THE NEWS FROM INDIA

Difficult to Follow the Varying Movements of the British.

QUICK CHANGES MADE BY THE TRIBESMEN

Fresh Accessions Being Made to the Forces of the Insurgents.

An Attack Upon the Rebels Expected Within a Few Days—The Assault on Gazarbund Was Not Important—Militia at Quetta Said to Be Disaffected—The Mullah Decides Not to Go After the Khan Dir—He Will Gather His Forces for an Attack Upon Peshawur—Upper Swat Country Has Not Been Visited by Organized Troops Since the Time of Alexander the Great—Cable News.

London, Sept. 2.—The News, regarding the Indian frontier troubles, is indefinite and fragmentary, and it is difficult to follow the varying movements of the British forces, which are apparently decided in consequence of the quickly changing gatherings of the tribesmen. News has been received of fresh accessions to the forces of the insurgents, and of the appearance of various fanatics who are endeavoring to stir those tribesmen who are reluctant to join the revolt to attack the British. There is every probability that an attack will be made by the British at some point within a few days.

The attack upon the British post Gazarbund, Baluchanistan, is not of great importance. The station at Gazarbund is a small one.

A report comes from Quetta, Baluchistan, to the effect that the militia there have become disaffected, but the rumor is not credited in Government circles.

The Times this morning publishes a despatch from Chakdara, saying it appears that Haddah Mullah has abandoned the idea of attacking Khan Dir, and is gathering his forces for an attack upon Peshawur. All the tribes in this district have been quiet since its occupation.

The Upper Swat country has hitherto been comparatively unknown. It has not been visited by organized troops since the time of Alexander the Great. The Swatis deemed their country inaccessible, the only entrance to it being by a narrow causeway barely wide enough to admit one man at a time, flanked on one side by a raging torrent and on the other by precipitious cliffs, fortified by stone breastworks.

Why They Shouted "Down With England!"

London, Sept. 1.—A special despatch from Paris published here to-day says that cries of "Down with England!" were raised outside the British Embassy in Paris last night, because that building was not illuminated in honor of the return of President Faure to the French capital after his visit to Russia. Two lads, the despatch adds, were arrested outside the Embassy for participating in the demonstration, and were subsequently released with cautions.

FURTHER DROP IN SILVER.

India Has Little Money and May be Forced to Adopt the Gold Standard.

London, Sept. 1.—The following notice was posted in the Bank of England today: "The Secretary of State for India in Council gives notice that the sale of bills of exchange on Calcutta, Bombay and Madras has been suspended for a period of not less than ten weeks."

The Government has very little money in India to draw on, owing to the famine and the plague having rendered the collection of taxes slow, and the present time might be opportune to accustom the Indians to the use of gold instead of silver, though it would not have attempted this had not the scarcity of money arisen.

The Daily Telegraph, anticipating the action of the Indian Council, said to-day. "The Council may refuse to draw altogether, thus sending exchange up to gold, and render possible the establishment of the gold standard in India."

The India Council has suspended the sale of bills of exchange on previous occasions, notably in 1882 and 1893, but in neither case was gold shipped to India.

The present suspension does not cause surprise, it being caused by heavy expenditures in connection with the frontier troubles. It is probable that a gold loan, for which the powers already exist, will be issued in London in order to replenish the Indian treasury. No other important effect of the action taken by the council is expected, the general belief being that little gold will be remitted to India. The Daily Telegraph agrees in this view, but thinks the situation is uncertain.

The Daily News says the action of the council will not materially change the mercantile situation, as would be the case in the active shipping season.

The Times says: "The suspension caused surprise at first, but is recognized as a natural corollary to recent events, and its effects on Indian exchanges is thought to be already anticipated."

The Standard regards the announcement as unpleasant because of the possibility of gold shipments to India, when business revives. Fortunately, The Standard says, the Indian trade is quiet now and merchants will soon not feel the inconvenience caused by the suspension so keenly.

