SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

Rain prevented all the National League games yesterday and all but one of the brotherhood matches. The American Association games at Rochester and Syracuse came off. The results were.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

At Rochester, Columbus 5, Rochester 4. Gostright and O'Connor; Burr and McGuire,

At Syracuse, Syracuse 6, St. Louis 0. Keefe and Biggs; Ramsay and Earle.

At Bay City, Bay City 6, Buffalo 8.

The Electrics and the Silver Stars will play on Robinson's field Carleton tomorrow.

The game between the St. John's and the Thistles announced for tomorrow afternoon is off, the grounds being too soft.

THE GAME IN THE STATES.

"The present baseball war may turn out to be a very good thing for lacrosse, as there is no other game around here which possesses the attractive elements which that game abounds in. It is a fact, already well known to lacrosse men in this section, that a great many lovers of baseball have vowed that they will transfer their allegiance to lacrosse if the former game continues to be run as it is now going on. One of the most prominent officials connected with a well-known National League club who witnessed the opening lacrosse game in Brooklyn on April 19, remarked, at the close of the game, that he never saw a more enthusiastic audience, and that if the game could only be played by professional teams, as baseball is, he would be more than willing to put his money into it and quit baseball. It is not at all unlikely that if lacrosse should connect well with the public and become very popular the result will be professional teams. The game is, like baseball, a summer one, and there is no athletic sport which offers such a variety of entertainment while it is being played. It is all very well to talk about keeping the game an amateur one, but so long as it is so confined, the opportunities to play it and to see it played will necessarily be limited. What the public in this country want is a first class article, and they don't care whether it is amateur or professional, so long as it is honest and worth the money they pay to support it. This has been found out long ago in Canada, the home of the game, and there is not, it is safe to say, one of the prominent teams in that country which is genuinely amateur. Every one of them have players who are paid either regular salaries or who get compensated in some other way equally binding. This is a sweeping statement, but any prominent or well posted Canadian will smile if it is doubted. The consequence is that the big cities in Canada have the best teams, which money or other inducements can secure for them, and the result is the finest possible exhibition of the game by the most expert players in the world. If the American clubs could do the same thing the American public would see lacrosse playing which would quickly put the popularity of the national game in danger. The views herein expressed are those of some of the most far-sighted and long-headed lacrosse men in the country, men, who have always been strict amateurs, but who, see with regret the limitations put upon their favorite sport while it is in its present position."—N. Y. Sun.

Athletic.

Rain prevented the University sports yesterday and they will come off this afternoon should the terrace be in condition.

The A. A. Association have notified the Y. M. C. A committee that the grounds will be at the association's disposal on June 7th.

The president of the Y. M. C. A. has written the school board asking for terms on which they will lease the Wellington lot on the corner of St. James and Wentworth streets. The idea is to fix up the field for use as a play ground for the Y. M. C. A. lacrosse club.

Two hundred spectators witnessed the boxing exhibition at the Halifax Lyceum last night. The work of Steve Taylor, Dick Nagle, Al. Jordan and McNicoll was worth seeing and loudly applauded.

Seminary Concert.

The entertainment given at the Institute last evening by the teachers and students of St. Martins' Seminary was a great success. After a few introductory remarks by President Rev. Dr. Hopper, the following programme was carried out: Solo and chorus, Old Brigade, Prof. March and seminary Glee club; reading, Kentucky Belle: Miss Bertha G. Robertson; solo, Just Sixteen, Miss Kate Hopper; vocal duet, Pilot Brave, E. A. Titus and Prof. March; reading, Essay on Mules, Master Frank Baird; solo, The Angel at the Window, Miss Bertha G. Robertson; piano duet, Tancredi, Misses Gross and Steeves; reading The Boat Race, Miss Lily Rourke; solo, The Sailor Boys, E. A. Titus; college song, Upidee, Seminary chorus club; reading, The Old Actor's Story, Prof. S. J. Patten; solo, I Fear No Foe, Prof. March; college song, Seminary chorus club. The whole entertainment was heartily applauded.

