DAYS' HOTEL,

ON THE GRAVEL ROAD,

NEAR WROXETER,

THE subscriber, in returning thanks to the public for the very liberal patronage bestowed upon him—especially while his house was in an unfinished state—takes this opportunity of appraising his many friends and the public generally, of the fact that his house now affords accommodation inferior to none in the County, and therefore trusts that by a proper attention to business he will still merit the share of patronage hitherto bestowed upon him. Let no stage-man or other interested individual persuade you into the belief that it is all the same whether you go to Wroxeter or not, because not only is his house not in that place, but is 2 miles out of his way by any road that is travelable, and therefore travellers going to Belmore, Teeswater, Walkerton, &c., will find "Days, Hotel" on the main gravel road, about a mile beyond the finger board pointing to Wroxeter, and can expect superior accommodation and a hearty welcome at any hour of day or night. Our stabling is the most commodious in the county (city hotels, perhaps, excepted.) For a view of the house see R. W. Hermon, R. Maitland & L. Bolton's New Map of the County.
