THE TRANSVAAL DEMAND.

London, July 23.—The Daily Telegraph publishes a dispatch from Pretoria, which says: "It is believed that the Government will this week demand an indemnity from the British Chartered South African Company for the Jameson raid.

ALL HANDS LOST.

London, July 23.—The British ship Sierra Parima (Capt. Wishart), bound for Rangoon, has been wrecked on the Maldive Islands, and all hands lost. She was built at Port Glasgow in 1882, and was owned by Thompson, Anderson & Co., of Liverpool.

FEARFUL SLAUGHTER!

London, July 23.—Chinese advices to July 8 say that the Mohammedan rebels in Manchuria have routed and almost totally annihilated the force of 6,000 imperial troops that were sent to suppress them. The rebels are now said to be marching through the country killing and pillaging on all sides. The authorities now purpose sending 8,000 troops, but these will doubtless be killed like the others. It is estimated that it will take at least 50,000 troops to subdue the Mohammedans.

JAPAN'S AWFUL VISITATION.

London, July 23.—Advices from Japan give an official list of the casualties in the late disastrous tidal wave which swept over the northern part of the Island if Yezzo as follows: Deaths, 30,309; wounded, 6,112; houses destroyed, 10,062. Besides the above a large number of persons are missing. Five hundred and ninety-seven vessels of various sorts were swept away or damaged by the wave.

LA MARECHALE INJURED.

Paris, July 23.—Catherine Booth-Clibborn, commonly known as La Marechale, head of the Salvation Army organization in France, was knocked down by a bicyclist and considerably hurt yesterday afternoon.

In connection with the foregoing dispatch there is a coincidence in the fact that Mrs. Booth-Tucker, a sister of Mrs. Booth-Clibborn, suffered serious injury at East Orange, N. J., one evening last week by being run down by a bicycle ridden by a Salvation Army woman, who was taking her first lesson in wheeling. Mrs. Booth-Tucker's wrist was broken and she sustained other painful injuries.

BALFOUR GETS A SETBACK.

London, July 23.—The House of Commons yesterday proceed with consideration of the Irish Land Bill. Clause 24 of the measure provides that the advances under the purchase acts shall consist of money and not of guaranteed land stock. When this clause was reached Sir Thomas Esmond, anti-Parnellite member for the West Division of Kerry, moved that advances should consist of guaranteed land stock and not of money. The rich landlords joined the Nationalists in support of Sir Thomas Esmond's motion, and it was carried by a vote of 99 to 86. This vote against the Povernment. was greeted with cheers and laughter, mingled with derisive cries of "resign."

On motion of Mr. Balfour, the whole of clause 24 was then withdrawn.

ARBITRATION.

London, July 23.—The Standard says that if a day is not afforded the Opposition in the House of Commons to discuss general and Venezuelan arbitration, the second reading of the Appropriation Bill will enable the discussion to be raised. It is the general opinion of the Opposition that Lord Salisbury is too timid and hesitating in response to the advances of Secretary of State Olney.

The convention between Great Britain and Nicaragua for the appointment of a mixed commission to fix the amounts due from Nicaragua to British subjects as damages for injuries to persons or property, growing out of the disturbances in the Mosquito territory in 1894, was issued today in a blue book. It was these disturbances that led to the seizure of the Port of Corinto by an armed British force to compel the payment of the damages claimed by Great Britain on behalf of Consul Hatch, who was expelled by the Nicaraguan Government.

WENT TO THE BOTTOM.

Loss of the Steamer Santarense—Passengers and Crew Saved.

Queenstown, July 23.—The British bark Dundonald, Capt. Gierven, from San Francisco, March 10, for Hull, with a cargo of wheat, has arrived here in a damaged condition, having been in collision. A hole was stove in her bow, and her top masts are gone.

The Dundonald was in collision with the steamer Santarense, on June 18. The Santarense sunk, after keeping afloat for twelve hours.

The passengers and crew of the Santarense were rescued by the Norwegian bark Hilawatha and landed at Para.

A FATED FAMILY.

Six Children Die of Diphtheria and the Father Crushed to Death.

Ottawa, July, 23.—Fate pursues some men with dreadful perseverance. Jos. Belanger, of L'Original lost all his children, six in number, last year, by diphtheria, and yesterday lost his own life while cleaning the machinery of a boat, which was accidentally started, crushing him to death.

MANY DROWNED.

Serious Floods in Kentucky—Fatality at a Picnic.

