CONTINENTAL.

Affairs on the Continent continue in a very unsettled state. In Elberfield, Dusseldorf, Hagen, Iserlohn, and in all the market towns in Rhenish Prussia, the insurgents have created barricades, and make the Constitution a pretence for tumult, but a large army is marching upon them. In the mean time, at Berlin, a sort of Congress has assembled, and Baron Gagern's scheme of a German Federal State is revived.

The Hungarians are said to have gained another victory over the Austrians, which has brought them within a few days march of Vienna; but the Russians are pressing forward towards the same, and several other points, with rapid strides. On their arrival the struggle will be renewed with greater fury than ever. The result is very doubtful, as the Hungarians are a very brave people, and have acquired great confidence from their recent victories over the Austrians.

It is said that the settlement of the Danish question will soon be effected.

In Italy, the Austrians have entered the Papal States on the north, and Marshal Wimpfen threatens one with fire and sword all those who resist him.—His object is avowedly to restore the Pope to his former power. On the south the Neapolitans were advancing on Rome for the same object, but Garibaldi had fallen in with their vanguard at Albano and defeated them. It is probable that a general battle has since taken place. Meantime, the French army remains in the same position before Rome.—General Oudinot has been reinforced by many thousand troops, and he has probably now a well appointed army of 20,000 men under his command. But the enthusiasm of the Romans is raised to the highest pitch; and if a single-handed or combined attempt to bombard and take Rome by storm should be made, the defence of the city, by means of barricades and by the courage of the people, will be so well maintained that the assailants are by no means certain of success.

At Leghorn and Florence all was fighting and confusion. The Austrians entered Leghorn on the 11th, when the populace became tranquil.

HOUSE OF LORDS, May 15.

Lord Stanley, referring to the formidable news from Canada, felt it his duty to ask her Majesty's Government whether they had received any further information than that which had been conveyed to the public, and whether they were prepared to offer any explanation of the state of affairs existing in their colony, where it would appear that the discontent which had been produced by the measures of the government had at last broken out into absolute disaffection and revolt, and where, it was to be apprehended, there was now raging the most formidable of all wars, a war of races. He wished also to know whether with regard to the particular measure which had led to this outrage—the Indemnity Bill—any specific instruction had been given to Lord Elgin as to the course of policy to be pursued.

Earl Grey replied that about an hour previously he had received a despatch from Lord Elgin, and that despatch, when the House next met, he should have great pleasure in laying upon the table—a despatch which he thought would show that Lord Elgin had acted throughout with his accustomed judgment, moderation & good sense. The despatch was dated the 30th of April, and the mail having left, was forwarded to New York just as the packet was about to leave. Undoubtedly, at the time the despatch was written, a riot of a very aggravated kind had taken place at Montreal, and the Parliament House had been burnt, but he saw no reason at all to apprehend, from the despatch, that there was a war of races of which the noble lord had spoken; on the contrary, he had every reason to believe that tranquility was restored. There had been no step taken in this matter which he should not hereafter be fully prepared to justify, and take the responsibility which belonged to himself and his colleagues. At the same time he must tell the noble lord that, in his opinion, the responsibility of these events rested as much upon the noble lord as upon other persons, in consequence of the proceedings in that House some time since, the opinions expressed by the noble lord having in no slight degree increased the party feeling which prevailed in the colony.

Lord Stanley replied, and again asked the question whether Lord Elgin had been left to act upon his own unassisted judgment with reference to the Indemnity Bill, or had he received advice and instructions from her Majesty's Government?

Earl Grey replied that no instruction had been given to Lord Elgin with reference to the Indemnity Bill. In Canada, as well as in most of the other colonies, the governors were bound to act on their own judgments, and he should never depart from the wholesome rule by giving instructions from home.

After some observations from Lord Redesdale, and a reply from Earl Grey, as to the constitution of the Legislative Council in Canada, the subject dropped.

IRELAND.

By the accounts from the western districts we learn that mortality from destitution and disease is rapidly extending. The Ballinasloe Star states that the number of deaths in workhouses of that town for the week ending the 5th inst., was 609. The official return gave it as 490. This frightful result, the editor maintains, was produced by the collecting into the town of Ballinasloe all the paupers of the union, which contains an area of 250 square miles. The whole fixed population of the town, he says, is not equal to the number of inmates crammed into the workhouses and its auxiliary establishments. These miserable beings are estimated at 400. It is not easy to give the exact number on any specified day, as large numbers came in one day and die the next—their places being immediately filled by others, whose sojourn in these abodes of wretchedness is but too frequently of a few hour's duration. The cholera had somewhat abated on the 12th. The Galway Vindicator says that the deaths in Ballinasloe for the week ending the 5th inst., amounted to 860.—We should prefer the official return above given to either this estimate, or the figures set down by the Star. Adopting the lowest, it is a frightful state of things at Ballinasloe.

