HAMILTON NEWS

NEW CANDIDATE COMES UP

Ald. Doran is After That Registrarship

HE HAS STRONG BACKING

He Has the Support of the Roman Catholic Element

And Pressure is Being Brought to Bear on Premier Hardy to Have Him Appointed, Thus Breaking the Deadlock and Keeping Gardiner, Hope and Monk in the Ranks—The Ministerial Association Has a Bit of a Sensation—Toronto Man Arrested for Stealing a Bike—General Hamilton News.

Hamilton, Sept. 13.—(From The World's Staff Correspondent.)—The news that Alderman Doran of this city was a candidate for the registrarship was received with incredulity a few days ago, but the chairman of Public Works for Hamilton is not only in the running, but is making a neck and neck race of it. A Catholic Bishop of Canada is a relative of Ald. Doran, and the influence of the Roman Catholic Church, it is learned, is being brought to bear on Premier Hardy to give the job to the Bishop's nominee. It is also said that only in this way can the present deadlock be broken and the Gardiner, Hope and Monk wings be retained to the Liberal party.

Ministers are Indignant.

There is much indignation in the Methodist wing of the Ministerial Association today over the treatment of the ministers by the Keswick evangelists, now holding services in the city. A union service was arranged for last night at Hannah-street Methodist Church, where the preaching would be Rev. F. S. Webster, the Anglican representative of the three visiting brethren. Rev. Mr. Webster, however, sent his regrets, and the meetings fell through. Rev. Dr. Clark, the pastor, seen this morning, said: "The appointment was withdrawn on account of Rev. Mr. Webster's objecting to hold a Sabbath evening service in a nonconformist church, he being of the opinion that his so doing would influence many Episcopalians to absent themselves from their services." At a meeting of the Ministerial Association to-day the affair was discussed with exceeding warmth, and it was decided to take no concerted action with the Englishmen. Rev. W. F. Wilson, speaking to The World, said: "To refuse to preach in our churches is not to deepen spiritual life. It is such courses that make more infidels and unbelievers than anything else."

Says It's All Rubbish.

The World tried to interview Rev. Mr. Webster this evening, but he was tired and excused himself. Rev. Mr. Shearer, whose guest he is, and rector of the Ascension Anglican Church, said: "The report that has got about is all rubbish; there is misapprehension somewhere. Rev. Mr. Shearer asked Mr. Webster to preach in a Nonconformist church, but he declined on the ground that the Ascension Church service, where he was to preach that evening, would not close until 8.30, and he had already taken three services that day. It is nonsense to say that Mr. Webster refused to preach in a Nonconformist church, because he speaks at Knox Presbyterian Church to-night."

In this conflict of statements, The World found out Mr. Shearer, pastor of the Erskine Presbyterian Church, who said: "When I asked Mr. Webster to preach, he said he made it a rule for wisdom's sake not to occupy a Nonconformist pulpit on Sunday, because many Episcopalians held rather strait views on the subject, and might stand aloof from the meetings if he did so." Rev. Mr. Webster spoke at Knox Church to-night, but this is a week-day service.

Charged With Stealing a Bike.

This afternoon Detective Coulter arrested H. D. Pacy of Toronto on a charge of stealing a bicycle from the Stearns livery in Toronto. Pacy is a small fellow and was at the Royal Hotel. He will be taken to Toronto to-night for trial. It is alleged he rented a wheel last Friday and came to Hamilton and pawned it for $15. He was arrested while trying to sell the pawn ticket.

Art School Pupils.

At the annual meeting of the Hamilton Art School this evening President Ireland's clever pupils brought out their work for exhibition. H. H. Mundy won the provincial silver medal for a design of a gothic cathedral and a design for an academy of sciences. Walter Scott, William Mitchell and H. H. Mason showed some of the best architectural work ever done at the school. Other talented pupils to win praise were Miss Mabel Ireland, Miss Marion Mattice, Miss Maud Philp, Matthew Garvin and John Russell.

Teachers' Association.

The primary section of the Hamilton Teachers' Association met this afternoon in the Queen Victoria School. The following officers were elected: Miss Lester, president; Miss L. Lawson, vice-president; Miss M. Jamieson, secretary.

The Kick Amounted to Nothing.

At the meeting of the City Council tonight, Ald. Carscallen, Hannaford and Findlay opposed the grant of $180 to the Y.M.C.A., on the ground of its being a dangerous precedent. There were numbers of institutions in the city that could put forward as meritorious a plea. Ald. Watkins and the aldermen favorable to the grant pointed out that it took $3000 a year to run the association, and the grant had now been made for several years. The Y.M.C.A. won by a vote of 12 to 6.