The Daily Mail says the effect upon the market is more sentimental than anything else.

All the morning papers refer to the possibility that the bank will raise the rate of exchange to-day.

EVERYTHING WAS LOVELY.

President Faure Says Nothing Could Have Been Better at St. Petersburg.

Paris, Sept. 1.—President Faure, referring in an interview to his visit to Russia, is quoted as saying everything passed off wonderfully well, and that no one could dream of anything better.

Admiral De Courtilo, in an interview on the same subject, said: "The Czar upon several occasions expressed to me the happiness he felt at signing the treaty of alliance, and he spoke with a warmth and enthusiasm which could not be misunderstood."

It was given out to-day that upon the arrival of President Faure at Dunkirk yesterday morning he sent a despatch to the Czar, saying: "At the moment I place my foot once more upon the soil of France, my first thought is for your Majesty, Her Majesty the Empress, and the whole Russian Nation. The magnificent and cordial reception given to the President of the republic calls forth throughout France a feeling of emotion and joy. It will leave in our hearts an ineffaceable memory. I beg Your Majesty once more to accept the expression of my thanks and the wishes I entertain for Your Majesty's happiness and that of the Empress and the Imperial family, and for the grandeur and prosperity of Russia."

The Czar replied to this message from the Lazelsky Palace at Warsaw. He said: "The Empress and myself are extremely grateful for your kind words just sent to us. It is with pleasure that I shall preserve the memory of the visit paid by the President of the republic to Russia, whose heart has once more beaten in unison with that of France."

Faure at Havre.

Havre, Sept. 1.—President Faure arrived here to-day for a few days' rest, but the city, determined not to be eclipsed by the demonstration at Dunkirk, gave M. Faure an enthusiastic greeting. The citizens turned out by thousands and welcomed the President with loud acclamations, while the bands played the Marseillaise and other national airs. The city was profusely decorated and all of the ships in port, including American vessels, were gay with flags and bunting. All the factories and shops were closed.

MAKING RAPID PROGRESS.

Expeditions Being Sent Forward to Crush the Rebellious Tribes.

Bombay, Sept. 1.—Military movements are reported from many places. rapid progress is being made in the organization of the punitive expedition being sent against the insurgent tribesmen. Col. Gordon's column of troops from Peshawur has arrived safely at Kohat without having met with any opposition. The Afridis, according to the latest reports, have apparently left the Khyber Pass. The British post at Gazarbund, Baluchistan, which was held by native levies, was attacked on Sunday night last by a number of Brahuis, who murdered and robbed the levies and some travelers who had sought refuge there. Many new signs of disaffection are reported from various points along the Indian border.

Wheat Area Increased.

London, Sept. 2.—The Times' Buenos Ayres' correspondent says that reports from all the agricultural centre sindicate an increase of fully 20 per cent. in the wheat area of the country.

Hohenlohe Will Retire.

London, Sept. 2.—The Daily Mail's Berlin correspondent says it is stated that it has been practically settled that Prince Hohenlohe, the Imperial Chancellor, will retire in October.

Suspected Assassination Plot.

Brussels, Sept. 1.—The police of this city have arrested a German named Gustav Daubenspeck, upon suspicion that he is concerned in a plot to assassinate Emperor William. Daubenspeck was denounced by a friend who learned of his intention to leave Belgium for Germany.

THE GOLDEN NORTH—A TURN IN THE TIDE.

Canada Is About to See Something New and Surprising—Something Quite at Variance With the Pessimistic Views of Some of Our Politicians a Few Years Ago.

This new and surprising thing will be in the shape of a migration from the United States to Canada.

For years our sons and daughters have been crossing the line and building up the great Republic to the South.

There was an exodus and our politicians deplored the fact and made what capital they could out of it. Now, the flow is to be from the States into Canada. All over that country individuals are getting ready and syndicates are getting ready to move into British Columbia and the Northwest Territories early next spring.

