BELIEVES ST. JOHN SOON WILL HAVE NEW, BIG, SNAPPY ATHLETIC CLUB

H. B. Gilbert Reports Success in Preliminary Work of Organization.

If present plans of some prominent young athletes in this city materialize, St. John will soon boast of a club, which will rival those in larger centres. The need of a modern club where big athletic meets can be arranged, financed etc., is declared urgent, and with this object in view an effort will be made to interest prominent citizens, and by their co-operation the originators of this movement feel assured that success will attend their efforts.

H. B. Gilbert, who is well known to followers of athletics and more particularly to hockey fans, is fathering this scheme and his experience in upper Canadian cities is expected to prove of great value. He has taken the scheme up with several citizens and reports that all have heartily agreed that the time is ripe for the establishment of such a club.

In conversation with a representative of The Times today, Mr. Gilbert said there is every indication that St. John is recovering from the slump occasioned by the world war, and he feels that athletics go a long way toward brightening up a city and making it more attractive. He is confident that sufficient money can be raised to purchase a building suitable for the purpose and a strong board of directors could be secured to carry on the business. At the present time he said St. John is making a mark in athletics, and the fame of local skaters, scullers and boxers is spreading. He pointed out that this is largely due to individual effort, but if a club was organized all lines of sports could be cared for and representatives sent to big meets throughout Canada and the United States. He considers that this is one of the greatest means of advertising a city.

Mr. Gilbert was formerly captain of the senior St. John hockey team and was one of the best players developed hereabouts in recent years. Some years ago he went to upper Canada as an employe of the Royal Bank of Canada and while in Montreal played with the crack bank sextette and also with St. Anne's. This winter he will again appear on the ice and his acquisition to the local team should go a long way towards strengthening them. His knowledge of the game should also prove a big factor in educating the younger talent.

C. P. R. CHIEF TO BE HERE DEC. 5

Pres. Beatty to Give Luncheon to Business Men on S. S. Montclare.

Major General Hugh H. McLean, K. C., returned home today from Montreal. He brought with him a message that President Beatty of the Canadian Pacific Railway would be in St. John December 5 and would entertain prominent business men of the city at luncheon on the Canadian Pacific Steamship Montclare.

Power Co. Directors Cut Price.

American financial interests own about ninety per cent. of the money invested in the N. B. Power Co., but these financial interests had no voice in the management of the company previous to April, 1923, when the controlling interest was purchased by the Federal Light & Traction Company, New York, which company has behind it large financial resources and is in close touch with the industrial life of the United States. It is prepared to invest millions of dollars in developing the business of the N. B. Power Co. if it can be assured of fair treatment and a reasonable prospect of a fair return on its investment.

Musquash Energy.

Immediately on having acquired control this company made every effort to make some arrangement with the City Council to handle Musquash energy, but were unsuccessful. The fair-mindedness of the Federal Light & Traction Company cannot be questioned, and they have instructed us to represent the interests of the city in the operations of the N. B. Power Co. in a free and independent manner. This completed an entire change in the control and management of the N. B. Power Co., and in our efforts to act in the best interests of all concerned there are three branches of the business to which we have to give consideration: Gas, Street Railway, Light and Power.

We have recommended that a reduction of 10% be made in the price of gas. This recommendation has been been approved of, and the reduction will be put in effect January 1, 1924. The engineers of the company have recommended an expenditure of $850,000 to improve the gas plant, and this recommendation is now receiving consideration, and immediate expenditure of $61,000 already having been approved.

Present Rates Fair.

Regarding street railway, we consider that the present rates of fares are low and it is our wish to have these low rates continued if at all possible.

We are prepared to recommend that a further reduction be made in the rates for light and power, but feel it is necessary to postpone action along this line until it becomes known what amount of business the citizens will give this company. In other words, the price of light and power and the continuance of the present railway fares will depend on the amount of light and power business that the people give to the company. An increased business will mean a decrease of rates and a continuance of the present street railway fares.

The Federal Light & Traction Company is in a position, and quite willing if the business warrants, to extend the street railway, improve the roadbed, supply new cars, and develop the Lepreaux and Magaguadavic water powers. It is in their interest, and they will use every effort to advance the industrial life of this city.

We view with great alarm the position of the city in continuing its present Hydro policy. St. John now has an opportunity of having associated with it a corporation that is in a position to improve conditions here and is desirous of doing so, and we feel that every effort should be made whereby the city and the Federal Light & Traction Company could co-operate along these lines, and we are prepared to discuss the details with civic representatives with a view of working out some solution which would be in the best interests of all concerned.

Yours very truly,
W. C. ALLISON,
W. S. FISHER,
W. E. GOLDING,
J. L. McAVITY,
A. P. PATERSON,
RICHARD SULLIVAN.

MARKING 43 YEARS OLD IN TREE TRUNK

Interesting Evidence Develops in School Lot Line Case in Court.

