"he couldn't afford to buy but one suit from his tailor this fall."

That's poor economy—much less wear in it than when you alternate with another.

Poor idea, too—you tire of it yourself; don't appear well dressed to others.

Buy one of ours and make comparisons. At $10, $12 or $15 we'll fit you as well as you're fitted now.

Higher priced ones, of course, but they won't fit any better.

The Carlyle Recitals.

This afternoon at 6.30, in the music hall of the Toronto College of Music, Carlyle will read the new French play by Rostand, Cyrano de Bergerac, now being played in New York by Mansfield. The drama is quaint, fanciful and replete with strong dramatic contrasts. The characters are boldly and strongly drawn, and it is expected that Carlyle will make quite a hit in the reading. His temperament is quite in keeping with the trend of the drama. The play will be read in English, with the idioms carefully preserved. This is a great opportunity to hear Carlyle at his best. He will not read many more times in Toronto.

HAMILTON AND THE LADIES

Various Toasts at Court Lindsay I. O. F. Banquet Last Night.

MR. H. W. WOODWARD DEAD

Heart Failure Carries Off a Highly Respected Citizen — Verral Company Didn't Get a License—"Middleton for Sheriff!" is Now the Cry—A Vicious Cow and an Injured Woman — Ambitious City News.

Hamilton, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Court Lindsay, C.O.F., held its eighth annual banquet at the Waldorf Hotel this evening. About 150 members and friends were present and C. H. Zimmerman presided. Good speeches were made in response to the various toasts. Robert Elliott of Ingersoll, High Chief Ranger, replied to the toast of "High Court of Canada," Dr. Montague to that of "Canada"; Dr. Metherall to that of "Hamilton"; Lyman Lee to "The Ladies"; A. H. Wardrope to "Sister Courts," and J. V. Teetzel to "Our Guests."

Among those who contributed to the musical program were, W. E. Ramsay and H. Bennett of Toronto.

H. W. Woodward Dead.

Henry W. Woodward, a highly respected citizen, died at his home on Main-street east late to-night. Heart failure is given as the cause of death. He was about 80 years of age. For over a quarter of a century he was a clerk in the Customs House; three years ago he was superannuated. He leaves three sons and three daughters. Two of his sons are in the employ of Wood, Vallance & Co.

No License for the Verrals.

The Police Commissioners held a special meeting this morning to consider the Verral Transfer Company's application for a license. Mr. George Verral of Toronto and W. F. Burton appeared in support of the application, and George S. Lynch-Staunton for the city carters. There was some discussion on the matter and the Board refused to grant a license. Judge Snider came to the conclusion that the company, having runners on the trains and at the station, would violate one of the clauses of the Carters' bylaw. Magistrate Jelfs considered the bylaw for the protection of city carters, and intended to regulate citizens and not outsiders. The company has already fixed up an office on James-street north. If the Verral Company wants to do business in Hamilton it will have to get the bylaw changed.

Booming Middleton.

The country people are working hard to get Mr. J. T. Middleton appointed sheriff. This meaning a deputation, including the following, interviewed Premier Hardy: Warden J. B. Calder, Major Walker, F. Reinke, Mr. Shaver, Ancaster; ex-Warden W. Martin, John Magann, Binbrook; Lieut.-Col. Van Wagner, A. B. Foran, Councillor M. S. Cornell, Dr. Thompson, Saltfleet; Amos Burkholder, Adam Cook, Henry Beckett, John Eustice, Joseph Ross, Barton, and Amos Reid and Edward Dickenson, Glanford. The party was piloted by John Dickenson, M.L.A.

Hon. J. M. Gibson is said to be strongly in favor of Mr. James Dixon, which Hon. G. W. Ross is hot for Mr. Middleton. Middleton is still believed to be nearer the goal than Dixon.

A Vicious Cow.

Mrs. Wright of Crook-street had a strange and rather painful experience this morning. A cow belonging to a neighbor strolled on her boulevard and Mrs. Wright started to chase it away. The cow turned on Mrs. Wright, caught her on its horns and tossed her over its head. Mrs. Wright fell on her head, stunned. After butting at a tree, the infuriated beast ran towards the prostrate woman, to apparently attack her; when some neighbors ran to her assistance and beat the cow off. Mrs. Wright is suffering from shock.

Minor Matters.

By the will of the late George Fraser his library is left to the Board of Governors of the Reformed Presbyterian Theological College of Pittsburg, Pa.

A number of city Masonic brethren will pay a visit to Doric Lodge, Brantford, tomorrow evening, on the invitation of D. J. Waters, W.M.

