TERSELY TOLD.

The Union Stock Yards Bank, at Sioux City, Ia., has failed. Liabilities, $163,140; nominal assets, $482,667.

At Lowell, Mass., Friday night, John Dufly shot his wife and then killed himself. The woman will not recover.

The condition of James Gordon Bennett, who was injured by a runaway in Paris a few days ago, is steadily improving, and he is now considered to be out of danger.

The California express, No. 3, west bound on the Topeka, Atcheson and Santa Fe, was held up near Cimmaron, Kan., and the express car robbed of about $2,000 by five bandits at 1:30 Saturday morning.

A. L. Backus & Sons' Company, one of the largest grain commission firms in Toledo, Ohio, has made a voluntary assignment for the benefit of its creditors. The liabilities will exceed $300,000, while the assets cannot be estimated.

IN LABOR'S FIELD.

Ottawa Building Laborers Secure Better Terms.

The strike of the Ottawa building laborers for higher wages is over. At a conference between the contractors and the men the latter accepted the offer of the former to make $1 40 the minimum for a day's work.

The Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers, meeting at Pittsburg, completed the consideration of the wage scale. The scale remains unchanged throughout. The workers will demand its adoption by the manufacturers for the coming year.

WHITING, Ind., June 11.—The Standard Oil strike was declared off yesterday. Four hundred workmen will resume work Monday with a nine-hour day. All parties are satisfied.

LIQUOR AT THE CAMPS.

[Kingston Whig.]

The London Methodist Conference has declared against the establishment of canteens in connection with the camps. It is right. The young men who are now pressed into the volunteers do not go into camp to learn to drink, and the friends of these young men have a right to protest against the temptations which are placed in their way by the Government. Liquor is not an essential of camp service. It is not included in the necessaries of life for which tenders are invited and a contract awarded, and it is instrumental in doing no good. Any misconduct or disturbing exhibition originates from the indiscriminate use of liquor, dispensed at the canteens which are provided by the special favor of the military department, and which should have no place within the bounds of the camp ground. The London Conference does right. Every church represented by its higher council should indorse a movement so surely in the interest of law and order.

A Correction.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Will you kindly allow me to make a correction in your report in Saturday evening's issue of my remarks on church union. Your report is: "He said: 'Every Congregationalist was a free man, and he sneered at and was annoyed at those who had approached the Presbytery at Toronto as they had,'" whereas my remark was the very opposite in meaning and my words in this connection were, in substance: "Every Congregationalist is a free man, and I have been displeased and annoyed with those who sneered at and harshly criticised the men who had approached the Toronto Presbytery." Hoping that you will make the correction, I am, yours truly,

D. S. HAMILTON.

Better Than Most Other Reasons.

"Man," said Mr. Wickwire, oracularly, "views woman as a being to be looked up to."

"Is that the reason he lets her stand when he has a seat in the car?" asked Mrs. Wickwire, and her husband looked disgusted and said not a word.

Woman's Empire—Man's Mission.

Julia—But if we return to Empire style, why not the men, too?

Maud—Oh, they would be such frights!

Julia—They say that of us.

Dorothy—What does it matter, if the dressmakers approve? We are picturesque. Men are merely useful.

The Most Wonderful Echo.

At Roseneath, in Argyllshire, there is an echo which repeats eight or ten notes from a trumpet, but in a much lower tone than the original; then, after a momentary silence, the notes are again repeated, but still weaker, and, strange to relate, after another short interval of silence, they are repeated for the third time in a tone so faint as to be scarcely audible.

Marvels of the Fair.
