A most excellent programme is being prepared for the charity concert, to be given on Thursday evening, Feb. 3, under the auspices of the Lambeth Masonic, A.O.U.W. and I.O.F. fraternities.

The first skating carnival of the season was held at the Klondike rink, Ailsa Craig, on Monday evening. The attendance was good, quite a number being present from Parkhill and Hensall. The block race was won by Rob. Fox, and James St. John won the prize for the gentleman's costume. Ice in good condition.

A number of bold thefts have been perpetrated in the vicinity of Fanshawe postoffice, London township, recently, among the property taken being a set of harness, a large quantity of oats and hay, a plow, and a number of chickens. The county detectives are at work, and they have secured a number of clues to the thieves. Mr. Wm. McLeod, con. 4, is one of the heaviest losers. A farmer named Tackabery had a large quantity of rails stolen from his fence, and Alex. Moore, lot 2, con. 4, lost 20 bushels of oats.

AMERICA'S BEST DOCTORS

Say Dodd's Kidney Pills Are the Only Cure for Bright's Disease.

Ingersoll, Jan. 24.—Only a couple of weeks ago, the remarkable recovery of farmer G. J. Cook from Kidney Disease, through the agency of Dodd's Kidney Pills, was reported.

Now the whole town is talking of a yet more extraordinary cure by that God-sent medicine.

Michael Sherlock was cured of kidney and bladder disease of five years' standing by a short course of treatment with Dodd's Kidney Pills, and makes public statement of his case.

The most eminent physicians on the continent now pronounce Dodd's Kidney Pills the one and only sure, unfailing cure for Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Dropsy, Lumbago, Lame Back, Female Disease and all other kidney and blood disorders.

Registration.

One effect of the dissolution of the Ontario Legislature will be the completion of organization for the registration of manhood suffrage voters in the city. It is understood that the four days' sittings in the various wards will begin on Thursday next.

The places of registration will be fixed by the city council at its special meeting this afternoon.

Hon. Mr. Harty Nominated.

There will be general satisfaction with the news telegraphed from Kingston today to the effect that Hon. William Harty, Commissioner of Public Works, had been unanimously renominated for that city. The commissioner has been ill, but we are certain that his friends will work all the harder for his election on that account.

Topics of Today.

Buckle on your armor. It is your fight, gentle elector

The Brandon, Man., Patrons have changed their name to the Independent Industrial Association.

Sir Charles Tupper says he heartily approves of the bargain for the building of a railway to the Yukon, just agreed to by the Dominion Government.

A few days ago The Advertiser said the Ontario elections would be fixed for Tuesday, March 1, and, sure enough, the ministers met yesterday and chose that day. If you see it in The Advertiser it is so.

LATEST WEATHER FORECAST

Around the City

—The condition of Mr. Frank Holman, sen., is not improved.

—There is still no word of that writ against the London Horticultural Society.

This is said to be a project of Huron capitalists. The London street railway already has power to build a line between London and Lucan.

—The staff of the Bell Telephone Company will hold their third annual "At Home" at the Palace Academy on Friday evening, Feb. 4.

—Mr. and Mrs. Beal, of this city, attended the fourteenth annual ball and supper given by the Brotherhoods of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen at Toronto last night.

—Joseph Walker, a vag, who had just been released, after "doing" a term of about two months, was sent back for two months more by Police Magistrate Parke this morning.

In fact, Miss Small is regarded as the best dancer that has graced any public assembly in our town, and will shortly make a return engagement.

—At the residence of Mr. Wm. Barton, superintendent of the Electrical Construction Company, Tecumseh avenue, South London, last night, the crystal welling of Mr. and Mrs. Barton was very pleasantly celebrated. There was a large gathering of their relatives and friends present, and the array of crystal gifts amply testified to the esteem in which the recipients are generally held.

—Those who love to listen to a polished and pleasing speaker should embrace the opportunity furnished by his visit to the city of hearing the Rev. A. L. Therrien, of Montreal, who will speak on evangelistic work in the Province of Quebec. He will be in Talbot Street Baptist Church in the morning and Adelaide Street Church in the evening. The beautiful and gentle spirit pervading the whole of Mr. Therrien's addresses add greatly to the charm of rare fluency and the fascination of a thrilling story.

SOUTHERN CONGREGATIONALISTS.