Mr. C. W. Tinling has been appointed rector's warden of St. Thomas' Church by Rev. C. J. James.

The funeral of the late A. I. Hubbard, manager of the London Guarantee and Accident Company's Toronto branch, took place at St. John's Church Cemetery, Ancaster, this afternoon.

The Hamilton Law Association this evening tendered a dinner to Judge Monck at the Hamilton Club. The bar was well represented, and an enjoyable evening was spent with the newly appointed judge.

The Sisters of the Church held a sale of work in the Public Library Hall this afternoon and evening. This evening a concert was given.

AT THE ROSSIN LAST NIGHT

There Was an Enthusiastic Party Shouting for Middleton.

"I tell you, gentlemen, Jim Dixon's got to drop out here and stick to his banana business. Middleton is the man for this job." The statement was greeted with hoarse cries of approval, the wild swinging of hats and shouts of "Middleton's the man for us!"

All this took place at the Rossin House last night. J. Dixon and J. T. Middleton, ex-M.P. for East Hamilton, are both candidates for the vacant shrievalty of the County of Wentworth, and the caucus at the well-known hostelry was, as the foregoing indicates, in favor of Middleton's success. The man leading the revolt was John Dickenson, Liberal M.L.A. for South Wentworth, and his cheerers were Dan Reed, E Dickenson, jr., J Burkholder, H Eustice, A Cook, A B Foran (secretary South Wentworth Reform Association), Dr Thompson, E Cornell (county councillor), J McGann, F Rankie (License Commissioner, South Wentworth), A Bradshaw (president Ancaster Reform Association), J B Calder (ex-Warden of Wentworth County) and others.

Speaking to a World reporter, Mr. Dickenson said: "We are here to lay the claims of Mr. Middleton before the Government. He is the man from a party standpoint. He carried the Liberal flag years before Dixon was thought of. Mr. J. Dixon has a good job in Hamilton and should stick to it." The Middleton faction grouped about this speaker endorsed this sentiment with socialistic vehemence.

A great treat is in store for all lovers of good music who attend the musicale on Thursday (Thanksgiving) evening in Confederation Life Building, given in connection with the annual Christmas sale for the benefit of the Sisters of the Precious Blood. Miss Chapin of Sudbury, whose glorious voice and charming presence captured the hearts of all who had the pleasure of hearing her at her recital in Loretto Abbey in June last, will contribute to the program. Mrs. J. D. Warde, so favorably known to all lovers of music; Mr. Egan, Mr. Costello and Mr. Youngheart will also appear. The concert is under the able direction of Mrs. George McPherson.

Will in All Probability Be a Reality in Toronto Soon.

Another meeting for the formation of a Coffee House Club and Institute was held last night in St. James' school house and reports were received from Rev. Canon Sweeney and other members of the committee, furnishing particulars of suitable sites. The time was spent discussing these reports. Those present were: Bishop Sullivan, Mr. R. B. Street, Mr. C. R. W. Biggar, Mr. W. A. Smith, Mr. W. F. Summerhayes, Mr. H Toynbee, Rev R. Ashcroft and Rev. Canon Sweeney.

Already a goodly sum has been received to meet initial and necessary expenses, and further contributions will be gratefully received, if sent to Bishop Sullivan, Rev. Canon Sweeney or Mr. C. R. W. Biggar, 249 Simcoe-street.

Canary Bird Show.

The Canadian Canary and Cage-Bird Society met in Temperance Hall last night to make all the final arrangements for their annual show, which will be held in the Forum Hall on Thanksgiving Day. The affair this year promises to be the largest that has ever been held in Canada, and the birds are the finest ever exhibited on a show bench, some of them being valued as high as $100 each. The show will be opened by His Worship Mayor Shaw, who, by the way, has donated a handsome silver cup to the breeders who succeed in taking the highest number of points.

Varnishers and Polishers.

The Varnishers and Polishers held a very sociable reunion last evening in Richmond Hall, at which many journeymen were present. D. A. Carey delivered an address on the benefits derived from unions, and invited all of the profession to become identified with their organization. SCALCHI IS STILL SCALCHI.

Grand Musical Event at Massey Hall Last Night.

THE CLOSE OF THE SERIES

A Program Which Introduced a Quartet of Strangers, All of Whom Belong to the First Rank—Enthusiasm Broke Loose After the First Number — A Rival of Campanari.

