MUSKOKA ROCKS RE-ECHO YELLS OF WESTERN 'U'

London Students Return From Conference With Big Vision of Internationalism.

HEAR LABOR'S SIDE

Clever Nonsense Amuses, While Failing To Conceal Seriousness of Purpose.

"Revolution, riot, blood and gore.
Down with the capitalists forevermore
One, two, three,
Who are we,
Bolshevike-e-e! !"

The long-drawn-out "E" was followed by an outburst of laughter, gay, youthful, and far from savage or menacing. The surprised audience joined in the merriment created by a couple of hundred young people, students all, on their way home for flying visits after attending the Central Student Conference for Canada, held at Elgin House, Muskoka, during the past week.

Here a yell started for Toronto, there one for McGill. A valiant group did the honors for Queen's, and the Western University not to be daunted by any other institutions of learning, however great, made the welkin ring and the Muskoka rocks re-echo with the good old Western yell. Then all voices blended once more in the refrain, "Poisoning the Student Mind."

Several hours later a cheery group occupied the center of a railroad coach bound for London and the attention of all the other passengers, as they repeated their own yells, and those of other all-over-Canada colleges they had acquired, or gaily reminsced never for a moment was there a suggestion of "the loud laugh that speaks the vacant mind." There was nonsense, but clever nonsense, that sprang from nimble wits and trained minds. And behind the fun the onlookers sensed an earnestness and purposefulness which in time was revealed by a transition to seriousness and expression of opinion with regard to the conference.

Big Question Mark.

"What was the outstanding feature, the chief characteristic of the conference?" asked the representative of the Woman's Department of The Advertiser, fortunate enough to be traveling on the same boat and train as the students and their expert leaders.

"It was a big interrogation mark," replied a clean-cut ex-service man, who is taking agriculture as a vocation, with the privilege of training in the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

"We have all come away asking ourselves questions," was the verdict of a charmingly intellectual Queen's co-ed.

"Last year," said a baritone voice, "the conference focused on solving immediate problems. In this conference, we have had our eyes turned to the future, and have been given a vision of the part the student body must play in solving international problems."

Discussion turned to the subject of leaders and speakers. Dr. Salem Bland, it was agreed, had sounded a definite challenge to the intellect and altruism of Canadian colleges to co-operate with labor in finding a solution for the problems of industrialism.

One visiting member to the conference had specially intrigued the interest, a man somewhat above medium height, slender, quick and positive of movement, his hair and pointed beard touched with gray, eyes keen, features tending to sharpness. When J. S. Woodsworth, M. L. A., left the Muskoka Wharf boat at Port Carling to change for Bala, en route to Winnipeg, he was given a heart-warming send-off. His face glowed with kindliness and friendliness as he looked up from the dock and waved his hand. "Woodsworth looks very happy just now," a learned professor remarked, with a note of gratification in his voice.

The students trainward bound for London in the evening commented that this was not his habitual expression.

Served Prison Term.

"You can tell from his face that he has suffered much," said one and another. "And there are times when there is bitterness in his look as well as in his tone."

J. S. Woodsworth, who for years previous to the war was known throughout the West for his community service and work among the new Canadians in Winnipeg, cannot forget his prison experiences following the great Winnipeg strike, nor the taste by himself of what it meant to be down and out and at the hunger line when he served as a dock worker in Vancouver.

Informally one night at Elgin House to a group around a glowing log fire he told from his own point of view the story of the Winnipeg strike.

The presence of Woodsworth at Elgin House was due to the forum on internationalism and industry, led by J. D. Ketchum, a McGill student, one which attracted an exceptionally big enrollment.

Miss Margaret Wrong, formerly dean of women of Toronto University, who has spent the past year studying problems in war-devastated countries of Europe, led the forum on internationalism and student work. Other forums dealt with internationalism and races, internationalism and the state, and internationalism and religion (the modern missionary movement). Of equal interest were the Bible study groups, led by men and women of outstanding prominence.

Arriving in London Monday evening were Miss Gertrude Milliken of Strathroy, who returns to Queen's University, Kingston, the end of this week; Misses Jean Bartram, Agnes Campbell, Jean McCrimmon, Lela Currie, Eunice Moorhouse and Delmer Lewis of the Western University; Charles F. Davis of McGill, who stopped over on his way to Detroit, and Norman Laughlin and W. H. Williamson of the O. A. C., who came to the city to join a group of 100 students of the college who are visiting leading stock farms if the vicinity in connection with practical work.

BRUCE RURAL FAIR PROVES SUCCESS

Four Township Schools in Competition At Children's Exhibition.

Special to London Advertiser.

BELMORE, Sept. 25.—The twelfth rural school fair of Bruce was held at Belmore on Saturday, with four schools taking part in the varidus competitions.

In the school parade, S. S. No. 1, won first prize; S. S. No. 9, second prize; S. S. No. 12, third prize.

The peeling contest, in which the Belmore branch of the Women's Institute offered three prizes to boys, and three to the girls, proved an interesting feature. Each contestant was supposed to peel one apple and one potato. The prizes were not given for the fastest work, as the judges took into account neatness, speed and waste. The boys proved the neatest and best peelers, of course.

Much credit is due the local Institute ladies for the success of the fair.

Issued in 1917 and Maturing 1st December, 1922.

CONVERSION PROPOSALS

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE offers to holders of these bonds who desire to continue their investment in Dominion of Canada securities the privilege of exchanging the maturing bonds for new bonds bearing 5½ per cent interest, payable half yearly, of either of the following classes:—

(a) Five year bonds, dated 1st November, 1922, to mature 1st November, 1927.

(b) Ten year bonds, dated 1st November, 1922, to mature 1st November, 1932.

While the maturing bonds will carry interest to 1st December, 1922, the new bonds will commence to earn interest from 1st November, 1922, GIVING A BONUS OF A FULL MONTH'S INTEREST TO THOSE AVAILING THEMSELVES OF THE CONVERSION PRIVILEGE.

This offer is made to holders of the maturing bonds and is not open to other investors. The bonds to be issued under this proposal will be substantially of the same character as those which are maturing, except that the exemption from taxation does not apply to the new issue.

Holders of the maturing bonds who wish to avail themselves of this conversion privilege should take their bonds AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE, BUT NOT LATER THAN SEPTEMBER 30th, to a Branch of any Chartered Bank in Canada and receive in exchange an official receipt for the bonds surrendered, containing an undertaking to deliver the corresponding bonds of the new issue.

Holders of maturing fully registered bonds, interest payable by cheque from Ottawa, will receive their December 1 interest cheque as usual. Holders of coupon bonds will detach and retain the last unmatured coupon before surrendering the bond itself for conversion purposes.

The surrendered bonds will be forwarded by banks to the Minister of Finance at Ottawa, where they will be exchanged for bonds of the new issue, in fully registered, or coupon registered or coupon bearer form carrying interest payable 1st May and 1st November of each year of the duration of the loan, the first interest payment accruing and payable 1st May, 1923. Bonds of the new issue will be sent to the banks for delivery immediately after the receipt of the surrendered bonds.

The bonds of the maturing issue which are not converted under this proposal will be paid off in cash on the 1st December, 1922.
