A second edition of Dr. Rand's poems, At Minas Basin, has been issued. The N. Y. Independent speaks as follows of Dr. Rand's work. Dr. Rand is one of the Canadians who have done honor to their country in singing it's praises, but he has done much more than voice a local preference. Many of his lyrics are delightfully fresh, some of them have a fine smack of shore and sea, and all are informed with a very engaging scholarly spirit. We recommend the book to lovers of pure and dignified song.

We handle Boots and Shoes only, therefore you will find the largest variety at the PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE.

The improvements being made in the old cemetery are about completed and the grounds now present a neat and tasty appearance. It seems scarcely possible that such a marked improvement could have been made in so short a time. Messrs J. F. Herbin, C. R. H. Starr and A. J. Woodman compose the committee of the Board of Trade which had the work in hand and they are certainly to be congratulated on their success. They have had a valuable assistant in Mr. C. Y. Johnson who has superintended the work.

You need Rubbers to cross the Main street at present. Get them at the PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE.