The fourth and last of Mr. Suckling's grand series of high-class concerts took place in Massey Hall last night, and was the grandest of all, if one may judge by the applause bestowed. There will always be differences of opinion as to merit, and while all will agree that Mr. Suckling has furnished nothing but the best to the patrons of Massey Hall, there may be diversity of opinion as to which was the most enjoyable of the four grand concerts. Just in this connection it may be mentioned that Mr. Suckling tells The World man he has another series coming, which he promises will be even above that just closed. There will be three or four concerts, the first of which will take place about the middle of January, and the expense of which will be greater than for any similar events given in Toronto.

As to the series just closed it may be said that the weather clerk has, for three, at least, of the series been out of tune. Nevertheless, there have been large and fashionable audiences. Those who braved the storm last night were well repaid. Mr. W. A. Pick, pianist, was the "victim" who opened the program. He is a fine, athletic-looking young man, modest to a degree, and plays excellently. The opening "Valse Brillante," by Bende, was played, while late comers were disturbing the earlier ones, and therefore could not be properly appreciated, though those at the front could see undoubted ability. Pauer's "La Cascade," played later on, evoked a vociferous recall, which the young man hesitated to honor, but persistency on the part of the audience induced a response. While not great as a virtuoso, Mr. Pick is good, and in accompaniments he is brilliant.

Signor Cansio, the tenor of the company, has an excellent stage appearance and good dramatic power, but some of his notes are off pitch, his method is laborious and his voice hard and unsympathetic. "Una Vergine," from "Favorita," showed grand range, and on that account evoked a recall. The aria "Cielo e Mar," from Ponchielli's "Gioconda," was much better, though a tendency to be out of tune marred both performances.

Mlle. Noldi, soprano, made a triumphal hit. The waltz song from "Romeo and Juliet" displayed a mellow, bell-like, easy-flowing dramatic soprano, which at once won everybody. The young lady is also gifted with a good stage presence and a fair degree of dramatic talent. In short, Mlle. Noldi has all the attributes of a first-class prima donna, and will doubtless be heard from later, though in the "Bel Ragio" aria, from "Semiramide," she was slightly off pitch at times. Her encore number after her first solo was "Comin Thro' the Rye," which was well given, though the dialect was deficient.

No better baritone than Signor Alberti has ever been heard in Toronto. He won a triumph from the start. Coming so soon after the renowned Campanari, one could not refrain from comparison, and as Alberti invited that by singing the same music, there can be nothing very "odious" on the part of a newspaper critic in remarking that it is difficult to choose between them. Campanari is a host in himself, because of his dramatic power; so is Alberti. The latter has, if anything, greater volume, with a little less magnetism than the favorite baritone of the Grau Opera Company. But no vocalist ever won a Toronto audience to a greater degree than did Signor Alberti last night in "Pagliacci," "Toreador," "Dio Possenti" and a ballad, sung as an encore to the latter. He is simply magnificent.

The great Scalchi looked ten years younger than on her last appearance here with Melba's company two years ago. Looking back twenty years, one wonders at the youthful appearance as well as the vocal power of the great contralto, who has charmed two hemispheres in both opera and concert. A close critic would detect an unusual degree of caution on the part of the madame when her upper notes were in play. The medium and lower tones are firm and resonant as ever, and, by shrewd manipulation, the loss of freshness and power in the upper register is so hidden that Madame Scalchi gives no palpable evidence of decadence. Her selections last night were the Faust aria "Quando a te Lieta," a familiar gavotte from "Mignon," and "Chefaro senza Euridice," from Gluck's "Orfeo," in all of which the utmost art was shown, and encores, spontaneous and determined, were insisted on. "Annie Laurie" was vouchsafed in the first instance, and a double encore followed the second number. After the first response the applause kept up until the great contralto, with a good-natured gesture, sang a third piece.

Perhaps the most enjoyable numbers of the program were the two quartets—from "Lucia di Lammermoor" and "Rigoletto." Both were magnificently sung, and while the first gave grand opportunities to soprano, tenor and baritone, the latter brought forward the tenor and alto in melody that was nothing less than thrilling in its grandeur, though there was nothing more than a piano accompaniment. "God Save the Queen" was sung in conclusion. The audience loyally rose and stood during the singing, and a general laugh resulted, when it was discovered that Signor Alberti, who took the solo, did not know the words of Britain's National Hymn.

Comedy Success of Years.