Boss Blue reported that he was unable to get across the creek owing to the bridge being washed away. Parties living on the other side of the creek threw a rock across with cord tied to it, on which was written: "Bradley, wife and five children washed away and drowned. Mrs. Bryant, tollgate keeper, widow, three children, washed away and drowned. Dan Moore, late candidate county judge, missing. Bridges on Short line washed away. Trains running by the Southern, L and N. and via La Grange to Cincinnati. High water prevents investigation further up than the bridge." It is believed more lives were lost Four pike bridges leading out are washed away, cutting off access.

Corunna, Ont., July 23.—A sad drowning accident cast a gloom over a happy picnic party at Stag Island yesterday afternoon, when Lawyer W. Clive, of Port Huron, Mich., met a watery grave in the St. Clair by the upsetting of a rowboat. He leaves a wife and two children. He was 45 years of age, and was a member of the Anglers' Protective Club, of Port Huron, and insured in the Maccabees for $1,000.

BYE-ELECTION IN ESSEX.

Toronto, Ont., July 23.—The date fixed for the nomination for a new election in South Essex, consequent to the acceptance of a portfolio by Hon. W. D. Balfour, the new Provincial Secretary, has been fixed for Aug. 4, and the election, if any, on Aug. 11.

POISONED BY CHOKE-CHERRIES.

Montreal, July 23.—Dr. McMahon held an inquest at St. Rose on the body of a 7-year-old child named Edward Auclair, who was found in a dying condition by the roadside. Evidence was given showing that the little fellow had accidentally poisoned himself through eating a large quantity of choke-cherries. The jury returned a verdict of "accidental death."

AN ENGINEER'S TERRIBLE DEATH.

L'Original, Que., July 23.—Francis Belanger, engineer on the steamer Reliance, was killed yesterday afternoon while the boat was at the wharf getting ready to start. Belanger was drawn into the wheel box and instantly killed, his head being crushed; one arm and one leg were broken. A deck hand was slightly hurt while trying to save him. He leaves a wife and two small children.

Today at Ottawa.

Blue Look-Out for Conservatives if They Carry Out a Threat.

John Charlton, M. P., Was Also Asked to Join That Coalition.

Busy Mr. Laurier—Big Deal in Canadian Cattle and Sheep.

THE BUSY LEADER.

Ottawa, July 23.—The Premier, who returned at noon from the east, spent yesterday afternoon with his secretary trying to catch up to his correspondence, which is very heavy, averaging a hundred letters a day. Sir Richard Cartwright returned this morning from Caledonia Springs, where he had been spending a few days for the benefit of his health. Senator McInnes, of British Columbia, who is here on private business, is strong for British Columbian representation in the Cabinet in the near future. The distance from the capital and the diversity of interests of the Pacific Province are the strongest reasons for an adviser at the council board.

A LUCKY YOUNG MEMBER.

Mr. W. B. McInnes, the newly elected Liberal member for Nanaimo, B. C., who, with his wife, has been here for some weeks, has been made a happy father since his arrival. The source of his joy is a boy, who is, no doubt, a born politician. It is proposed to call him Donald Laurier McInnes. Mr. McInnes was said to be the youngest member of the new House of Commons, but he is said to be outdone in this capacity by Mr. Ethier, Liberal M. P. For Two Mountains, who is 23. Mr. McInnes is 25.

ANOTHER BIT OF EVIDENCE.

The recent statement made relating to negotiations between Sir John Macdonald and Hon. David Mills for securing a coalition Government, in which six Liberals were to have seats, calls for the mention of a fact not heretofore made public, regarding an attempt of Sir John to get Liberal aid in another direction. In 1890, acting upon the belief that the relations between Mr. John Charlton and his Liberal colleagues were somewhat strained, in consequence of the position of the latter on the Jesuit estates question, Sir John had an overture made to that gentleman by a party in his confidence, asking Mr. Charlton to take a seat in his Ministry. Mr. Charlton replied that "if Sir John would abolish the franchise law of 1885 and the gerrymander act of 1882, and would go in for unrestricted reciprocity with the United States, he would take the proposal into consideration." This answer closed the negotiations.

BIG LIVE STOCK DEALS.

Mr. Andrew Burrows, of Smith's Falls, has completed a deal for the shipment of 2,000 head of steers for France. There is no embargo on cattle to that country, consequently Canada is capturing a considerable share of trade. Mr. Burrows is also purchasing 5,000 sheep for the English market.

Hon. Joseph Martin has returned to Winnipeg.

A BIG CLAIM.

Mr. F. A. Knapp, a Prescott barrister, is in Ottawa, to interest the Minister of Marine in an ocean steamer which he has invented, which, he says, can make the voyage between the Labrador coast and England in 27 hours.

