RAILROAD STRIKE DUE IF THE MINES REOPEN

Belief Growing That Trainmen Will Prevent the Work of Non-Union Men.

MEN ARE ALREADY RESTLESS

Soon to Aid Coal Revolt Financially and $1,000,000 a Month Expected.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 4.—Belief is growing that any serious attempt on the part of the operators to resume the mining of coal at this time will precipitate a strike of the various organizations of railroad employes, which will render the situation tenfold worse than it has been since the miners quit work. It is more than probable that the shipment of coal mined by non-union men on a large scale will precipitate a contest on all the coal roads that may easily spread to other systems.

There is already a notable restlessness among the railroad men. They have grievances of their own, and they have been urging upon their leaders that this would be an opportune time to bring them to an issue.

In answer to this demand, P. H. Morrissey, Grand Chief in the Brotherhood of Trainmen, made public a letter last week, in which he said that to strike at this time would make it seem that the strike had been called in sympathy with the miners, and that he was opposed to any sympathetic strike.

It has already been agreed by the railroad men to contribute money for the support of the miners' strike whenever such a demand is made. This request has now been made, and it is expected that funds will soon be coming in from this source. The levies from the soft coal men and from other labor organizations will not begin to come in before the middle of the present month. It is estimated that, after the flow of contributions has once begun, it will yield not far from $1,000,000 a month. This should be sufficient, with careful management, to meet the needs of the 100,000 men and their families.

At the present time the strike is being supported largely on huckleberries. Miners, with their wives and children, go out regularly and return at night with pails and baskets filled to the brim. They receive five cents a quart from the local buyers for what they care to sell.

WELL-KNOWN ORANGEMAN DEAD.

Halifax, Aug. 4.—James Kelley, assistant traveling passenger agent of the I. C. R., died here to-day after an illness of only a few days. He was about 48 years of age, a native of Ireland, but a resident of St. John, N.B., for many years, where he leaves a wife and family. He was at one time provincial Grand Master of the Orange Order for New Brunswick and a Deputy Grand Lecturer of the Grand Lodge of British North America, and was well known all over Canada.

KAISER A WAR LORD.

Berlin, Aug. 4.—The King of Italy's proposal of a contraction of European armaments is a subject on which the Czar and the German Emperor undoubtedly will converse at their meeting at Revel on the occasion of the Russian naval manoeuvres. Emperor William almost certainly will give the suggestion no encouragement. His opinion, well-known to diplomats, is that disarmament is a dream of the future and a fantastic idea when considered in connection with the existing continental situation.

MINISTER'S WIFE DEAD.

Elora, Aug. 4.—Mrs. Willoughby, wife of Rev. N. R. Willoughby, D.D. of Elora, died in Saskatoon, N.W.T., Sunday, suddenly, at the residence of her son. The body will be interred in Toronto Friday at 3 p.m.

TO SUBVERT BRITISH RULE.

London, Aug. 5.—The correspondent of The Daily Mail at The Hague says in a despatch that it is becoming increasingly difficult to combat the generally accepted Dutch theory that the Boer leaders here are campaigning toward the ultimate subversion of British rule in South Africa. The Boer General, Lucas Meyer, who has just reached Holland from London, instead of going to Germany, has stopped at The Hague and is going to visit Mr. Kruger, while several other prominent Boer leaders are assembling here. Nobody at The Hague, continues the correspondent of The Daily Mail, believes their story that their mission is to collect funds for Boer widows.

MAYORS TO SEE CROWNING

Chief Executives of All Cities of More Than 20,000 Inhabitants Invited.

ABBEY THROWN OPEN AFTER AUG. 9

Colonial and Native Indian Troops Admitted Free on Aug. 12.

London, Aug. 4.—Visitors to London who will not be able to see the interior of Westminster Abbey before the coronation may do so after that event, it having officially been announced that the edifice will be open from Aug. 12 to Aug. 16. The colonial and the native Indian troops will be admitted free on Aug. 12. On other days the entrance fees will range from 6d to 5s.

Invitations to the coronation ceremony have been telegraphed at the King's command to the Mayors of all cities of more than 20,000 inhabitants.

Rehearsals of the coronation ceremony are held daily, with the exception of the musical program, which has been made a special order for Friday. A structure is to be erected between the Abbey and Parliament Buildings thru which members of the House of Lords and of the House of Commons will have private access to the Abbey.

IN FAVOR OF CONFEDERATION.

Feeling in Newfoundland is Now Very Keen, Says Judge Emerson.