A bylaw was passed to compel the use of a shoe together with chain when brakes were used by wagons coming down the mountain in winter.

Carscallen to Act.

H. Carscallen, Q.C., has been retained by W. B. Fairbrother, the Beamsville postmaster, dismissed for alleged political interference. The case comes up at Beamsville at 10 a.m. to-morrow. Mr. Fairbrother is prosecuting the postoffice authorities for wrongful dismissal.

Barn Destroyed by Lightning.

During the storm this morning the barn on the farm of William Rushberry on the Mountain was struck by lightning and together with contents was completely destroyed. In the barn were 250 bushels of oats, a quantity of hay, a carriage, cutter, and cart weigh scales and other articles. There is a small insurance on the place, but not sufficient to cover loss.

Paralyzed by a Fall.

Robert Nichol of Barton, while employed in the erection of a stand on Eustace's race track, Mountain Top, on Saturday, fell 10 feet. His back struck a projecting piece of timber. His spine was injured and he was paralyzed from the back down. It is unlikely he will recover.

Death of F. J. Rastrick.

F. J. Rastrick, architect and civil engineer, died at his residence, Maria-street, yesterday after a few days' illness. Mr. Rastrick came to Hamilton in 1853 and designed and built many of Hamilton's most substantial residences and public buildings. For three years he was engineer for Wentworth County and has been employed by the Dominion Government on many occasions as inspecting architect on public buildings. He was an active member in many societies. Deceased was 78 years of age and leaves a family of one daughter and four sons.

Minor News Notes.

Bertha Clay, who was ordered a week ago to close up her disorderly house, neglected to do so, and to-day was fined $50 or three months in jail.

The Board of Police Commissioners will ask for the purchase of the lot adjoining the Police Court to centralize the police force of the city, by moving the headquarters to the same site.

A meeting of the Hamilton, Ancaster & Chedoke Railway directors was held this afternoon at Lawyer W. F. Walker's office. A committee reported that the subscription funds necessary to build the road, some $15,000, had been promised in two weeks. Twenty-three thousand dollars is collected already.

The Executive Committee of the Hamilton Choral Society met this evening and decided to hold two concerts during the season. At the first, held in January, a miscellaneous program will be presented. The second will be given in May and at it an oratorio will be rendered.

James Price, the religious enthusiast, created a disturbance again to-night in Knox Church. He said the Lord will demolish the church.

Great Success.

Mrs. Haycraft, Agincourt, wife of W. J. Haycraft, President Scarboro Agricultural Society, took first prize at the Toronto Industrial Fair this year for gent's flannel shirt, gent's white shirt and lady's nightgown, all machine made. In 1896 she took first prize for gent's flannel shirt and first for lady's nightgown, machine made, and she was also a successful exhibitor on machine work at the Industrial in 1895. The secret of her success, in addition to her excellent taste, is that she uses a New Williams sewing machine. The best sewing machine in the world for fancy and plain sewing is the New Williams. 26

A New Departure by the Wabash.

The Wabash Railroad now runs its own solid trains from Buffalo to Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City, passing through Niagara Falls, St. Catharines, Hamilton, Woodstock, London and Chatham. These trains are the finest ever seen in Canada, being vestibuled from end to end. Wabash trains reach more large cities than any other railroad in the world. Time tables and detailed information of this most wonderful railway from any R.R. agent, or J. A. Richardson, Canadian Passenger Agent, northeast corner King and Yonge-streets, Toronto.

The Finest That Ever Crossed.

Halifax, Sept. 13.—The British battleship Renown, flagship of Vice-Admiral Sir John Fisher, commander of the fleet in the North Atlantic, has arrived from Portsmouth, after a very tempestous voyage. The Renown is the only vessel of her design and is the finest ship of war that ever crossed the Atlantic.

Serious Loss to New Brunswick.

Fredericton, N.B., Sept. 13.—Shortly after 9 o'clock to-night the Deaf and Dumb Institution was totally destroyed by fire. The building was of brick and only built a few years ago through the efforts of Prof. Woodbridge, who has successfully conducted the school. The loss is a serious one to the whole province.

CURRENT POLITICAL GOSSIP

Numerous Rumors are Going About Ottawa.

ONE CAME FROM MONTREAL

To the Effect that Senator Pelletier will Go to Spencerwood.

A Hint That Sir Henri Joly Will Have Another Term as Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec—Mr. Choquette, Also, is Ambitious to Shine—A Seventh Judge for the Supreme Court Needed—Other News from the Capital.

