"ALL IS WELL" BETWEEN BRITAIN AND UNITED STATES, SAYS DURAND

pecially do I regret leaving America where I have many good friends. From the day I entered the service it was my express wish to become ambassador to Washington. I regarded this embassy as the most desirable post in the service. I had inherited from my father a warm feeling towards Americans and I can say in truth that after three years spent here, I am leaving the country with that feeling not only unimpaired but greatly increased. You have made me thoroughly at home here, and I shall always think of Americans as the most kindly and warm hearted people.

"I feel also that the old era of misunderstanding and prejudice is passing away and that it is right to recognize the fact and rejoice in it. Do not mistake my meaning. Do not suppose that I wish to claim a particle of credit for it. I am merely stating what I believe to be a fact, due to causes wholly independent of me. But in leaving America with regret—a regret amounting to sorrow—I do leave it with one great satisfaction, the assurance that between our kindred nations all is well."

ARE YOU OFTEN BILIOUS

Read This and Learn How to Prevent Attacks

Biliousness is merely a term applied to a condition that exists when the body is over-loaded with bile.

The complexion turns yellow, eyes look dull, pimples, itching and eczema break out, headaches are ever present.

Biliousness has two great causes, constipation and defective liver action.

When Dr. Hamilton's Pills are taken they not only correct the bowels, but act directly on the liver, regulating its bile secretion.

Unlike ordinary medicines which purge and give temporary relief, Dr. Hamilton's Pills remove the condition which causes biliousness; thus permanent cure are effected.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills do cure biliousness and liver ills under all circumstances. We prove this by the statement of Mr. Renwick Lumington, of New Harbor, N. S., who writes: "Three months ago I had no expectation of ever getting free from periodical bilious attacks. They were preceded by dizziness and dreadful headaches. If I stooped over my head would swim and a nauseous feeling crept into my stomach.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills fixed up my liver, drove all the bile out of my blood and made me a well man in a few months. Today I enjoy a good appetite, excellent digestion, and the best of health. Dr. Hamilton's Pills did it all."

GILLETTE TOLD THREE DIFFERENT STORIES

prosecutor has not yet shown the time the body was found. The details of the discovery and of the condition of the body are yet to be heard.

Under-Sheriff Klock, on the witness stand, said that when Gillette was first arrested and informed of "Bill" Brown's death by drowning, he professed great surprise, and said he had not heard of the accident.

"After a few minutes," said the witness, "I told him he knew as well as I did that the girl was dead. He replied: 'Yes, the boat upset.' I asked him how long he and the girl had been intimate, and he said about a year. I asked him if he had ever heard anything against her character, and he said he never had heard a word. He said the boat tipped over about 6 p. m. that Wednesday evening. The girl came to the surface and he told her to cling to the stern and he would try to get her ashore."

Asked as to what the defendant said had caused the boat to upset, Klock replied:

"At first he said he was standing up doing something with his hat and the boat went over. The next time I talked to him he said he was standing up trying to reach a pond lily. The third time he said he was walking back toward the stern to talk to the girl when the boat upset."

Klock admitted that Gillette told him he expected to be married, and he understood the defendant to mean the ceremony was to take place during the Adirondack season.

Sheriff Richard told of finding the tennis racquet hidden behind a log on the road from Big Moose to Eagle Bay. Gillette had told him he had placed the racquet there, finding it too much trouble to carry. The racquet was put in evidence. A number of the strings are broken. Klock was recalled to say that when he took possession of Gillette's suit case at Arrowhead, the inside gave no evidence of having been wet.

The prosecutor showed today that, while Gillette's former sweetheart lay dead in the lake, he joined a number of parties in mountain trips, took many photographs, and made a long canoe trip in search of the two Cortland girls whom he had met on the train while riding to DeRuyter with Grace Brown.

FRANCIS' TRAIL STRUCK AGAIN

the escaped convict, Minot St. Clair Francis, yesterday afternoon. No trace of him was seen, however.

It appears that a young Swede, Charles Norgren, was out hunting yesterday between St. George and Scotch Settlement. He had just shot a squirrel and was sitting on a log looking at it when he happened to look up and saw a colored man about twenty yards from him walking into the woods. Norgren was very much frightened and at once jumped to the conclusion that it was Francis.

There are no negro families in that section of the country at all, and the only thing that would bring any there would be a hunting trip. This man, however, was evidently not hunting, as he carried no gun. Norgren describes him as a big man who wore an overcoat, white collar and a dark blue cap with gray peak. In most points the description of this man tallies with that of Francis.

Henry Sherard, a farmer, of Scotch Settlement, reports that on Wednesday night some one broke into his barn and slept in the hay, and he thinks this might be the same man. Norgren says that as the colored man passed him going into the woods he took something out of his pocket and after looking at it put it back again.

Marshall McAdam last night had not decided whether the search will be resumed today or not.
