IN AWFUL SHAPE

Is Indian Territory — Crime Rampant and People Terrorized.

Fort Smith, Ark., Sept. 24.—People who have traveled through the Indian Territory during the past few days report an awful condition existing in that country. Crime is rampant, and the people living there are in a state of terror. Many people say that the condition now is worse than it has been for many years, with the exception of the brief reign of the notorious Cook gang. While there are no train robberies reported, there are frequent murders, robberies and similar crimes, and the whole territory swarms with whisky peddlers.

LOST, THEN SUICIDED.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Frank H. Johnson, for 25 years prominent on the Board of Trade, killed himself in Lincoln Park yesterday, by shooting himself through the head. He had become despondent because of heavy losses on the board and on account of ill-health.

Last Sunday the funeral of the late J. H. Johnston, V. S., of Croton, Camden township, took place. It was the largest ever witnessed in the section, 245 rigs being in the procession. The Foresters (Canadian Order), of whom deceased was a member, turned out in large numbers. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. E. Holmes, formerly of Florence, together with the Foresters, at the grave.

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES.

The Hebrew Feast of Tabernacles is now in progress. It will last eight days from last Monday at sunset, the eighth day being Simchas Torah, the day of rejoicing in the laws. An orthodox Hebrew is bound to observe this feast strictly, and not to do any work during the entire festival. He must take his meals and sleep in a booth covered with green branches of trees to remind him of the time when his ancestors wandered in the desert. The booths on this continent are usually built in the inner courts, and sometimes on the roofs of the houses. They are boarded closely at the sides with only one door for entrance. The roof is made of laths, and these are covered with green branches. On the walls inside fruits and flowers are hung, symbolizing the harvest festival. Several families often build a booth together, and then each family takes its meals inside in turn.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Archdeacon Davis, rector of St. James' Church, in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the parties. The bridesmaids were Miss Etta Duke, of Strathroy, and Miss Tillie Earl, of this city, and the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Harry Atkinson, of this city. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Albert E. White, was handsomely attired in brown bengaline, trimmed with buttercup point lace and sapphire blue silk velvet, with accessories of net. The bridesmaids wore dresses of harmonizing shades. A beautiful bouquet of roses and maiden hair ferns was carried by the bride, her attendants bearing white asters and mignonette. The house was very tastefully decorated with a profusion of flowers and foliage. Among the guests were: Miss A. Preston, of Hamilton; Miss J. Hodgins and Miss E. Atkinson, of Lucan; Miss M. Brown, Saintsbury; Mr. S. Gibson, Komoka, and Mr. and Mrs. T. Clatworthy, of Ilderton.

THE TOBACCO HABIT CURED.

In the interest of the masses, for whom these reports are compiled, the United States Health Reports have examined and investigated many preparations having for their object the cure of the tobacco habit, but among them all we have no hesitancy in giving the editorial and official endorsement of these reports to the remedy known as "Uncle Sam's Tobacco Cure," manufactured by the Keystone Remedy Company, at 218 La Salle street, Chicago. They are distributing literature this week all through the city, and in the light of our examinations and tests of "Uncle Sam's Tobacco Cure," we are but performing a duty we owe the public when we indorse the same, and stamp it as the crowning achievement of the nineteenth century, in the way of destroying a habit as disgusting as it is common (For Only $1) hence we earnestly advise you to read full particulars, and if you have not seen circulars to call at W. S. Bryers Bark-well's, wholesale and retail agents for Canada, 268 Dundas street, London. w

TWO CASES—ONE HARD.

John Smith, Alias Tom Russel, Has a Shady Career—Let Go on Suspended Sentence.

There were only two cases before Magistrate Parke at the city Police Court this morning. John Smith, who did a term early in the spring for pocket-picking, was up again. He was arrested a week ago, and remanded until after the Fair.

When asked why he came back, Smith replied, "I was sick, and wanted to go somewhere and get into the hospital."