Ottawa, Sept. 13.—(Telegram Report.)—The return of the Premier and the announcement that Sir Oliver Mowat has decided to accept the Lieutenant-Governorship of Ontario, provided that Hon. David Mills be appointed Minister of Justice, have opened the way to numerous rumors. One originating in Montreal and telegraphed here from that city is to the effect that Senator Pelletier, Speaker of the Senate, goes to Spencerwood as Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec, and Sir Henri Joly becomes Speaker of the Senate, being succeeded at the Inland Revenue by Mr. P. A. Choquette.

Whilst this is not impossible, it is regarded here as eminently improbable. Hon. C. A. P. Pelletier is a young man. He is also ambitious, and those who are in his confidence declare that he is anxious not to retire from the arena of politics. Virtually the acceptance of a Lieutenant-Governor's position closes the doors of active politics forever for its accepter. Very few men have been able to survive the five years of gubernatorial existence politically. Here and there one, like Sir Adolphe Chapleau, who managed to keep in touch with his political henchmen out in the active world, but the Governor who has returned to active politics with success has yet to be discovered. For these reasons that part of the rumor is discredited here, but it is hinted that Sir Henri Joly will be given another term at Spencerwood.

After Sir Henri Joly.

A dead set is being made at Sir Henri as a Minister by a certain clique of politicians, and his retirement from the Cabinet at an early date is expected.

Mr. Choquette, M.P. for Montmagny, has recently appeared to tire of his position as Lord High Executioner of offensive partisans, and has long been of the opinion that his services demanded fitting recognition. He would gladly have joined Sir Donald Smith as an ambassador or Premier Greenway in March last year, and was eager to take a portfolio when the present Administration was formed, nor would his succeeding Sir Henri affect the present distribution.

Another Judge Wanted.

It is stated that should Hon. David Mills became Minister of Justice, an immediate change will be made in the judiciary of the Supreme Court. The experiment of having the Chief Justice represent Canada on the Judicial Committee of the Imperial Privy Council has emphasized a danger which it was previously argued might exist. Even with the six judges here, the business of the court has been at times delayed by two judges being absent simultaneously, but with the Chief Justice in England for four or five months and only five judges here to sit in his absence the risk of delay by one being taken ill is vastly increased. It has therefore, been made evident that either a seventh judge at $7000 must be appointed or the representative of Canada on the Privy Council relieved of his duties as a judge of the Supreme Court. The latter course will, it is said, be taken. The Right Hon. Sir Henry Strong will retire from the position of Chief Justice of Canada and remain Canadian representative on the Imperial Privy Council, whilst Mr. Justice Taschereau will become Chief Justice of Canada, a new judge being appointed in Sir Henry's place. Legislation will be required to make provision for the salary of the representative on the Privy Council.

That Sugar Case Again.

The Registrar of the Supreme Court has received the order of the Imperial Privy Council granting Queen's Proctor leave to appeal the case of the Queen v. the Canada Sugar Company. In this case the defendants imported a quantity of sugar, which was being unloaded at the time of the change in the sugar duty under the Foster tariff revision. The Crown claimed duty on six million odd pounds of sugar, and the Exchequer Court gave judgment for the Crown. The defendants appealed, and the Supreme Court allowed the appeal, Justices King and Girouard dissenting.

Grass From Falkland Islands.

The Department of Marine to-day received through the High Commissioner a letter from the Governor of the Falkland Islands stating that an effort would be made as soon as the season allowed, to obtain another ship load of Tossock grass for planting on Sable Island. This grass must be obtained in November.

Tribute to Sir Oliver.

Ottawa, Sept. 13.—The Evening Journal to-night has a leading article headed "Mowat and Mills." It is as follows:

"Sir Oliver Mowat, who is evidently to be the next Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, will be probably the most popular on record. Even Conservatives, respecting his personality and long and faithful public service, admiring his patriotism and realizing that, as politics go, the next occupant of the office must be a Liberal, will applaud the appointment of the ex-Premier. They would prefer him to any other Liberal, and they have generosity enough in their politics to think it not an unwelcome development that a man who has served his province and country with the best of his life for nearly half a century, as small recompense as compared with what his brains and industry could have earned in private occupation, should end his career in what is nominally the office of highest dignity in the gift of his countrymen, an office also of honorable ease and fairly well paid.

"The entry into the Cabinet of Hon. David Mills will not be unwelcome, either, to most people. The old ex-Minister of the Interior is a man of personal integrity, wide political experience and sturdy Canadianism. He ought to make a good Minister of Justice, and anyway he will be good Cabinet bal ast."

