelson and a two-bagger by Carroll combined to make the necessary counter.

Scott struck out ten men all told, and he had a fine break of curves and control, which fairly dazzled the heavy hitters on Tom Nelson's pay-roll. With any kind of hitting behind him, he would have been returned the winner.

"Dad" Stewart in Game.

One of the bright features of the game was the return of "Dad" Stewart, always a popular favorite in Brantford. "Dad" takes over the London team on Saturday, but he was pretty much there as manager tonight. At any rate, not having faced a pitcher in many moons, he pulled Hagel out in the ninth and substituted himself. The Brantford fans were honestly glad to see the old boy respond with a spanking single to centre, and it was only the third one of the evening off Gokey. But, as usual, the London club gummed things up.

Needed a Hit Here.

Mitchell had drawn a pass in the ninth, and there was no one out. Then Stewart cracked his single to centre. The necessary sacrifice was not forthcoming, Grodick cracking the ball to short and forcing Mitchell at third. Pettinger, next up, forced Grodick at second, Stewart getting to third. The best Reeves could do was a liner to centre. The Indians were also dangerous in the ninth, and a sacrifice hit would have put a different complexion on the game.

The first Brantford run was an earned affair, but the second was the result of loose work on the part of the visitors. With two out in the fifth, J. Murphy was safe on a fielder's choice, and stole second. Newman missed the throw on Murphy at first, and the two Murphys endeavored to work the delayed steal. Grodick let the throw from Milligan drop, J. Murphy scoring a cheap run. Brady struck out to retire the side.

No Double-Header for "Dad."

The Brantford officials were anxious to put off a double-header here on Saturday, but Manager Stewart objected tonight, as a double-header is against the league ruling on the first trip around the circuit by any club. The Red Sox are anxious to improve their standing at London's expense, but the Indians reported tonight that they had only two pitchers.

The new men on the Brantford club, Catcher Carroll, Third Baseman Cully and Left Fielder Nelson, were well received, and showed improvement on the players let go today by the Red Sox.

BATTLE CREEK GOES SEVEN INNINGS BEFORE COOK'S PITCHING IS SOLVED

Umpire Was in Trouble Throughout Game For Questionable Decisions—Lamb Hit Winning Run.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., June 20.—It took Battle Creek seven innings to solve Cook this afternoon, with Bay City maintaining a two-run lead from the seventh. But in the seventh Jewell walked, Jenkins was safe on Byrne's poor throw, and Kaylor scored both with a double.

In the ninth Jenkins walked, Kaylor singled and, with two out, Lamb hit in the winning run.

Bay City's two scores were due to a hit by Friedman, a walk for Honeck and Cook's two-base drive.

Umpire Meyers was in trouble all through the game for questionable decisions. The score:

UMPIRE GIVES WEIRD EXHIBITION OF BASEBALL BY HIS RAW DECISIONS

Game Stopped Several Times by Arguments—Crowd Swarm On Field When Lowry Ran Into Short On Third Base Line.

KITCHENER, June 20.—The second game of the series between the Hamilton Tigers and Kitchener Beavers was won by the visitors by a score of 10 to 3, and was featured by raw decisions of Umpire Anderson, who gave the poorest exhibition witnessed here this season. On several occasions the game was stopped owing to arguments with the official, and things looked bad for the umpire. Sharp pitched for the Beavers, and was hit hard by the Tigers, no less than five of thirteen hits being two-baggers. Glasier was in the box for the Tigers, and during the first seven innings kept the hits scattered. A rally was started in the eighth by the Beavers, which brought three runs across the plate and prevented a shut-out. The crowd swarmed onto the field in the sixth inning, when Lowry ran into Sharp on the third base line, but no damage was done. The score:

"Dad" Stewart Takes Charge of Tecumsehs

Well-Known St. Thomas Ball Player and War Veteran Replaces Hagel as Boss of Tail-Enders—Hagel Still With Club.

The London Boseball Club has shifted the management of the Tecumsehs from Ken. Hagel to Carl ("Dad") Stewart of St. Thomas, who needs no introduction to local fans. "Dad" joined the team at Brantford yesterday and took part in the game with the Red Sox. He went in as a pinch hitter, batting for Hagel, and came through with a single.

Hagel Will Remain With Team.

Hagel will stay with the club and hold down a regular position. It is also likely that Stewart will be a regular member of the line-up playing his old position in right field. The Tecumsehs London when Rube Deneau had charge of a Canadian league club here, and he was one of the best hitters on the team. He usually crowded the .300 mark when he is playing every day. Stewart's last appearance in the league was with the Ottawa under Shaughnessy. Then he went to the war where he fought in many engagements with the Canadians. As a bomb thrower he gained considerable reputation in the trenches.

Players Released and Signed.

The London club has released Frank Gurney, Gurskey and Campbell, the latter, one of the new men, Hagel tried out, but found him lacking ability enough to hold a place. Reeves, who was let out by Knotty Lee, has been signed for London. Reeves was with the Red Sox, when they took three games at Tecumseh Park last week, and he looked like one of their best hitters. He will play an outfield position.

SAGINAW LOSES ITS FIRST SERIES OF THIS SEASON

Gleich Made Sensational Play When He Grabbed Ball at His Shoe String With Bare Hand—Schriner Hit Freely.

FLINT, Mich., June 20.—Flint took the edge on the series from Saginaw tonight winning, 4 to 2. Hayes allowed the Aces only five hits, of which only two went to the outfield, while the locals hit Schriver freely.

This is the first series Saginaw has lost this season. Coble, Flint's first baser, led the attack on Saginaw, his pair of triples and single putting him in position to score three times. The first hit came in the second inning, after Allen had singled and stolen. Coble had his tap in front of the plate beaten, but McDaniels threw wide to first and Allen counted. Shea followed with a single, scoring Coble. In the fourth inning Coble tripled and again in the sixth, each time scoring on a hit by Wetzel. Gleich robbed him of another hit by a sensational play in the eighth, grabbing the ball with his bare hand at his shoestrings and doubling Murphy off first. The score:
