Rippling Rhymes

GERMAN CHEMISTRY

The German chemists work all night, and hustle all the day. "We'll make for everything in sight a substitute," they say. "The people say they're needing meat, but meat is not for sale; we'll make a substitute of peat, and sell it by the pail. They cry for bread throughout the realm but bread no merchants sell; we'll treat a block of slippery elm, and that will do as well. Though there's no sugar in the land, let this be understood: We're busy now refining sand, which will be just as good." The chemists make their turnip jam and toadstool marmalade, until the weary people damn their dark and mystic trade. The chemists brew their noxious dope, and say to hungry folk, "Cheer up! cheer up! don't give up hope—we're making flour of oak." The German parent, sick and sore, beholds his children starve; there comes a chemist to the door—"Here is a brick to carve! It's made of shavings and old shoes, excelsior and tar; you're needing bread? Don't have the blues, for this is better far." If famine comes to this our land I think we'll starve and die before we'll take from chemist's hand a bootjack for a pie.

Nuptial Notes

A very interesting wedding was solemnized on Monday Dec. 24th at two o'clock, when Mrs. Daisy D. Smith, of the Mohawk Institution was united in marriage to William E. Reed, of the Canadian Flying Corps, Toronto. The ceremony which was performed by Rev. C. M. Turnell, M.A., Principal of the Mohawk Institution, took place in His Majesty's Chapel of the Mohawks, in the presence of a number of guests the wedding music being very ably rendered by the organist and choir of the Church. The bride, gowned, in a travelling suit of grey velvet, with small pink hat, was given away by Mr. John West, and attended by Miss Myrtle Cochrane, who was gowned in white velvet. The groom was supported by Mr. Henry Norish After the ceremony a reception was held for the happy couple and their friends at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Turnell. Amid showers of rice and good wishes the bridal pair left for a honeymoon trip to Buffalo and points east.

is considerably enhanced by the wearing of glasses. But, apart from the dignity, the absence of headaches is alone a good reason for wearing them. It is a well-known fact that many feminine headaches particularly are the result of disordered vision. Relieving the eye strain relieves the head. Come for an examination and we will prove it.