Mr. Sifton Will Wait a Bit.

Hon. Clifford Sifton has delayed his departure for Dyea until about the end of next week. The Minister of the Interior has decided to do this on account of another telegram received from Superintendent McIlbree of the Mounted Police, who is at Skaguay. The telegram is dated Sept. 2 inst., and states that it is still raining there very heavily and that some 3000 horses are crowded along the White Pass, making very little headway. It is said that the Mounted Police party only made 18 miles in 10 days. It is understood that Major Walsh will also postpone his trip until such time as Mr. Sifton goes. To leave at present would only mean a delay on the Pacific coast until such time as the rivers were frozen over, so as to permit of the party going to the interior by dog train. Mr. Sifton does not yet know whether or not he will make the trip to the interior of the country. If he finds out that he can get back all right, after spending a couple of weeks around Dawson and Fort Cudahy, he will do so.

Mr. O'Gara Will Investigate.

M. O'Gara, Police Magistrate, has been appointed by the Dominion Government a commissioner to enquire into certain charges made in connection with the administration of the railway mail clerks' branch of the city postoffice.

New Inspectorship of Police.

Sergt.-Major Hogan of the city police force will be appointed to the position of Inspector of the Dominion Police, made vacant by the appointment of Dan O'Leary to the Deputy Wardenship of Kingston Penitentiary. Sergt.-Major Hogan has been for years one of the most popular officers of the Ottawa police department, and his appointment will give pleasure to a great number.

CANADIANS BUYING APPLES.

New York Sun's Topeka Despatch Says They are After the Big Surplus in Kansas.

New York, Sept. 13.—The Sun prints the following despatch from Topeka, Kansas, to-day:

"Representatives of Canadian fruit companies are now in Eastern Kansas contracting for the big surplus of the apple crop. The cities of Winnipeg, Ottawa and Toronto have men here who, when they have contracted for the surplus, will go to South Missouri, famous as the land of big red apples, and continue their purchases. P. J. Miller, representing a big Manitoba concern, says the failure of the Canadian apple crop will cost the people of that country an enormous sum, as the duty of one cent on American apples is 40 cents per barrel. Judge Wellhouse, the apple king of the world, who owns 2500 acres of orchard in Eastern Kansas, will contract his entire crop to the Canadian buyers."

WIMAN BOBS UP AGAIN.

He Still Advocates Reciprocity as the Panacea for the Troubles of the Workingman.

New York, Sept. 13.—About 900 persons went to Prohibition Park, Staten Island, yesterday, to hear an address by Erastus Wiman, on "The Average Condition of the Workingman, and How to Amend It." He said that the dollar wheat and the present prosperity were of but temporary benefit, and that they could not last because they were based upon the misfortunes of other nations. He said that the principle of protection would, in the end, work out a great mass of unemployed and result in national disaster.

He advocated reciprocity, which, he asserted, was first given life by him. He would break down all tariff barriers with Canada and the South American countries. He would have free ports of entry, one on the Atlantic coast, another on the Gulf, and a third on the Pacific coast. Germany, he said, had demonstrated that such ports would be a success.

Another remedy he advocated was the abolition of the liquor traffic. He said it was supported mainly by the workingmen at a cost of nearly one hundred millions each year, and by doing away with it a vast sum could be saved.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

It Appears as Though the Dread Scourge Had Got Its Fangs in Down in the South.

New Orleans, Sept. 13.—The existence of seven cases of yellow fever in New Orleans is officially announced. This morning every town of importance is quarantined against New Orleans.

Yellow Fever in Nicaragua.

Managua, Nicaragua, Sept. 13.—Yellow fever has appeared at Leon, in Western Nicaragua. Several natives have died of the disease recently and it is spreading.

Rigid Quarantine.

Austin, Texas, Sept. 13.—State health officers here this morning declared rigid quarantine against New Orleans and will positively forbid any persons coming in from that section.

One Case at Mobile.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 13.—The Board of Health met to-day and on adjournment Dr. George A. Ketchum, its president, authorized the statement that one case of yellow fever had developed this morning at the City Hospital. The patient is a Norwegian sailor.

GOT OVER SKAGUAY.

Rough and Very Cold Weather Has Set in on the Upper Yukon River.

Victoria, B.C., Sept. 13.—From Telegraph Creek word was received to-day that the Alaskan Collbreaths steamer has been got off the beach and is again in service, while in a letter from Bennett Lake James I. Seabrook writes:

"This is my last chance for a line. Tomorrow we set sail for God knows where. The weather has been very rough and cold, and after one of the most dangerous and hazardous trips ever undertaken we and two other outfits only have got through over the Skaguay trail.