An element of woodcraft was injected into the proceedings of the Supreme Court yesterday before Mr. Justice Chandler, in the suit of the trustees of School District No. 20, Parish of Simonds, for an injunction to restrain James F. Bean from continuing to trespass on a school lot on which it is alleged he built a log cabin.

Evidence was given by G. G. Murdoch to show that an old blaze which was made on the side of a tree, marking the corner of the lot some 47 years ago was found when a piece was chopped from the tree in 1919, that the letter "S," which was used as a distinguishing mark, was found plainly decipherable under 43 rings of wood which had grown, one each year, since that time. Pieces chopped from the tree were presented in court to bear out this testimony.

Deputy Crown Land Surveyor Smith was the last witness heard for the defence yesterday and Frank Lenihan and James B. English were called in rebuttal of Mr. Bean's statement that the trustees did not know where the lot line was when he built his log cabin. Mr. Lenihan testified that Francis Kane, an old school trustee, and James English had pointed out to the defendant, when he was building, that he was on school ground, and pointed out the tree in question to bear out their contention.

The case was adjourned until tomorrow for argument. Kelly & Ross are representing the trustees, and H. A. Powell, K. C., Mr. Bean.

FIVE CHINESE BUY "HECTOR'S"

It was learned today that a syndicate composed of five Chinese, all cousins, were the purchasers of Hector's restaurant in Prince William street. They plan on opening up in a couple of weeks. At the present time they are arranging to have the premises renovated.

PLUCKY SWISS WANDERERS.

Two young men Charles Frei and Louis Knetchli, natives of Basle, Switzerland, arrived in the city yesterday seeking engagement as accordeonists. In Europe the accordeon of the large "piano" type, has been developed to orchestral possibilities. The good-looking Swiss came to Canada with a pilgrimage of their fellow-townsmen in August, landing at Halifax. They first took up farm work in Cape Breton but were untrained for this labor, so they have fallen back upon their musical abilities to earn a livelihood at least for the present. They played in Halifax and Moncton with much acceptance, now they are in St. John. They take the name of their accordeon quartette in the old country, the Stradella Duo and are being heard here in connection with a theatre's concerts.

VICTORY WON BY WETS IN ALBERTA

Give a Large Majority for Control of Liquor by Government.

Calgary, Alta., Nov. 5—On figures compiled at 10.30 tonight there was a majority for Government control in Alberta of 23,545 in a total counted vote of 114,933. Slightly more than half of the polls had reported, but they accounted for about 75 per cent. of the expected vote and so the result will not be altered appreciably. At 10.30, a total of 1,170 polls, including the majority of those in Calgary and Edmonton gave the following results:

A—meaning continuance of prohibition, 42,963.
B—Meaning sale of beer in hotels, 3,114.
C—Meaning sale of beer by the Government, 2,348.
D—Meaning Government control, plus sale of beer in licensed premises, 66,508.

Swing Was Apparent.

The swing of the province into the "wet" column was apparent from earliest returns. The moderation majority appeared with the first polls and despite setbacks from occasional areas, largely in the southern parts of the province it grew steadily into proportions which made the result inevitable. It was notable that the outlying constituencies as a rule gave very substantial "wet" majorities.

As in Manitoba the result showed that the prohibition forces were not able in this case to rely on the farmers' vote as they did in the past. Claims of the Moderation League that Government control would reduce taxes undoubtedly had a strong effect, just as voters in the cities obviously were impressed by the argument that prohibition had proved incapable of adequate enforcement and that the Government should have the profits which it was alleged were going to bootleggers under the present system.

Prohibition workers in their publicity and campaign work declared that adopting Clause (D) meant the return of the bar in all essentials, but the argument apparently carried little weight with the people. Some remarkable majorities were recorded.

SAYS MILL STREET IS TOO NARROW

Contractor Speaks of Work on Rails—Three Weeks of Jam.

That Mill street should be widened considerably because of the exceptionally heavy traffic was a statement made today by Contractor Frank Wade, who is in charge of the replacement work being done there by the N. B. Power Company. When asked how long the replacement work would take he said they would be ready to pour concrete tomorrow, but before the street cars could pass over the new rails nine days would have to elapse in order to give the concrete base a chance to set. When one side is ready the other will have to be torn up. As a result traffic in the section fronting the Union station will be tied up for nearly three weeks, as the street is very narrow there.

The work of placing the diamond crossings was finished today and trains were able to pass to the north and south of the station. Heavy pine timber was placed under the crossings so as to strengthen the foundation.

Spencer, Ind., Nov. 6—A band of robbers variously estimated in number from fourteen to twenty, robbed two banks here early today of approximately $15,000 and wounded two citizens. Traveling in four cars, the robbers first isolated the town by cutting all telephone and telegraph wires, and then posted guards to prevent interruption while they blew open the bank vaults.