"How long have you been in Canada, and where did you come from?" asked the P. M.

Prisoner—I came to Canada early in the spring from New York.

Chief Williams said at the time Smith was sentenced to the Central Prison, photographs were sent out to different places. The man was known in Kingston, Hamilton and Buffalo, where they knew him by the name of Thomas Russell.

Smith told the magistrate that he wanted to get into the hospital for a month, and get fixed up.

"You can't get into the hospital here," replied the magistrate. "How would you like to go to jail for a month?"

"No, sir," said Smith. "I hope you will let me go to some place where there is a hospital."

The magistrate found him guilty of vagrancy, and discharged him, instructing the police to show him out of town. He told him that if he ever was caught again lounging about this city, it would be a serious thing for him.

Allen Onton was a drunk who has imbibed freely for two or three days, and was remanded for a week to sober up.

"THE TABERNACLE."

Evangelist Meikle Delivers His Farewell Lecture to Londoners—An Entertaining Description.

"The Tabernacle" was the subject of an impressive and edifying lecture given in the lecture hall of St. Andrew's Church last evening by Evangelist Meikle, to a crowded house. The lecture was one of great entertainment, and was illustrated by colored representations of the interior and exterior of, together with articles within and without the tabernacle. The lecturer said that at the gate was the brazen altar and here the people came with sweet sacrifice. There were five offerings—the burnt, the meat, the peace, the sin and the trespass offering. This was the order in which they were given in Leviticus, but Christians knew them in the reverse order. They were not very long Christians before they found out that they not only do bad, but that they are bad, and that Christ is their sin offering. Then their peace offering was through Christ.

The laver, the large basin in which the priests washed their hands before sacrifices, he described as being made of the polished bronzed looking-glasses of the women. How would the women of London like to give up their mirrors, and never mind all the banging and frizzing and fixing, and the spending of more time there than they spent in looking at God's mirror, His Word?

There were two compartments in the tabernacle—the Holy Place, and the Holy of Holies. In the former was the altar of incense, with the smoke of incense constantly rising to heaven. The golden candlesticks were represented with their seven sticks, decorated with fruit, and all made of beaten gold. This represented the Church of Christ, which should be fruitful and beautiful. Above all, the church was the light of the world. The oil in the candlesticks was the Holy Spirit in the believer. The lecturer thought people did not honor the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, nor live worthy of it. The shew-bread he referred to as the offering up of our toil to God. The lesson to be drawn from this was that we could give our daily toil and light to the world, and to God. The speaker argued the lesson in life people needed most to learn was that if they were in any honest calling, they were acceptable of God just as much as if they were preaching every night. This was sure, or else Christianity was a failure. The Word of God told us there was nothing secular. The whole world was sanctified.

ONLY 15 YEARS OLD.

Bertha Johnston Arrested for Theft—Charged With Stealing Eggs and Fruit.

Bertha Johnston, of the Wharncliffe road, South London, has plunged herself into difficulty. Though a girl of only 15 years, she was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing a quantity of eggs and several jars of fruit from the house of Thos. Jackson, con. 9, London township. On Thursday last Mr. Jackson and his wife left their home about noon to attend a funeral, leaving the hired man in charge of the house. They returned about 6 o'clock. The man locked up the house securely and went plowing. Bertha Johnston and her little brother are alleged to have entered the house by a door leading to the cellar, and stolen the eggs and fruit. The matter was put into the hands of County Constables Crawford and Corsant, who learned that a girl and boy were in the vicinity selling tinware during the afternoon, and they found that Bertha Johnston and her younger brother answered the description of the persons. A search warrant was issued, and the home of the Johnstons searched, where the eggs and fruit were found. When the girl was arrested she admitted the theft to the officers, who brought her before J. B. Smyth, who remanded her until Friday. Her brother is of such tender years that it is hardly probable any action will be taken against him.