"From the Dyea trail they average eight boats a day. Many of them have only 400 or 500 pounds to the man, and out of 1500 horses only 20 have reached the lakes by the Skaguay route. I gave the mail man a dollar to take this, and I'm writing on my knee with the rain pouring off my hat on the paper."

THEY HANGED A GRUB THIEF

Lynching in the Klondikers' Camp on Lake Bennett.

Wrote a Note to His Wife After the Rope Was Round His Neck.

Trial by a Meeting of Miners, Who Decided That the Thief Must Be Hanged—William Martin of St. Louis "Went in Light," and Was Caught Stealing From Other Men's Packs—Quick Work in the North.

Juneau, Alaska, Sept. 6, via Seattle, Wash., Sept. 13.—The fatal results of going into the Klondike "light" with insufficient provisions are already seen. William G. Martin of Missouri is the first victim. He was hanged last Friday by a mob of fellow-Klondikers at Lake Bennett. This occasion was divested of the slightest cloak of secrecy. It was done in broad daylight.

Provisions have been scarce at the lake ever since the season for going to the Klondike opened. Martin had sold what he could of his provisions at Skaguay, abandoned the remainder, and started in with less than a sixty-pound pack on his back. Being so "light" his arrival attracted particular attention in the camps of the boat builders. His pack was secretly examined to see how much "grub" he had. It was noticed that he had about twenty pounds of bacon, among other things, but no sugar.

Martin camped back on the side of the hill in the brush alone, so that the trail would protect him from the wind, but he must have heard how scarce provisions are expected to be in Dawson City next winter. He was disturbed and restless, and not till after he had tried to buy provisions. The second day it was seen that he had sugar for his coffee, and that night his pack was uncovered, and a side of uncured bacon, on American apples is 40 cents per barrel. Judge Wellhouse, the apple king of the world, who owns 2500 acres of orchard in Eastern Kansas, will contract his entire crop to the Canadian buyers." was unrolled roughly from his blankets and stood blinking on his feet.

"We stand no stealing in this camp; your time has come," Martin was told. He started to speak, but said nothing, and stood trembling from head to foot. "Do you want to leave a message to your friends?" was asked.

"No," said the man on the brink of the grave.

"Do you want to pray?"

"No," said Martin.

"If there is anything you want to say, say it quick!" said the spokesman.

A slipknot had been made in the end of the long painter of a boat and the noose was put over Martin's head.

Begged for His Life.

"Boys, said Martin, with faltering voice, "you know how it is when a man has mortgaged his all, starts for the Klondike and sees that he can't get there. If I am not hung my life is not worth much to me, anyhow, or even a thousand pounds of stuff at Skaguay and I'll promise on my life to carry it in here for you."

"Enough of that. It would not save you if the stuff were here." Martin half ran and was half-dragged down to the shore of the lake. It took less than a minute to lash two slender pines dressed for masts to a forked upright, drop another half from a rock on the bluff over between the forks.

"May I write a message, boys?" asked Martin. "Be quick about it," was the answer. Poor Martin took a letter from his pocket and kissed it. He then tore it up, saving only the back of the envelope, stripped, pulled off his rubber boots, and, placing the paper on the sole of one, wrote in the darkness the following in a dim and trembling hand:

"Hoping that with the money I might make in the Klondike sacrifice would go out the door and love return through the window, I leave you. Kiss Ted, but never tell him.—Gid."

He showed the note to the crowd, saying: "Please give this to the newspapers."

"Hurry up! Now, all together!" spoke the leader of the crowd.

In the morning Martin's body was seen turning first one way and then back, like a kettle dangling before the fire, his hands tied behind him with a packstrap. There is now a second mound in the graveyard started on the shore between Lake Linderman and Bennett. The other mound covers all that is left of young J.W. Mathes of Seattle, who, having lost his outfit in the rapids, committed suicide. The other half of the envelope which Martin tore in two were his name and the postmark St. Louis. The news of the hanging was brought to Juneau to-day by Captain Martin of the steamer Sea Lion and Stephen A. Hall of Seattle.

Child's Skull Crushed.

Charlottetown, P.E.I., Sept. 13.—Just before mass at the Vernon River Roman Catholic chapel yesterday morning the little daughter of Alexander Fraser was standing near the sacred edifice with her mother, when one of the ornaments from the turret on the west side fell from its place and struck her on the head, breaking her skull and causing death.