The Klondike gold fields have caught the world, and caught none so ardently as the people of the United States. There will be no controlling the rush once it starts. The great Republic is full of restless, pushing men, only waiting for a field of some kind wherein they may unloose their energy and their muscle, and the gold fields of British Columbia and the Territories beyond are to prove the new centre of restless industry.

THE GREAT WEST gives way to THE GOLDEN NORTH. British Columbia and our Yukon country, the Peace River country are rich with gold beyond computation or past experience. The Rocky Mountains, in Canadian territory, include the most valuable mineral stores in all the world.

The Golden North is the rising giant of the day and toward it the adventurous of all the earth are turning. Australia is getting ready her contingent; so is Europe, but, most of all, the United States.

And not only the gold fields of the Rockies, but the wheat fields of our Northwest, are commanding the attention of the people of the States. Colonies are getting ready to leave Kansas, to settle in Canada. Let them come. All they have to do is to become Canadians and grow up with the country.

The exodus boot is to be on the other leg.

THE PREMIER AT OTTAWA.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Had a Decidedly Successful Reception at the Capital—Lady Laurier Was With Him.

Ottawa, Sept. 1.—The demonstration to Sir Wilfrid Laurier here to-night was in every way a decided success. The Premier and Lady Laurier were met at the Canadian Pacific Railway depot by Mayor Bingham and the members of the City Council, accompanied by the Governor-General's Foot Guards Band. There were several thousand people at the depot to welcome the Premier and Lady Laurier.

From the railway station Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier were conveyed in a drag drawn by four horses. In the carriage along with them were Mayor Bingham and City Clerk Henderson.

A large procession followed the Premier's carriage to Parliament Hill, where a crowd of over 15,000 people were waiting to receive him. On a platform in the centre of the grounds the civic address was read to the Premier by the Mayor. All the Ministers of the Crown now in the city were present. Hon. John Costigan was also in attendance.

In replying to the address, Sir Wilfrid Laurier spoke briefly, referring particularly to the pleasure that it gave him to be welcomed back by all parties, irrespective of politics.

Sir Richard Cartwright, who was called on by the people, also spoke briefly. He referred to the good work done by the Premier in England, and said that Canada went forward with one hand to take her position among the nations of the world.

After three cheers were given for the Queen, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Lady Laurier, the crowd dispersed and Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier, followed by thousands, drove to the Russell House. They go to Arthabaskaville in a few days.

THE CARTWRIGHT BOOM

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Doesn't Go in Ontario.

JIM SUTHERLAND SAYS SO

English-Speaking Liberals Surprised and French Reformers Indignant.

Cannot Carry Ontario With Laurier, Who Will Go to England as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada, Sir Henry Strong Going Permanently to the Privy Council—It Would be Disastrous to the Liberal Party—News From Montreal.

Montreal, Sept. 1.—(Special.)—There is probably more meaning in the so-called Cartwright boom within the Liberal party than the casual observer would ever dream of. It will no doubt be a big surprise to most people outside the Ministerial wire-pullers, when they learn that there are a good many politicians very near the present leader who think they cannot carry Ontario with Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the head of the Government. Such an opinion has been expressed in this city by Mr. Jim Sutherland, M. P., Liberal whip, and a man who is supposed to have the ear of his leader to a greater extent than even some of the Ministers of the present Cabinet.

The knowledge that Mr. Sutherland had so expressed himself has naturally caused no little surprise to the English-speaking Liberals of the city and an equal amount of indignation amongst those French-Canadian Reformers who never did have an over-amount of confidence in the loyalty of their Ontario allies to the idolized French leader from the Province of Quebec. Hearing that Mr. Sutherland's alleged avowal had got whispered about, your correspondent met a well-known French-Canadian to-day and asked him if it were true that the Ontario Liberals had about come to the conclusion that Laurier would have to go before the next general election, and he replied as follows: "Yes, and I have it from the lips of Jim Sutherland himself."

"How is that?" queried the correspondent.

