EDITORIAL NEWS.

It seems John A. was even more pressing on his followers to support the Mail than he at first got credit for. Here is what a western exchange says of the late caucus at Ottawa on this subject: Sir John very plainly told his followers that they would have to put their hands in their pockets and help to fill the Mail's needy coffers. He told them that the paper was started in their interest, to secure their re-election, and that whether they like it or not the concern must be supported. Thereupon a feeling of discontent began to manifest itself, and the low mutterings that presage a coming storm were heard in every corner of the caucus. Finally Walter Shanley gave vent to his pent-up indignation, and was followed by Beaty, of the Leader—the venerable Bishop Beaty — who, in thunder tones let his leader, Sir John know that he had a Leader of his own, and that it, too, had claims that dare not be overlooked. Next come T. C. Street, and after him half a score of others, who denounced the arch blackmailer in terms that made even his stout heart quake — and the caucus dissolved in an angry row.

Mr. Malcolm Cameron is running Russell pretty close, and it is thought he will beat Dr. Grant out of the field, as Mr. Ira Morgan has promised him his support.

The work on the Doon extension is progressing rapidly.
