On Thursday last, the following Address from the Grand Jury was presented to His Honor Judge Street, to which his Honor made a very excellent and feeling reply.

To His Honor Mr. Justice Street.

May it please your Honor—

We, the Grand Jury for the City and County of Saint John, congratulate your Honor upon your elevation to the Bench of the Supreme Court of Judicature for this Province.

While we deeply regret that bodily infirmity should have caused the resignation of your Honor's venerable predecessor, Mr. Justice Botsford, (for whom we all entertain the highest respect, and whose long and faithful public services we trust will not be allowed to remain unrequited,) we are much gratified that our gracious Sovereign should have selected, in the person of your Honor, to fill the vacancy thus created, a gentleman from the Bar of New-Brunswick, whose professional talents and attainments, honorable feelings, and independent conduct,—long known and highly esteemed in this community,—give us an earnest that your judicial career will be alike creditable to your Honor and to the Bench of this Province, and will tend more and more to strengthen our attachment to our Sovereign, and to the Laws and Constitution of our Country.

That your Honor may long be permitted in this life so to dispence justice tempered with mercy as finally yourself to receive from the Great Judge of the Universe that sentence which will convey with it life everlasting, is our sincere wish.

(On behalf of the Jurors.)
EDWARD L. JARVIS, Foreman.
St. John, N. B., 15th January, 1846.

This being the first occasion on which Judge Street has presided since his elevation to the Bench, his Honor was waited upon at his temporary residence, the St. John Hotel, before the opening of the Court, by the Members of the Bar in this City, in their robes, headed by his Honor the Recorder, and having received this mark of respect from the Gentlemen of the Profession, and returned a suitable acknowledgment, was escorted to the Court House by the whole body. His Honor, in charging the Grand Jury, alluded to his immediate predecessor, the Honorable Mr. Justice Botsford, whose retirement from the Bench, after a service of upwards of twenty years, during which time he had performed the high and important duties of his office with faithfulness and integrity, had occasioned a sacrifice on his part, which he hoped the people and the Legislature would not permit to pass unrequited.

Diocesan Church Society.—The Annual Meeting of the Subscribers to the funds of the Society, resident in this Parish, was held last Thursday evening. The sum of £355 11s. 3d. was reported as the amount collected in the Parish for the purposes of the Society, and Robert F. Hazen and William Wright, Esquires, were elected Lay Deputies to represent this Parish at the Anniversary Meeting, to be held at Fredericton in February next.

Fullarton.—It is currently reported that this criminal, now in the County Gaol at Bathurst, is to be executed on the 7th February.—Miramichi Gleaner.

Death in the Woods.—We learn from the Woodstock Telegraph of the 10th inst. that Messrs. Dennis Downey and Daniel McEachern, natives of Charlotte Town, P. E. I., who were employed by Mr. Amos Dickenson in the lumber woods, went astray, and after two days search Downey was found dead, and McEachern so badly frozen that it was thought he could not live.

Legislative Council.—From a published Despatch, from the Colonial Secretary to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, it appears that Members of the Legislative Council are hereafter to hold their seats for life; except in cases of insolvency, becoming defaulters, being convicted of any of the crimes technically designated "infamous," or absenting themselves without leave, beyond a prescribed period. Her Majesty's Government are however decidedly opposed to the Members of that Council receiving any salary or remuneration for their services.—Halifax Post.

From England.—The receipt of any very interesting or important intelligence from the mother country in the interval between the stated arrivals of the Royal Mail Steam Packets, has of late been an event of very rare occurrence. Since our last No. was issued, however, the barque Corsair has arrived from Liverpool with accounts from London to the morning of the 5th inst. Brief as was the intervening period, little more than 24 hours, between the sailing of the last steamer from Liverpool and that of the Corsair, the intelligence brought by the latter, should it prove to be correct, is most important. The London Times, of the 4th ult. asserts that the British government has determined upon the repeal of the Corn Laws;—that by the end of the present month, at the latest, the produce of all countries will be permitted to enter the ports of the United Kingdom on terms of absolute equality with the products of the British soil; that, for this end, Parliament, it was confidently believed, would be summoned for the first week in January; and that, in the Speech from the throne, the immediate consideration of the Corn Laws would be recommended, preparatory to their total abrogation.—The Standard, it is true, and it appears the Morning Herald also, throw discredit upon this statement, treating it as little, if at all, better than a random conjecture. In a sarcastic notice, however, on the following morning of the animadversions of its two contemporaries, the Times reiterates its assertions, which appear to have obtained very general credence, the belief, now almost universally entertained, that the doom of these Laws is sealed, and that their entire abolition is a mere question of time and opportunity, having, no doubt, very largely contributed to deepen this conviction.—Halifax Guardian, Jan. 16.