"Well, I will tell you. The conversation took place some time ago between Mr. Sutherland, an English-speaking Liberal member of the Quebec Legislature and myself, the Liberal whip making, as near as I can remember, a statement about like this: 'We cannot carry Ontario again with Laurier. He will go to England, be knighted, secure all the prestige possible, and later on take the position of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada, Sir Henry Strong going permanently to the Privy Council,' or words to that effect."

"And did you all agree with Mr. Sutherland's proposition?"

"Not by any means. The member of the Quebec Legislature turned to me and asked in French what I thought of the scheme. I replied that it would be most disastrous to the Liberal party, for if Laurier should be crowded out to make way for an Englishman, the next elections would reverse the strength of the respective parties in the House of Commons."

Your correspondent believes the above statement to be strictly correct.

The Laurier Reception.

La Patrie, after an honest calculation, declares that 200,000 people turned out to welcome Premier Laurier.

Other Montreal Notes.

Vice-President Shaughnessy is expected home from the coast on Tuesday next.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, after a series of interviews with Mr. Tarte and the anti-Tarte factions, left for Ottawa this afternoon, but it is understood that no settlement of the difficulty has yet been reached.

A Woman's Suicide.

Miss Marie Henrotin of Chicago, who has been boarding at the Hotel Dieu Hospital, committed suicide last evening by setting fire to her clothing. She suffered intense agony until death released her. Recently she went to Toronto and remained there for a time. Her relatives suspected that she was not in her right mind, and sent her brother, Dr. F. Henrotin of Chicago, to look after her. On his way to the convention of the British Medical Association, Dr. Henrotin stopped at Toronto and induced his sister to accompany him to Montreal. On arriving, on July 7, Miss Henrotin was brought to the Hospice-street Jean de Dieu. She remained in that institution eight days, and then at her own request was removed to the Hotel Dieu. Miss Henrotin was rather feeble, and could not get around very well, and on this account she was occasionally left alone in her room. On Monday when alone she managed to leave her bed and obtained some matches; she lit one and set her clothes on fire. Her screams attracted the attention of the nurses, and they ran into her room and succeeded in quelling the flames, but in the meantime Miss Henrotin had suffered injuries which afterwards resulted in her death. The jury decided that no person was to blame for the lamentable occurrence. She had on several occasions threatened to take her life, but recently appeared to be much better.

Notes.

The Medical Association heard an address to-day from Dr. Osler of Johns Hopkins University, after which McGill conferred the degree of LL.D. on Lord Lister, S. W. Fortin, Dr. W. Turner, Prof. M. Foster, Dr. Gaskell, Prof. McAllister, Dr. Saundby and Dr. Clyde Wheelhouse.

This evening Lord Mount Royal entertained 2000 guests.

Mr. Robert Mitchell, the well-known brass founder, died to-day.

YACHTS BOILER EXPLODED.

Several Persons Were Injured on Lake Champlain Yesterday.

Whitehall, N.Y., Sept. 1.—The boiler of the yacht Winona, owned by Del Halloway of Langsingburg, exploded about noon to-day opposite Fort Ticonderoga, on Lake Champlain. There was a party of twelve persons on board. J. C. Debaun and wife, Miss Libbie O'Sullivan, Mr. Halloway and Herbert Brewster were severely burned, Mr. Halloway being hurled over forty feet into the lake. Through the heroic efforts of Mr. Brewster, the members of the party were kept safe until help reached them. They were taken to the hotel at Fort Ticonderoga, where medical aid was rendered.

Not to be Outdone.

So desirous was Mr. Dineen that the new premises at Temperance and Yonge-streets shall not be one whit behind the best on the continent in outward appearance that a short while ago he sent the architect to all the principal United States centres for pointers on decorations and general outside appearance. This morning he went off on another jaunt to New York, Buffalo and other American centres to see what's the very latest in interior decorations. Dineen will have nothing to do with what's not the best—he is carrying his hat and fur selling ideas right into the make-up of the new house—that it pays to pay for the best—and with all the care of the new building operations on hand, business does not slack its pace one iota, and to-day at 81 Yonge-street you'll find perhaps the finest display of fine fur garments for the new season's trade ever shown in the city. Visitors are particularly welcomed during these Fair days.

