ARMED GUARDS FOR THE TRAINS

Lawlessness of Harvesters From Eastern Points Reaches Serious Proportions.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 18. — The lawlessness of the thousands of harvesters being brought in from the east has reached such proportions that all trains bearing the harvesters will bear armed guards in future. A riot was started at the depot today when 1,000 harvesters from Ontario arrived. The trouble resulted from the arrest of Jas. Forrester, one of the gang, who afterwards said he came from Truro, N. S. Forrester was acting in an improper manner in the depot, and when spoken to commenced swearing and shouting. He was promptly ejected by one of the railway policemen from the depot, but outside he became worsee, and was arrested by a city policeman.

Seeing one of the gang in the hands of the law the crowd became furious, and with shouts of "Rescue!" rushed for the policeman and his prisoner.

Another policeman was soon on the scene, and also one from the station. With the additional help, some little progress was made by the officers, but the crowd again surged around, and completely stopped any movement.

The air all the time was rent with the cries of the mob, who are determined to free the man, but none of them would attempt to touch the policemen, who were fighting their way through the wall of human beings. It was impossible for them to use their clubs, as the struggles of the prisoner occupied their attention. A big C. P. R. constable finally rushed ahead, knocking the crowd apart and clearing a road in this manner, the street was gained.