American Fortifications.—The Committee of ways and means, in the House of Representatives, reported on the 8th inst., a bill for making appropriations for various fortifications on the United States frontier. The following are the principal items in the bill:—

Detroit, $30,000; Buffalo, $25,000; Fort Niagara, $5,500; Fort Ontario, $8000; Lake Champlain, $45,000; Penobscot River, $35,000; Fort Preble, $35,000; Fort Scammel, $25,000; Governor's Island, Boston Harbour, $30,000; Fort Warren, do. $45,000; Fort Adams, Newport, $15,000; New London Harbor, $20,000; Fort Schuyler, East River, N. Y., $40,000; Fort Wood, $40,000; Fort Hamilton, $30,000; Annapolis Harbor, $10,000; Fort Washington, Potomac River, $20,000; Fort Monroe, Virginia, $35,000; Fort Caswell, N. C., $15,000; Fort Moultrie, S. C., $15,000; Drunken Dick Shoal, S. C., $25,000; Fort Sumpter, $15,000; Fort Pulaski, Savannah River, $25,000; Fort Jackson, $15,000; Fort Pickens, Florida, $10,000; Barracks at Pensacola Harbor, $50,000; repairs at Fort Morgan, Alabama, $20,000; Fort Pike, Louisiana, $13,000; Fort Jackson, Mississippi River, $25,000; Fort Livingston, La., $40,000; Florida Reef, $100,000; Contingencies of Fortifications, $50,000.

The Wires for the New-York and Philadelphia Telegraph are all up, and the Telegraph will soon be in operation from end to end. The line has been tested for 70 or 80 miles.

Jamaica.—That this island has been for some years past in an embarrassed and distressed condition, as compared with previous years of prosperity, is undeniable. The causes of depression are sufficiently well known, but even were they not it is not our present purpose to inquire into them, as we think they are disappearing, and that the country is receding from prostration towards a point of prosperity more culminating than at any previous period. The evidences of this are abundant. We speak not of freedom, for that is the cause; but the effects are apparent in the existence and prosperity of banking establishments and of Railways, in the projection of many public enterprises, in the superior morality and enlightenment of all classes, and in a variety of minor points, the surest, but perhaps the least striking, of which, are the many building improvements already completed, and now in progress in the most important part of our city.—Jamaica Paper.

More Wrecks in the St. Lawrence.—Accounts were received in Quebec on the 4th inst., of the loss of the ship Queen, Leary, master. She was wrecked on Dog Island, near Miquelon. Her crew have arrived at Sidney, Cape Breton.

Extract of a letter received at Keefler's Reading Room, Halifax, from J. F. Muncey, Esq. Agent for Lloyd's, dated Magdalen Islands, Dec. 26th:—

The ship Steadfast, John Adams, master, belonging to Poole, England, from Quebec, bound to Bristol, timber laden, was cast away on Brier Island, (one of the Magdalen Islands,) on the morning of the 8th December. The vessel and cargo will be a total loss. Crew saved.

I have also to report the loss of the barque Arethusa, of Maryport, W. Lister, master, from Montreal, bound to Plymouth; wheat and flour laden, abandoned by her crew, in the long boat, on the evening of the 6th Dec. when about thirty miles N. W. of the Magdalen Islands. They likewise landed on Brier Island the following evening.

I have also further to acquaint you that Brier's Island is not inhabited, and from the exhausted state in which the crew landed, and being unable to save their boat, and without provisions, every soul must have inevitably perished, had they not fortunately fallen in with the former crew.