Montreal, Aug. 4.—Judge Emerson of Newfoundland, who is in the city on a visit, says that the feeling in favor of confederation is now very keen, but he hesitates to give an opinion as to whether the colonial conference in progress in London is likely to bring about the consummation desired by many.

His Honor says the Premier is very much in earnest in the matter, but whether the terms that are possible will be such as will be satisfactory to the colony is a matter upon which it is difficult to venture an opinion.

In the event of his failing to secure the conditions he desires while in England, it is most improbable that Premier Bond will endeavor to open negotiations at Washington with a view to the renewal of the Bond-Blaine treaty.

NEW ANGLO-SAXON SCHEME.

London Paper Suggests Imperial Bank Backed By Warships.

London, Aug. 4.—The Sunday Observer, one of the most serious and erudite of English journals, gives great prominence to a long editorial article advocating the extending of the post-office savings banks into an Imperial banking concern embracing the whole empire, somewhat upon the lines of the American national banks, with branches in America, with an Anglo-American naval alliance as an adjunct.

Under this scheme, which is minutely outlined, notes would be issued by the Imperial concern to the American banks, and with this international banking alliance as a basis American war vessels would be leased or lent to protect British colonies, or British vessels would be employed in America in defence of the vested interests of the Imperial American bank.

This, The Observer believes, might concentrate to practical purpose all vague expressions of Anglo-American friendship.

STRUCK BY A CAR.

London, Aug. 5.—About 12.30 this morning a young man named George Bremner, son of a prominent local cigar manufacturer, who had just returned with the excursion party from Ingersoll, was truck by a car which was being shunted in the Grand Trunk yard and was badly injured about the head.

MISS RUBY ADAMS FELL OFF YACHT AND WAS DROWNED AT TONAWANDA

Her Escort, Dr. Howard Gray, Jumped in After Her and Both Were Lost—No Trace of the Bodies Has Been Found—Sad End of a Young Toronto Girl.

Tonawanda, N.Y., Aug. 4.—(Special.)—Miss Ruby Adams of 33 Bellevue-avenue, Toronto, Ont., and Dr. Howard Gray of Goundry-street, while out for a pleasure trip on the Niagara River, were drowned shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Outing Club of this city left on the yacht Ella H. for a pleasure trip up the Niagara River and around Grand Island, making stops at all the summer resorts.

On the return trip as they neared Tonawanda Ferry Miss Adams and Dr. Gray, who were on the upper deck started to descend. Miss Adams, who was in the lead down the stairs, fell on reaching the last step and plunged into the river. Dr. Gray, who followed, jumped into the water and attempted to save Miss Adams, but in doing so both lost their lives.

Dr. Gray graduated from the University of Buffalo, and is 21 years of age. As yet no trace of the bodies has been found.

Miss Ruby Adams resided at 33 Bellevue-avenue with her parents. She was 16 years of age and the daughter of Allan A. Adams. Five weeks ago she and her mother went to visit deceased's uncle, Dr. Clendenning at Tonawanda. Miss Adams was attending St. Margaret's College during the past session. Mr. Adams left for Tonawanda last night.

REMOUNT SCANDAL RE-AIRED

War Secretary Brodrick Says Government Intends to Probe Charges of Corruption.

EMPHASIZES DIFFICULTIES OF BUYING

Does Not Believe Lord Kitchener Would Join in Cry Against Department.

London, Aug. 4.—The remount scandals were re-aired in the House of Commons to-day in the course of a discussion of the army estimates and the item of transportation and remounts. Sir Charles Dilke suggested the publication of the correspondence bearing on the remount scandals obtained from the United States and Argentina. Colonel John P. Nolan condemned the loose system of contracts under which such dreadful scandals were possible, while several other members of the House deprecated the method of purchasing horses thru middlemen.

Mr. Brodrick, the War Secretary, replying, said the members overlooked the difficulties in the way of providing one hundred and fifty thousand horses in an emergency. He said the government intended to probe the charges, but that he believed some remount officers had been harshly judged. He did not believe that Lord Kitchener would join in the universal cry against the remount department.

In answer to the War Secretary, John Dillon asserted that Mr. Brodrick's vague speech only strengthened his suspicions, and he pointed out, as an instance of this, that the government had not denied that Major Stoddart had profited largely thru buying horses in Ireland under a false name. Mr. Brodrick denied that he had no disposition to push the Stoddart and other investigations, and said the government would go to the fullest extremes to convict the perpetrators of conspiracy and fraud.