A BLUE PROTEST OUTLOOK.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto World says: It is said that in every constituency in Ontario in which a Liberal was elected by less than 100 majority or so, a protest will be entered by the Conservatives where ground for it can be obtained. The two seats for Ottawa will certainly be protested.

The Journal, generally supporting the Conservatives, speaking of the contemplated policy of the Conservative managers, says: "C'est magnique, perhaps, but certainly ce n'est pas la guerre—and if the protests are made and tried and result in new elections, the Journal will gamble on the prophecy that the Liberal whips will have to quit trying to keep Liberal members in Parliament on the right side of the Speaker, for there will not be enough Conservatives left in the House of Commons to occupy more than the front row on the opposite side."

THE SUPREME COURT.

Chief Justice Strong is the only member of the Supreme Court at present in the city. For the first time on record the work of the court is completed up to date, and everybody in readiness for the new October list.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES

Dean Wagner, of Windsor, is reported to be in a very low state in Rome, where he is spending a long visit, on account of illness.

The body of Mr. Hector McLean, from Erin, was found near Cleveland on the Chicago and Erie Railway, badly mutilated.

A Poughkeepsie (N. Y.) telegram says: Edward Lumley, of Toronto, was run over and killed by the Chilago limited express train just below Rhinecliff Tuesday afternoon. He has a wife in Toronto and a son in Buffalo.

Mathias Grassler, a workman in the employ of the Greissinger Brewing Company, of Windsor, who lived with his family in Detroit, has been missing since Monday, and the police believe he has committed suicide. He had told one of his fellow-workmen that he was in domestic difficulties.

A Former Londoner on California Prospects.

Not So Inviting as Many Have Pictured Them.

Canadians Reasonably Comfortable Should Stay in Their Own Land.

Something About Gold Mining on the Pacific Slope.

To the Editor of the "Advertiser":

A newspaper correspondent now visiting Coulterville, in Mariposa county, California, recently interview J. A. Patrick, an old-time resident of London, Canada. Mr. Patrick has had a varied experience of California life, and is now located in the center of the principal gold mining district in the southern end of what is known as the great Mother Lode of California. As a consequence, he is often written to by old friends in this State, who think they could improve matters by going to California. The interviewer found Mr. Patrick in a communicative mood, and invited him to state his impressions of California, as compared with Canada. "Well," said Mr. Patrick, "I am always getting letters from old friends in Canada, where I spent some of the best years of my life. It takes me all my time to attend to my business and scratch out a living without answering long letters, and I am not fond of writing much, anyway. Of course, there is room at the top anywhere, but I don't hesitate to advise anyone who can make out in Canada, to stay where he is instead of coming to California, unless he can secure a position before he starts. Everything is overdone, and there are thousands of idle men about. A man finds it hard to make good friends here. The people are mostly a wandering lot, here today and away tomorrow, and a man is best to stay where he has friends. As regards work, most of it is in the employment of the big companies, and unless a man can get a pull on some of the bosses he stands a poor show. In the gold mines round about here nobody but a thoroughly skilled miner stands a chance of work, and the principal company in this district employs none but Cornish miners. Taking it all round," said Pat, as Mr. Patrick is familiarly called by his many friends, "there is a great deal too much blowing and gassing done by the newspapers about this great and glorious California, as they name it, and while I am not making any particular kick against the place, I advise any man who has a comfortable home to stay where he is. People live pretty hard out here. The general style of living is about as rough as is usual in railroad camps. It is no sort of a place to rear a family in, unless for rich people in San Francisco and the big towns, who can afford to make it what they like. An ordinary man with a family has few of the comforts that he can get in Canada, even if he is making good wages. All gold mining is in the hands of capitalists. The placer gold workings are played out, even for Chinamen and the few white men that are still prospecting for gold scarcely make grub at it. There is many a man out here now that rues the day when he left a good home in Canada, and would now be on the road back again if he could find any way to get there without walking. Many of the best native born Californians are now making their way east to look for chances in life that they fail to find here. Of course, if a man sends his friends a California newspaper it will only just mislead him. They will find it full of blow about sunshine, fruit and flowers, and festivals, but they will not read of the thousands of hungry men roaming around looking for a job of any kind, and unable to get work. Talk about fruit, you can get it as good and cheaper in Canada than you can in California, for all the high-fallutin' talk there is about it. that is about all I have to say on the subject, and if you will please publish this in the London "Advertiser" is may be the means of saving much hardship and many a heartache to Canadians if it stops them leaving there to come to California.

"WM. MCKENZIE.
"Coulterville, Mariposa county, California."

LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron states: "I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs, and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine, and less than a half bottle cured me; I certainly believed it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."
