"THE CATHOLIC CELTIC LEAGUE."

Formation of a New Social Order in the West End.

A large meeting of the men of St. Mary's parish was held Tuesday evening in Emerald Hall, at Bathurst-street and Farley-avenue, to organize a new society. Father Gavan was moved to the chair. The first business transacted was a decision to call the new society "The Catholic Celtic League." Father Gavan informed the meeting that he would hold no office in the society except that of chaplain. He desired the meeting to appoint a president pro tem. until a constitution would be drafted.

Dr. MacMahon and Mr. Heart were nominated candidates. Dr. MacMahon was elected. Having taken the chair he made a short speech, thanking the gentlemen present for the honor they had conferred upon him and exhorting every one to exert his energy to further the interests of the Catholic Celtic League.

Dr. MacMahon, Father Gavan, Mr. Hart, Mr. Henry and Mr. Smith were appointed a committee to draft a constitution and the meeting adjourned for two weeks. The object of the society is to develop the various talents of the young men and cultivate a strong social feeling.

Up Aloft.

—The new and latest picture and in novel style is to be had at Shannessy & Hall's, 328 Yonge-street, the $5 polar photo gallery. Sailors' suits on hand, free for children. 234

—We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhœa, cholera and all summer complaints, sea sickness, etc. It promptly gives relief and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething.

A Tip to the Public.

—When you go to buy dry goods go to a dry goods store. When you go to buy a pair of boots go to a boot and shoe store. When you go to leave your order for a good fitting suit certainly go to tailors who understand that branch of business. Reason teaches that no man can be perfect in many trades. Gibson & Coulter are practical tailors. They keep a full stock of woolens to select from; their prices are moderate, and their fit, style and workmanship are right. You will find them at 389 Yonge-street, and only there. Call and see them. 246

—Cucumbers and melons are "forbidden fruit" to many persons so constituted that the least indulgence produces violent attacks of cholera, dysentery, griping, etc. These persons are not aware that they can indulge to their heart's content if they have on hand a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, a medicine that will give immediate relief, and is a sure cure for all summer complaints.

Settlement of the Irish Question.

—At the informal gathering of the English Parliament, where Lord Salisbury and the Cabinet met together with Lord Hartington, Mr. Gladstone, Mr. Parnell and other prominent Irish obstructionists, it was unanimously agreed to settle the great Irish question by ordering for the occasion a case each of the various brands so well and favorably known, namely, the general middleton, our brave boys, albion rangers, wanderers of Toronto, etc., though not forgetting W. A. Dobson, toronto, upon which occasion every prominent politician will be invited to smoke the great cigars of peace. The Prince of Wales will be there. These goods can be had in Canada from all first-class dealers or the manufacturer. 246

—One trial of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator will convince you that it has no equal as a worm medicine. Buy a bottle, and see if it does not please you.

BEAUTIFUL PLACE OF REST

How It Came to Me.

I dream in the hush of a summer night
Such dreams as came to my youth,
When never a vision, dark or bright,
Brought another Queen than Ruth;
On banks of ferns we wandered far
And knelt among the mosses—
Gone was the sorrow and the scar,
Life's trivial frets and losses.

Just as I pass now, in my sleep,
Those olden shoals and shallows
Which in my memory slumber deep,
And still life's spring-time hallows,
Anxiety and trouble flee;
Grief throws away its shadows.
I date all joys that come to me
From the day I first met Walker.

His sofa-bed is where I rest,
One of the parlor's fixtures,
Where all is new—the very best
Of carpets, curtains, pictures.
Our home's the envy of the town.
You ask how came I by it?
My purse was empty, salary down—
Poor—well I don't deny it.

I had one hope, one friend to seek,
And you know what that meant,
I bought from Walker by the week,
That generous plan—instalment.
I never missed a dollar spent
Like this—I got all that we needed.
Of all my life this one event
Is where I most succeeded.

So it will be with any man or woman who puts in Walker's hands each week a sum to pay for beautiful household articles—Furniture, Carpets, Dishes, Pictures, Baby Carriages, Lace Curtains and Oil Stoves. No need to go away anywhere. Home is good enough if furnished at

Walker's Weekly Payment Store,

107 1-2 Queen-st. West.