The vote on the item of transportation and remount was agreed to.

GAVE LIFE FOR ANOTHER DROWNING OF TWO LADS

Arthur Curry, in Attempt to Save Fred Burnett, Goes to His Own Death.

DOUBLE FATALITY NEAR CLINTON

Other Fatalities Reported From Different Points of the Dominion.

Clinton, Aug. 4.—A sad accident by drowning occurred on Sunday afternoon in Goderich Township about three miles from Bayfield, and six from Clinton. Two promising and much respected young men, Fred Burnett, only son of George Burnett, and Arthur Curry, only son of Joseph Curry, lost their lives. They had gone with another young lad some two miles from home to the Bayfield River to have a swim. Burnett got beyond his depth and Curry went to his rescue. As neither could swim both were drowned. The third lad dragged Burnett's body out and went a mile and a half to the nearest house for assistance. Every effort was made to resuscitate them, but life was extinct.

Fernie, B. C., Aug. 4.—George Dunsmore, bookkeeper for the Crow's Nest Co., committed suicide Saturday morning. He was in company with two young men, who were making an attempt to reach the summit of the mountain called Middle Sisters. When almost within reach of their goal Dunsmore's companions, on looking back at Dunsmore, were horrified to see him fall, with the blood gushing from a wound in his throat, caused by a razor. No reason is known why he should do this act, unless it was that he was temporarily deranged, the effect, probably, of the unusual exertion.

Bown moved away with the rest, but evidently went back a few moments afterwards for some tools he had forgotten. He was run over and died a few hours later.

Burk, United States consul at St. Thomas, was caught in a bold attempt to gain his liberty Sunday by Turnkeys Elliot and Iler. Empress Eugenie, who has arrived here, on her yacht the Thistle visited King Edward to-day. Queen Alexandra, Princess Victoria and Sir Frederick Treves took a cruise to-day on board the royal yacht Osborne.

JAMES J. HILL IN ROSSLAND

Satisfied From Showing of Mines That Camp is to Be Permanent.

PREPARED TO HELP OPERATORS

Expected Reductions Will Be Made in Cost of Handling Ores.

Rossland, B.C., Aug. 4.—James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad, spent a few hours in Rossland with his party, but the visit was long enough to enable the famous railroad man to say some pleasant things about the Golden City smelting industry.

Mr. Hill remarked: "We have been waiting a long time to see if the camp was to be permanent. Now we are satisfied from the showing by the Le Roi and other mines that permanency is assured, and the Great Northern is prepared to take the matter up in detail with a view to doing everything in its power to enable the mines to utilize the enormous deposits of comparatively low-grade ore which we know they possess."

It is thought that this declaration portends immediate improvements to the road between Rossland and Northport, including substantial reductions in the cost of handling ore between the mines and smelters.

SUN DARKENED AT NOON.

Many New York Buildings Were Lighted Up in Day Time.

New York, Aug. 4.—Noonday was turned practically into night all over New York City yesterday, and wherever there was business to be done lights were turned on exactly as at night. Heavy storm clouds that came out of the west and southwest on a slow wind were too dense even for the meridian rays of the sun to penetrate. Across open squares or parks only the outlines of buildings were perceptible at half a block's distance, as at latest dusk. Within doors people had to cease reading until they could start the artificial lights. Police stations and the hotels set their outside lights ablaze. The surface cars ran up and down the avenues with headlights and inner lights all going, as in the evening.

More unusual still, if, indeed, such a thing has ever happened here before at midday, harbor navigation went on by light signals, as in the night. Ferryboats and tugs set their sidelights, the lights on the ends of the racks at the ferry slips were burned, and at the Battery the red danger light which marks the position of the swimming bath was lighted.

The intense darkness lasted between twenty and thirty minutes, and coincident with it was a heavy downpour of rain and an electric bombardment that alarmed the timid, interested the curious and aroused the dormant. There was a hurried closing of windows and then people stood at them and watched the storm and their neighbors, who were at the same business. Those living within sight of corners saw the inside lights of saloons go up boldly in many parts of the town. And a little way from some of these, police courts turned up their lights to finish the morning's business. It was the middle of the morning service in the churches and their painted windows stayed the gloom without with color.

St. John, N. B., Aug. 4.—The body of Joseph Doherty, aged 20, was found concealed in a clump of bushes to-day, with wounds on head and face, supposed to have been caused by bullets and sharp-pointed instrument. All circumstances point to foul play. The police are investigating the matter.