The company will appear tonight in Union hall, North end, with a complete change of programme, and should attract a large house. They have already appeared at Upham, Hampton and Moncton, and go to Fredericton later on. The proceeds of the concerts go into the funds of the seminary.

HE MAY DIE.

A Norwegian Sailor Stabbed by a Steward.

What may prove a fatal stabbing affair took place about midnight last night on the Norwegian bark Herbert lying at Reed's point wharf. Frederick Damann the steward of the vessel has been drinking rather much of late and last night when he came aboard the vessel he was pretty drunk. Several of the sailors clustered around the galley door and began poking fun at him about some bread which he was making. One of them Peter Joakminson, a young man of about twenty years of age, invited the steward to come on deck and fight. Damann assented and went out leaving the rest of the men in the galley. A few high words followed and in about two minutes the steward came into the galley saying he 'had settled him." No noise was heard and the sailors thought Joakminson had left. Soon however, they heard a cry of "I'm stabbed" and rushing out the poor sailor was found outside holding his hand over a large hole in his abdomen from which blood was freely flowing. He was immediately taken aft and bandaged up by the mate and put to bed. The steward was charged with having done the stabbing but would not say anything more than "what could a man do." The police heard the cries of the wounded man and hastening to the scene of the row arrested Damann and took him to the Water street lockup where he was kept until this morning when he was taken to jail. The injured man was taken to the Marine Hospital and Dr. Christie summoned. Everything that could be done, was done to relieve the sailor but he is very seriously injured, and no opinion can be given for two or three days yet as to whether he will live or not.

The cut is on the left side of the abdomen, is about an inch long and quite deep. A piece of the bowel and fatty substance attached was hanging from the cut when Joakminson was taken to the hospital. The knife with which the cutting was done is of a most peculiar shape. In place of the usual blade a steel bar runs from the handle, and, at the point, is of a triangular shape, like a harpoon. The supposition is that the bar caught inside of the man and when hauled out tore everything before it.

Damann was brought before the police court this morning and remanded until Monday. He is a Hollander by birth, and is 35 years of age. J. G. Forbes appears for Damann.

The injured man is a native of Aalesund, where his father and mother are at present living.

Mr. McLeod is spoken of as an affable gentleman who is likelyto become popular with the members. He was travelling secretary of the Y. M. C. A. for the Maritime Provinces about four years ago.

A Baby and a Squaw.

Shortly before the departure of the Windsor and Annapolis train this morning a woman was seen running from car to car and about the depot platform. Her movements attracted attention. It was subsequently learned that she had lost her, child which she had left sleeping in a car while she transacted some business in the station. Upon returning to the car and finding that her child had disappeared she acted like a mad woman. The conductor informed the woman that her child was quietly sleeping in another car where it is said it had been placed by a squaw, she having taken it from the car in which the mother had placed it. The mother of the child, a Mrs. Rawley, was so overjoyed at finding her little one that she did not bother looking up the squaw.—Halifax Mail.

Among the Shipping.

Schr. Ida L. Hull, Capt. Hull, from Windsor, N. S., for New York, was in collision at 1.30 p. m. Tuesday, off Cape Pogue, with an unknown schooner, formerly a fishing schooner. The unknown schooner was coal loaded and was supposed to have been the George F. Brown. She had a mast carried away and was so badly damaged in her hull that she commenced to fill rapidly and was abandoned by her crew, who succeeded in getting on board the Ida L. Hull. Tug William H. Clark was in the vicinity at the time of the accident and made an effort to tow the sinking schooner to Vineyard Haven, but in spite of the efforts of men at the pumps the vessel sank near the entrance to Swash Channel. The Ida L. Hull had jibboom and foretopmast carried away. She proceeded to Vineyard Haven.