The annual meeting of the congregation of the Southern Congregational Church was held on Jan. 26, and was largely attended. Rev. W. H. Claris, the pastor, presided. WOMAN'S ART CLUB.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Art Club was held Thursday afternoon, with the president in the chair and a large number of members present. Arrangements for the Annual Art Exhibit, to be held March 22 to March 26, were discussed and the exhibit promises to be of very great interest. The club is negotiating with an artist in Brussels for a collection of very fine works of art. Delegates were appointed to the Western Fair Board. Some excellent papers were read. Miss Jeffrey ably dealt with the "Life and Works of G. F. Watts," and a very clever and interesting paper on "Leonardo de Vinci" was given by Miss Florence Carlyle, A.R.A. Miss Ferguson, of Thamesford, gave an interesting review of a recent number of the International Studio. Sixteen new members were received.

Principal Merchant has consented to give a talk to the members and their friends next Friday at the Collegiate Institute on "Color."

East Middlesex Liberals Nominate Dr. McWilliams

As Their Standard-Bearer—A Large and Enthusiastic Convention.

An overflowing convention of East Middlesex Liberals was held this afternoon at the Young Liberal Club, this city. The rooms were packed.

The committee appointed to consider the candidature reported unanimously in favor of Dr. McWilliams, of Thamesford, as the Liberal standard-bearer. The announcement was received with loud cheers.

Mr. J. Gillson and M. E. Ironside moved and seconded Dr. McWilliams' nomination in eulogistic speeches. No other names being proposed, Dr. McWilliams was declared the nominee amid cheers.

Dr. McWilliams, who received an ovation, accepted in a very able speech. The doctor said he was a native of Middlesex, and was an owner of valuable property in East Middlesex. His practice, he also said, extended over a large portion of the riding. He was a Liberal by conviction, but was not prejudiced in his views, and would give the government, if he were elected, a constant and independent support. Numbers of his independent Conservative friends had promised him their votes and influence if he would consent to run. The outlook in East Middlesex, he said, was very bright.

Dr. McKay, of Ingersoll, eulogized Dr. McWilliams as a singularly upright and able man. Other speeches were being made at the time of going to press.

CITY HALL NOTES.

There was a good deal of comment around the city hall today upon Mayor Wilson's decided opposition to the hospital plans approved by the trust and the medical profession. This will create a lively discussion in the city council when it appears. The medical men (with three or four exceptions) took a strong stand against Dr. Wilson's position on the hospital question; but the mayor now has the upper hand, and if the majority of the aldermen back him, will be able to defeat the will of the profession and of the trustees. The ratepayers who supported the bylaw had no doubt that the hospital would be improved and enlarged upon the plans prepared by the architects of the trust; but notwithstanding that the city council has legally the power to expend the money upon any hospital design it approves of, providing the present site is utilized.

* * * *

Meanwhile action on the hospital question has been deferred until the county council is heard from. That body will declare its intention at a special meeting, perhaps weeks, perhaps months, hence. Even the county councilors thought the city intended to erect buildings on the plans of the trustees, and seemed surprised that the mayor and aldermen of the city differed upon that point.

* * * *

The I-shaped girder to replace the fatal beam at the city hall has arrived, and the work of repairing the damage will begin at once. The girder looks strong enough to bear the weight of the whole city.

* * * *

The city council meets at 4 o'clock this afternoon to select booths (one in each ward) where would-be voters may register for the coming election.

* * * *

Mr. A. W. Campbell, the Ontario road commissioner, has written, highly commending the annual report of Acting Street Commissioner R. Ironside, and asking the liberty of using extracts from it. Mr. Campbell says he observes with pleasure that road work in London is being performed on proper principles.

The old main sewers are being thoroughly cleaned, preparatory to connecting them with the new sewers.

About 25 men have been furnished with work cutting wood, under the new plan of the Organized Charities' Society.

Mr. J. J. Kelso, government superintendent of children's aid societies, will visit London on Feb. 9, and deliver an address in aid of the society's work.

Inspector Bell is about to write to over 1,000 dog owners, asking them kindly to pay $1 each into the city coffers.

Mr. Sanders, executive officer of the Children's Aid Society, yesterday received a communication from Chatham on behalf of two girls (aged 14 and 15 years respectively), whose father ran away, and cast the girls upon the tender mercy of the public. One of the girls is said to have a remarkable talent for music, while both are attractive, and spoken of in high terms. Mr. Sanders is desirous of securing homes for them, suitable to their dispositions and capabilities.

THE SULTAN WORRIED.

Constantinople, Jan. 29.—The sultan is much exercised in regard to the governorship of the Island of Crete, and has repeatedly telegraphed to the czar on the subject. The czar replied, through the Russian embassy here, adhering positively to the nomination of Prince George of Greece. Italy has indorsed the candidature of Prince George. It is expected the sultan will eventually yield.

You thus secure a Fortune for your family at once in case of your decease.