WHAT THE TELEGRAM MEANT

An Admonition to Mr. Ragg to Drop Investigation and Attend to Business.

STATEMENT RE DEATH OF GEEN

Mr. Moffatt, Montreal Manager for A. B. Evans, Tells of the Mysterious Message.

Montreal, Que., Aug. 4.—A. B. Evans has gone to Europe, but his manager, Mr. Moffatt, made the following statement to-day re the telegram to Mr. Ragg: "There is no mystery about it at all. Every reasonable man was satisfied that Geen had died a natural death. He had enteric fever in South Africa and was not well afterwards. The doctor said he died from heart disease, and the boy's father felt convinced that there was nothing wrong. Under the circumstances the hint of suicide or something else was very annoying. Mr. Ragg took great interest in the matter, and was apparently fond of something sensational. He kept writing to this office constantly about it. Finally, on June 26, a letter was received from him nominally on business, but half of it was taken up with discussing the Geen matter. Mr. Evans became annoyed, and sent the telegram. It was an admonition to Mr. Ragg to drop the subject and attend to business. That's all there is to it."

JOAN OF ARC NOT A SAINT.

College of Cardinals Refuses to Beatify Heroine of Rouen.

Paris, Aug. 4.—Joan of Arc will not be canonized by the Roman Catholic Church. The news that the Sacred College of Cardinals has definitely refused to beatify the heroine of Rouen was received here to-day and has caused widespread dissatisfaction.

The action of the cardinals is regarded as a retaliation for the expulsion of religious orders from France. This is denied in Rome, the Sacred College giving five reasons as justification for the decision. They are as follows:

1. That Joan of Arc culpably attacked Paris on a religious fete day, while the city was celebrating the birth of the mother of Jesus.

2. Her capture disproved her claim of having a heaven-ordered mission.

3. Her attempted evasion shows that martyrdom was suffered unwillingly.

4. That she lacked heroism when she signed an abjuration of alleged errors.

5. According to her own admission, it is doubtful whether she died a virgin.

WHIPPED ALMOST TO DEATH.

Owensboro, Ky., Aug. 4.—William Dodwell, a farmer living near Yelvington, in this county, was taken from his home at midnight last night, bound to a tree and beaten with a black snake whip until he was almost unconscious from loss of blood. Over 75 lashes were dealt. The cause for the whipping is not known.

Circulation Books Open to All.

Any advertiser who wishes may look into the circulation books and lists of The Toronto World.

The World has an average daily circulation, which it may well be proud of. During the months of May and June the average daily circulation of The World was 27,388 copies. While the great portion of these were sold in Toronto and York County the country lists will also be of great interest to advertisers who seek mail orders.

An accountant from the Association of American Advertisers has just concluded an examination of The World's circulation record. In a letter received at this office on Monday the association especially thanks The World for the courtesies and freedom extended to their expert examiner. The association is composed of the foremost advertisers in the United States. They want to know just which they are buying, and every newspaper in Toronto was asked to submit their lists to examination.

HOW TORONTO CITIZENS SPENT CIVIC HOLIDAY

Nearly Everybody Patronized the Island Ferries or Hied Away to the Parks.

THE STREET CARS CARRIED 200,000

Excursions Out of Town Were Well Patronized—Only Three Minor Accidents Reported.

More pleasant weather than that with which Toronto was favored yesterday could not have been desired by any one of its citizens. It was an ideal day for pleasure-seekers, and everything pointed to the fact that they enjoyed it to the fullest. Every facility of transportation, both on land and water, was utilized to its greatest capacity from early morning until a late hour in the evening. Never before in the history of Toronto was there so much traveling by the public on any one day, a fact that goes to prove that there is a free circulation of money among the people and a spell of prosperity that speaks well for the progress and advancement of the city.

It was a record Civic Holiday for the Toronto Ferry Company. Last year the company broke its previous records for the day, and yesterday again the same thing was done. The number of passengers carried was about 80,000, about equal to July 1. The big lacrosse match at Hanlan's Point attracted probably 10,000 people, and besides immense crowds went in picnic parties to Island Park. Two big crowds witnessed the baseball games between Toronto and Providence at Diamond Park, 3500 in the morning and 6000 in the afternoon, while mothers with their little ones held a large monopoly of the street car accommodation leading to all the parks and fresh air breathing spots. The day is also regarded as a record one for the street car company in the number of passengers carried.

The company carried 193,759 passengers on July 1 this year, which was given out as the largest day in the history of the company. Up to last night the officials had not the figures made up for the number carried during the day, but one of them estimated that it would be fully up to that of July 1, if not a little in excess of it.