The treasurer of the county of Limerick, who is also a guardian of Limerick union told the board on Wednesday that fifty years ago the county cess was only £5500, whereas it now amounted to about £64,000, which, added to poor-rates, &c., might form a total of about £200,000 burden on that country annually. The National Bank has refused to advance £4000 to the board until the new rate is struck.

Seven vessels, carrying 883 passengers, sailed from Limerick for America last week. The fares to Quebec have been advanced £5 a head. Ten vessels arrived in Limerick on Friday, laden with foreign corn.

The steamship Europa, which sailed from N. York on the 2nd May, and Halifax on the 5th, arrived home after a rapid run of nine days from the latter port.

LIVERPOOL TIMBER MARKET.

MAY 19.—The sales during the week are comprised in one cargo of Quebec yellow Pine at or about 15d per foot; one cargo of Dalhousie at 13d per foot; one cargo of St. John Deals at £7 15s; and Battens at £7 10s per standard, and three parcels of Pitch Pine at from 2s to 2s 1d per foot.

LONDON, Friday Evening, May 18.—Railway Shares.—The Railway share-market further improved to-day, the business transacted showing a decided increase, while prices generally ruled higher.

FREIGHTS AT LIVERPOOL.—During the past week freights have been very fully supported, and higher rates paid in several instances. With a fresh westerly wind arrivals are becoming numerous, and some decline may probably be expected.—Passengers are less abundant, and some ships have been filled with difficulty at reduced rates. We quote to New York—dead weight, 15s per ton; fine goods, 15s to 17s 6d; hardware, 12s 6d; earthen ware 5s to 6s.

HATS.—Who would wear a "shocking bad Hat?" when by calling at Lockhart & Co.'s store in the Market Square, they can procure a new one at such a low price, and a selection from the most varied stock in the city of Hats, Caps, &c. of every imaginable shape, quality and colour—imported and of domestic manufacture.

A visit to Lockhart & Co.'s manufactory would astonish any person to imagine that such an establishment for the manufacture of Hats, Caps, Oil Skin Coverings and Clothing existed in our City. Their artists are the most skilful that can be procured—their material of the best quality, and as a natural consequence, the production is superior to any imported. Take a look for yourselves, and encourage domestic manufactures.

A REMEDY THAT CURES.

Various remedies have been offered and puffed into notice for the CURE of diseases of the LUNGS and some have been found, no doubt, very useful; but of all that have yet been discovered, it is admitted, and all who have witnessed its effects, that none has proved so successful as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. For asthma, shortness of breath, and similar affections, it may be pronounced a positive cure. It has cured asthma in many cases of ten and twenty years' standing, after physicians had declared the case beyond the reach of medicine.

(From the Cincinnati Enquirer.)

Wherever this medicine is introduced, it at once attains that high reputation which it so richly deserves. What can stop its sale, when on every hand can be witnessed its wonderful cures. The worst cases of asthma, recent but dangerous coughs, and also those that are of long standing, bronchitis and consumption, are always cured by this remarkable medicine.

None genuine unless signed I. Butts, on the wrapper.

HAYSEY'S PATENT GOLD AND SILVER MAGNETIC PILLS.

This valuable discovery consists of two distinct medicinal preparations, viz: the Gold or Positive, and the Silver or Negative Pills. One or more of each class being taken together, dissolve in the stomach; their properties becoming thus infused together generate a Magnetic action, whose influence passes to every part of the system, purifies the blood and arrests the course of disease.

To many the singular effect would appear almost incredible, were it not well established, from the fact, that the Gold and Silver Pills taken together, are nearly five times more beneficial than the same number of either class were they to be taken separately.

In some instances sensations of a singular nature passing to every extremity of the system, are experienced by the patient after having taken the Pills. This, however, is never injurious in the slightest degree, or disagreeable to the patient, it being nothing more than the slight electrical influence in the nervous system and blood. Notwithstanding, it is without doubt, this influence, (however small it may appear,) which gives the Gold and Silver Pills power of curing diseases never before possessed by any other medicine.

Their virtues will be found unparallelled in the cure of all Bilious Disorders, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Giddiness, Foul Complexion, Jaundice, Fevers, Colds, Influenza, Affections of the Liver, Eruptions of the Skin, Fever and Ague, Dropsy, Worms, and all diseases originating from a foul state of the Stomach and superabundance of Bile.

This remarkable medicine is put up in boxes containing 24 pills each, or eight of the Gold, and sixteen of the Silver, in every box.

The Gold and Silver Pills neither cause griping or inconvenience, nor have they any taste of medicine whatever, but are easier and more pleasant to take than Sugar-coated Pills, while in point of medicinal virtue, they admit of no comparison with that article or any other medicine.

A circular giving a full explanation of the two-fold action of the Gold and Silver Pills, can be had of the agent gratis. Price only 25 cents per box, containing both kinds, and for sale at the general depot, No. 2, Courtland street, New York, and by the appointed agents in New Brunswick.