CHILDREN AND RAIN!

Were the Two Features at the Big Fair Yesterday.

BUT THE YOUNGSTERS HAD THEIR FUN.

The Performance in Front of the Grand Stand Pleased Them All.

Owing to the Wet Weather There Was No Fireworks or Performance in the Evening, but it Will Be Given To-Night In All Its Glory—The Afternoon Races in Front of the Grand Stand—Winners of the School Children's Races—Lady Snake Charmer Bitten—Many Exhibits of Unusual Interest—To-day's Program at Canada's Great Fair.

Yesterday was school children's day at the great Fair, and 30,000 boys and girls who took possession of the grounds early in the morning enjoyed themselves immensely until the cruel rain began to pour down and spoil their fun, and yet not quite all their fun, for despite the downpour, which started at 2 o'clock and continued until all were driven from the grounds, the little people, but more particularly the boys, kept eternally on the move, now hustling through the Main Building in search of advertising cards, now patronizing the peanut or candy vendor, then down among the sideshows or in the big grand stand yelling themselves hoarse in their appreciation of the funny performance of the midgets or other specialties. Talk about liveliness, but when 30,000 Canadian youngsters take possession of a limited space like Exhibition Park and start hunting for fun and sights, they present the nearest approach imaginable to rapid and perpetual motion. The exhibitors and attendants displayed the utmost patience with the scrambling crowds who pushed through the various buildings with deafening chatter and laughter. It was a great chance for the exhibitors to distribute advertising matter, and many tired and wet children greeted their parents in the evening carrying a truly amazing collection of cards, fans and all kinds of advertising novelties. The coming of the rain was "too bad," as the children were terribly disappointed at not seeing the fireworks and the jubilee procession. As many as made application to the treasurer had their money refunded. It is safe to say that the majority of the five-cent pieces thus refunded are now jingling in the pockets of the candy or peanut man or sideshow proprietor, although it was remarked that, while the boys hustled off immediately to squander their wealth, nearly all the girls placed the little silver coin in their pocketbook and went home at once. Those who retained their tickets will be able to secure admission to the grand stand with them any afternoon or evening upon paying the admission fee to the grounds.

Performing in the Rain.

The big grand stand, with the exception of the reserved seat portion of it, was packed with children long before the hour set for the opening of the performance. It is safe to say that the majority of the specialty performers never before appeared in the presence of such an immense and demonstrative audience. Every act that caught the children's fancy was greeted with a chorus of cheers and deafening demands for an encore. While The World is assured that the children enjoyed the performance, it still maintains that the exhibition, and in fact the whole performance in front of the stand, is in no sense equal to that given last year. The performing elephants and the high-diving of last year were as good as the whole show this year. Of course no improvement in the tableaux could be expected yesterday in the rain, but if the management do not recognize that, as given so far they are a dismal failure, then those in authority are certainly not aware of the character of the exhibitions that the public expect to see at Canada's Greatest Fair. The idea is all right, the costumes are all right, the grouping is fair, but that dilapidated tent and baulky curtain, together with a lack of proper property, make the whole exhibition ridiculous and worthy only of a township fair.

The Jubilee procession and ceremonies and the fireworks will be given tonight, weather permitting, for the first time. This afternoon Professor Leo Stevens will make his first descent with his bicycle parachute, and the full program of special attractions will be repeated.

A Grand Survey.

A general inspection of the buildings and grounds will convince the visitor that in the matter of exhibits the Fair is improving year by year. Both in quality and quantity, the exhibits this year are ahead of last year, and are undoubtedly finer than have ever been shown since the exposition was instituted. The Main Building, with its amazing variety of exhibits, well repays a visit, even if one has to put with a little crowding.