Exodus of Pleasure Seekers.

While the great majority of people spent the day in parks and picnic grounds surrounding the city, a contingent of unusually large proportions left on old boys' excursions for scenes of former days. The exodus from the city was unprecedentedly large, as might have been concluded from the deserted aspect of the streets in the central and residential parts of the city. The people noticed upon the streets seemed to be strangers from across the border, who had evidently come over to see how Toronto spent its Civic Holiday. They were doubtless impressed with the desire of the people to get out of the hustle and bustle of city life into the invigorating atmosphere of suburban points.

At the Island.

Thousands of Torontonians spent the holiday yesterday at Island Park and Hanlan's Point, where there were attractions galore for the entertainment of all. The ferries were constantly plying between the city and the Island. It is estimated that during the day fully 35,000 crossed over.

Manager Lawrence Solman and Secretary-Treasurer Walter Garwood were two of the happiest men in Toronto last night. The day had been a most successful one for the ferry company, and it had passed off without a mishap of any kind either at the wharf or at the Island. At Hanlan's Point thousands saw the championship lacrosse match, while the first-class vaudeville shows were well patronized. Many saw the big Montreal whale and the glass blowers did a big business. At Island Park there were numerous baseball matches and picnic parties.

With the Railways.

The railways had their patrons as well as the boats. In fact, it was one of the biggest days' traffic the railways have ever handled out of Toronto, far

These good hats start at 75 cents. See them.

POISONED BY A CUBAN COOK R. B. VAN HORNE IN HOSPITAL

Son of Sir William Arrived in New York From Near Matanzas Yesterday and Was at Once Put in Quarantine —How it Occurred.

New York, Aug. 4.—Richard Benjamin Van Horne, son of Sir William, chairman of the Canadian Pacific, lies in the quarantine hospital here, ill with fever and the effects of what is supposed to be poison, given him for vengeance by a Cuban cook in camp near Matanzas, Cuba.

Mr. Van Horne has been chief engineer of the new Cuban Railway, which his father is projecting, was passenger on the steamer Curityba and was taken to hospital immediately on arrival to-day.

In Cuba he discharged a native workman, who swore he would get even, threatening to shoot Van Horne on sight. The man left camp, and later got back, unknown, as cook.

Mr. Van Horne complained of poison symptoms for several days before sailing from Matanzas for a visit home. He was taken violently sick on board the Curityba, but was given the best care possible by Capt. Hoppe and his officers.

He is reported as being in a critical condition to-night, tho the quarantine hospital physicians say, unless change for the worse ensues, he will pull thru.

Sir William has been notified. Van Horne's friends in this city were also notified. They will make an attempt to remove the sick man to St. Luke's or some private hospital. His baggage was allowed to pass the customs. He is too weak to tell further details, but told what is known to the purser of the ship.

Dr. Doty, the health officer of the port, said that Mr. Van Horne was detained because his temperature was 103. The young man said he had been ill for several days after eating something that disagreed with him. He is about 30 years old.

WOODSTOCK IS EXCITED.

Woodstock, Aug. 4.—A suspicious stranger around the tollgate on the Bendersville road has given rise to the rumor that William Tracy of Washington State is in Oxford. The police searched for him last night with electric lamps.

CANADIAN ROAD TO ST. PAUL C.P.R. WANTS GRAIN OUTLET

Aims to Have Its Own Line or a Line So Closely in Its Control as to Amount to the Same Thing—General Manager McNicholl the Authority.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 4.—The first definite announcement that the Canadian Pacific will enter American territory has been made by David McNicholl of Montreal, vice-president and general manager of the system. His statements were to a St. Paul railroad official. The important fact indicated by Mr. McNicoll, the official said today, is that the Canadian Pacific definitely plans to secure its own line into St. Paul or a line so closely in its control as to amount to the same thing.

Of course, it already has the most intimate relations with the Soo road, but for various reasons it is now thought better policy to secure a line from Winnipeg or some central point in Manitoba directly into the Twin cities.

The Canadian Pacific management expects great things from the new wheat territory of western Canada. It is believed that the system should obtain its own route into both the head of lakes and St. Paul. Under existing circumstances, much grain is sent over the lakes from Fort William and Port Arthur, but neither as near to the wheat fields as Duluth would be with a direct line into Winnipeg, and the system is sincere in its belief that the lowest rates should be afforded wheat growers in order to develop this traffic.
