The crookedest railway in the world is one from Boswell to Friedens, Pa., the air line distance being five miles. The road doubles on itself four times, and at one point, after making a loop of about five miles, the road comes back to within 300 feet of itself on a grade 50 feet lower.

In an advertisement by a railway company of some uncalled-for goods the letter "I" had dropped from the word "lawful," and it read: "People to whom these packages are directed are requested to come forward and pay the awful charges on the same."

ST. MARYS.

St. Marys, Sept. 8.—At a special meeting of the town council held on Monday evening, the tax rate for 1903 was passed at 22½ mills. Last year's rate was 24¾. This rate is thus a reduction of 2¼ mills on the estimates.

James Marshall, an employe at the Maxwell works, was the owner of a fancy breed of ducks. One night last week they strayed away some distance from his house, and twenty of them were found the following morning, some with heads off, others with feet off, and some with wings off. What killed them is a mystery. Some had an idea that they were shot with a revolver, others that the deed was done with a rifle, and in a spirit of revenge. A person who had occasion to cross the Rogers field recently, near the Marshall homestead, states that he saw feathers scattered through the field. Coupled with this is the fact that two strange dogs have been seen in the vicinity at nighttime, and about the same time that the ducks were killed. It is thought most probable that the two strange dogs are the culprits in the matter of worrying and killing the birds. Mr. Marshall states that he valued the ducks at about $50 or $60, and it is a heavy loss to him.

Live hogs are selling in the local market at $5 85 per 100 pounds.

The artesian well at the waterworks was down to the depth of 560 feet on Monday evening, with a slight increase of water. It is the intention of the waterworks committee to have the well drilled to the depth of 650 feet if necessary.

Now that the Toronto Exhibition is nearing a close, the rush of visitors will be to the Western Fair, which opens on Friday of this week.

There was no celebration of Labor Day in St. Marys on Monday, but about 25 members of Federal Union, No. 10,918, St. Marys, attended the London parade on that day.

The St. Marys road roller has not yet arrived. No cause is given for the delay.

White Bros. and Graham & Moore still continue to ship weekly a large number of hogs.

HARRIETSVILLE.

Harrietsville, Sept. 7.—Mr. Jennings of Houghton, is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Taylor.

Messrs. S. E. Facey and C. B. Adams have returned from visiting the Toronto Exhibition.

Miss Annie Coleman has accepted a good position with a large institution in Toronto, to which place she went last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Westlake, New Sarum, were recent visitors at the home of the latter's brother, Dr. Doan.

Mrs. D. McInnes, London, was the guest of relatives here a short time since.

Miss Cora Jelly visited at the home of her uncle, J. Emery, Yarmouth Center, recently.

The Methodist Church, Mossley, gave a large tea meeting on Thursday night last. Col. Hegier, of Ingersoll, officiated as chairman, while a very pleasing programme was carried out, mostly by local talent.

A team of horses belonging to Mr. Cohoon became frightened while at the cheese factory with a load of milk, the other morning, resulting in the upsetting of about 1,000 pounds of milk.

A team of horses hitched to a baker's wagon and owned by Mr. Guest, of Dorchester Station, made things pretty lively a few days ago about a mile east of the village, while the owner was delivering bread at the house of one of his customers. He had left them just for a moment, when they started to run west, and on coming near Hugh Fitzpatrick's gate they turned out of the roadway and ran straight for a horse and rig tied at the gate belonging to J. J. Jelly, and succeeded in getting between the horse and the gate, thereby breaking the tie strap which held it. At this away they all went. The team with the bread wagon had not gone far until the tongue of the wagon came down, running into the ground about four feet, breaking the tugs of the harness, setting the horses free. They all ran until they came close to the village, where they stopped of their own accord. The only damage done was to the bread wagon and harness, the single horse and rig escaping injury.

The remains were taken from the station to his aged mother's residence, con. 6, Caradoc, whence they were conveyed on the following day to the above-named cemetery, followed by a large cortege of friends and relatives. We all join in extending our sympathy to the widow and three small children left behind to mourn his loss.

Some great yields of wheat are reported in this vicinity. Mr. Clark, of con. 2, threshed 200 bushels off four acres, while Mr. George Grigg, of con. 3, claimed a yield of 46 bushels to the acre. Both lots were of the Dawson's golden chaff variety, which seems to be outstripping all other winds in sample as well as yield.