The Art Gallery is being liberally patronized. There is a pleasing variety of landscape and portrait work, oil and water colors and pastels. This part of the Exhibition should not be missed.

The Carriage Building, Machinery Hall, Agricultural Hall and the National History Museum are well filled, and an hour or two may be spent very profitably in these departments.

The apiary exhibit will be found this year just south of the Carriage Building. The building set aside for this display is altogether too small for the purpose. This is one of the most interesting departments of the Fair.

The Music Pavilion.

The Music Pavilion is crowded with the displays of the leading manufacturers of the Dominion. Pandemonium reigns within, but one can at least see the splendid workmanship on the instruments even if their musical qualities are impossible to determine because of the uproar.

Society Row is as gay and attractive as ever, and the York Pioneers' cabin, in its modest location down at the southwest corner of the grounds, is well worth a visit.

Floral Hall, the stove building, and, in fact, every department, has its peculiar interest, and the visitor should take time to inspect them all.

The Fair may now be said to be in full swing. The cattle will arrive today, and every department will be open with the exception of the dog show, which is confined to the second week.

The Official Luncheon.

At the official luncheon yesterday the guests were: Hon. John Dryden, Vicar-General McCann, Frank Denton, chairman of the High School Board; Inspector Hughes, H. A. E. Kent, R. S. Baird, D. W. Karn and the exhibitors in the Main Building and annex. Hon. John Dryden was the chief speaker. He congratulated the directors upon the great success of the Exhibition, and said that the Government would erect suitable buildings on the grounds as soon as the money was voted.

Vicar-General McCann, representing 4000 school children, referred to the friendly rivalry between the pupils of the public and high schools, and to the importance of the Exhibition as an educational institution.

H. A. E. Kent and R. S. Baird made neat and appropriate addresses.

Foresters' Reception.

One of the most notable events yesterday was the reception by Supreme Chief Ranger Oronhyatekha in the I. O. F. tent in Society Row at 4 o'clock. The chief was attended by his staff in full uniform, and the members of the Royal Foresters' Drill Corps were also present. Despite the rain, the reception was very successful and enjoyable.

Around the Grounds.

Notwithstanding the efforts of the police to stop pocket picking on the grounds, the light-fingered gentry appear to be doing a thriving business, as five pocket books were reported to the police as having been stolen yesterday.

Mr. Gorge Clare of Clare Bros. Furnace Co. is personally overseeing the firm's exhibit in the Stove Building.

Officer Geddes of the police ambulance department is again in charge of the ambulance tent on the grounds.

Among the visitors to the Exhibition yesterday was Mr. Thomas B. Meehan of the nursery firm of Meehan & Sons, Philadelphia.

Mr. James Esson of Preston was among the many callers on The World yesterday at the Press Building. Mr. Esson is one of the judges of photography.

Afternoon's Racing.

The sports in front of the stand were more numerous than on the opening day, there being a trotting and pacing race, a bicycle race for boys, and a competition between T. B. McCarthy and Bryson, the trotting

Father and Son Marry Sisters.

The marriage of Mr. George Taylor Denison, barrister, of this city, son of Col. George Taylor Denison, to Miss Margaret M. Mair, took place on Monday at the residence of Miss Glossop, Perth, Ont., aunt of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. H. Scott of St. Andrew's Church, and only immediate friends attended.

The bride is a sister of the groom's stepmother, Col. Denison's wife, which makes the Colonel brother-in-law of his own son. Mrs. Col. Denison is consequently mother-in-law of her own sister.

Give Another Day to the Children.

It was suggested to The World that in consequence of yesterday's bad weather, the directors of the Industrial Exhibition ought to give a special admission rate for children on Saturday next. Many were prevented by the rain from going to the Fair yesterday, and those who did go, did not see the exhibits and attractions as well as if the weather had been fine. The World trusts that the directors will take this into their serious and favorable consideration.
