ELECTION NEWS,

(By Special Telegraph to Huron Signal.)

SOUTH ONTARIO!

Brown Ahead on the First Day!

Close of polls, 1st day: Whitby Town, Brown, 178; Gibbs, 151; Oshawa, Brown, 101; Gibbs, 189. East Whitby, Brown, 180; Gibbs, 184. West Whitby, Brown 194; Gibbs 140. Pickering, Brown 399; Gibbs 327. Total—Brown, 1002; Gibbs, 991. Pickering returns not complete. Some accounts say the vote is a tie, but above are the figures as far as heard from.

SECOND DESPATCH.

SOUTH ONTARIO.

Close of poll: Brown, 1002; Gibbs 991. Whiteford and Brougham not heard from after 4 p. m.; will probably give Brown 25 majority.

KINGSTON ELECTION.

Close of Poll: McDonald 517; Stewart 84.

CARLETON ELECTION.

Holmes 57 ahead.

OTTAWA ELECTION.

Close of Poll: Currier elected without opposition.

THE VERY LATEST.

TUESDAY, 6:30 p.m., 27th.—Latest intelligence from South Ontario, gives Gibbs a majority of about 70. His election is now considered certain—we have not received the officers' figures yet.

☞ To the lovers of good poetry we recommend a perusal of the 'original' piece on combined reaping machines It would puzzle our friend Willy Bannatyne to get his muse to settle upon such a subject, but here we find it done in a most touching and effective manner. The allusion to the Great Eastern gives the reader a thrill of—not pleasure, but wonder. The rhyme is managed in a most masterly style.

Singular Coincidence.—The four candidates for the county of Bothwell, have each five letters in both given and surnames. Here they are: David Glass, David Mills, Edwin Kerby, and Jacob Smith. Query—Which will be likely to succeed? Glass and Kerby, or the Mills that "grind" them, and the Smith that "hammers" them.—Chatham Banner.

TO THE

ELECTORS

OF THE

South Riding of Bruce.

GENTLEMEN,—Upon the nomination of Parti for Reform Convention, and at the request of many influential electors, I have the honour to present myself as a candidate for the representation of your Riding in the Assembly of Ontario.

The duties and obligations attaching to that position are very great. Apart from matters common to Ontario and the other parts of the Dominion, the Assembly has exclusive control over the affairs of the Province, and on the care and wisdom with which its functions are discharged, depend in great measure our happiness and prosperity.

Among the more important matters with which the Assembly is to deal, are—Property and Civil Rights—the administration of Justice—Municipal institutions—the management of Public Lands—the incorporation of Companies with Provincial objects—the raising of a Provincial revenue, and the establishment of and appointment to Provincial offices. Whether in all these and other particulars we be well or ill governed, we shall for the future owe ourselves and ourselves alone; and I do not hesitate to say, that in my judgment the permanent success of these institutions will in a great measure depend on the conduct of the men elected to them, the first Assembly of Confederation.

Upon the Reform party, as constituting the majority of the Assembly, will devolve the heavier responsibilities of which it is difficult to overestimate the magnitude. Of that party I am a member. To its principles, as expressed in the Resolutions of the recent Toronto Convention, I heartily subscribe; and towards their realization, into practice by earnest and well considered, yet firm and vigorous measures, I shall, if elected lend my humble but earnest aid.

Prominent among the local matters in which your Riding is interested is the question of railway communication; I think, this should be settled without further delay. It will be for you to consider carefully which of the projected lines is the most feasible, and will, of course give you the most accommodation. It will be for your representative to use his utmost exertions to promote the interests and accomplish the construction of that line.

Should I be chosen by you, the solution of this and of all other questions of a local character will receive my very best attention, while my residence at the seat of government will greatly increase the facilities for adjusting these numerous matters which arise between individual constituents and the various Boards Departments.

I will shortly do myself the honour of visiting the Riding, and meeting you personally, when it will be my pleasure and my duty to give you the fullest explanations as to my position on every public question.

In the meantime I remain,
Gentlemen,
Your humble servant,

EDWARD BLAKE.

To Dr. Woods, Reeve of Stanley, AND 772 OTHERS,

PARLIAMENTARY ELECTORS OF THE SOUTH RIDING OF HURON.

GENTLEMEN:—

I have had the honor to receive your vote respectably and numerously signed requisition, asking me to become a candidate to represent this Riding in the House of Commons, at the ensuing election, for which I feel highly flattered, and accept the nomination offered me by so large a number of influential electors. I have since received the unanimous nomination of the Liberal Conservative delegates at the Clinton convention.

To the parliamentary electors of the South Riding generally, I offer myself as a candidate, and trust to receive your generous support.

To the most of you I am not unknown, having been a continuous resident in the Riding for a period of thirty two years, and having during that time encountered all the difficulties and privations of a backwoods life, as well as filled numerous elective and other highly responsible offices, therefore necessarily for many years I have been prominently before you, and I challenge any man truthfully to say that I wronged him in the smallest matter. I refer to my past course as an index of what my future may be, should you see fit to elect me. Having no pecuniary want, and none depending on me for succour from the public chest, I do not wish for, nay, would not accept, from Government any lucrative office, my only desire being energetically and faithfully to secure the interests of the country in which I have lived so many years, and to which from many associations I am strongly attached.

There are no leading questions before the public at present, but should I be elected, I shall enter upon my duties without offering to the ministry of the day any factious opposition, and will assist to the utmost of my power in carrying out the Confederation scheme in a liberal spirit.

To every measure calculated to advance the interests and well-being of the County of Huron, I will give my undivided attention, and best support.

I shall be as advocate for economy in the public service, so far as may be compatable with thorough efficiency; I shall advocate such alterations in the customs and excise duties as will be most beneficial to the wants and means of the greatest number of the inhabitants, keeping in view the maintenance of the public credit.

The public debt—regulation of trade, and development of commerce—the postal service—the enlargement and improvement of the inland water communication within Canada—the Railways—and generally whatever will advance the welfare and importance of the Dominion of Canada, shall receive my best attention.

I shall take an early opportunity, before the elections come off, of visiting the principal localities in each municipality, and then explain my views on any subjects likely to come before the House of Commons.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
Your faithful servant,

D. H. RITCHIE.

OF THE

NORTH RIDING

OF THE

COUNTY OF HURON.

GENTLEMEN,

Having received the nomination of the "Reform Convention," and having been requested by men of all shades of politics to offer myself as a candidate for the Canadian House of Commons for your Riding; I am now in the field claiming your suffrages as a Representative.

As there are no great questions now prominently before the country—Confederation being an accomplished fact—it is unnecessary in a short address like this to speculate on what the future may bring forth; or to submit any particular or specific platform. I may, however, say that I will embrace the earliest opportunity of visiting each locality in the Riding and explain my views fairly and fully on both local and general matters: such as the necessity of encouraging emigration, our trade with the United States, economy in the management of our public departments, and the conduct of the general affairs of the country.

Meantime,

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
Your obe'nt serv't,