"A Brace of Partridges," the current attraction at the Grand Opera House, has been voted the comedy success of many seasons, so far as Toronto is concerned. The English company producing the piece is strong in every department and all the fun is presented in a most charming manner. H. Reeves-Smith's complete changes of costume necessary to his assumption of two roles, paradoxically, different, yet alike, are done with marvelous rapidity, especially in the last act, where he makes exits on the left side of the stage dressed as the Hon. Arthur Partridge and enters a moment or two late from the opposite wings as Alfred Partridge, the change being complete, even to the necktie and the flower in the buttonhole. Mr. Smith's great cleverness, though, lies in his differentiation of the two characters. It is enough to puzzle the most learned theatre-goer. The Peggy Stubbs of Miss Jessie Bateman is a delicious bit of acting. She is a remarkably pretty girl. Besides the usual matinees, to-day and Saturday, a special performance will be given to-morrow afternoon.

"Her Majesty the Cook."

The constant ovations which clever Mildred Holland received at both performances yesterday at the Toronto Opera House must have been a decided inspiration for best endeavor. The popular theatre was crowded in the afternoon, and despite the inclement state of the weather there was another splendid audience at the evening performance. Following "Two Little Vagrants," the attraction next week will be the ever-popular George W. Monroe, familiarly known as "Aunt Bridget" Monroe, by reason of his great work in the farce comedy of "My Aunt Bridget." Mr. Monroe has a new play this season, "Her Majesty the Cook," and it is said to be a delightful offering. During his engagement, bargain matinees will be given as usual on Tuesday and Saturday. Seats can be had now for any performance.

Jessie, the Educated Baboon.

The wonderful intelligence of Miss Jessie is truly marvelous, and not less a feature in her act is her companion and partner, "Amber" the finest broken pony in America. The two perform tricks that amuse the crowds; that mighty crowd at the New Bijou Theatre. The children are delighted and amused, and no wonder, for the old folks simply are amazed and delighted. Her habits are as one of the human family. She is a dainty piece of the animal kind, her lunches consisting of grapes, red peppers and celery. In her eating she is as refined as a human being. Jessie was born in Africa nine years ago and came to this country without her parents. Education has not been neglected, and to-day she is the brightest and most entertaining animal on the stage. Jessie has a mild disposition, but allows no one to stroke or come near her master. She has never been known to hurt any one seriously, and running at large as she does, she makes friends very easily; shaking hands with any one she takes a fancy to. Miss Jessie will receive the ladies and children every afternoon and evening this week at the old Auditorium, and on Friday between the hours of 12 and 1, she will throw away 500 pennies from the roof of the theatre on the James-street side. Among the pennies will be placed a $5 gold piece. See who will be lucky boy to get it. The balance of the show is clean and up-to-date, in fact, has been put together expressly for the families that enjoy a good first-class vaudeville show. Reserved seats at box office from 9.30 a. m. to 10.30 p. m.

"Uncle Tom" at the Princess.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin," as presented at the Princess Theatre, by the Cummings Stock Company, is proving a big hit. On the first day did not go as well as might have been expected, but yesterday it was vastly improved, and went with an excellent swing. The transformation scene is universally pronounced the best that has been seen in the city. Miss Marshall was enthusiastically applauded yesterday for her good work.

The Empire Bill.

The bill presented at The Empire, the new vaudeville theatre, has been commented upon by theatre-goers who know good things. They are all of the opinion that nothing like it has been given in Toronto at the prices. It's clean and up-to-date. The matinees are being well patronized by ladies and children, the management having made special arrangements for this class of patrons. The acrobatic turn of Bedard and Bedard is one of the cleverest ever seen on a Toronto stage. The new house appears to fill the bill judging from the attendance at the performances.

An Operatic Event.

The operatic event of the present theatrical season will be the appearance at the Grand Opera House the first three nights of next week of the Royal Italian Opera Company in a choice repertoire. It is the largest organization of the kind in America.

A Magic Pill.—Dyspepsia is a foe with which men are constantly grappling but cannot exterminate. Subdued, and to all appearances vanquished in one, it makes its appearance in another direction. In many the digestive apparatus is as delicate as the mechanism of a watch or scientific instrument in which even a breath of air will make a variation. With such persons disorders of the stomach ensue from the most trivial causes and cause much suffering. To these Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are recommended as mild and sure. ed

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Dear Sirs:—I think it my duty to let you know what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I was suffering with severe headaches daily and also with catarrh. One day a paper was left at my house and in looking it over I read of your great medicine's value to my fellow sufferers. I reasoned that if it cured them, why would it not cure me, although I must own I had some doubts about it, as I so-called cures which had failed even to relieve me. At last I procured a bottle and after taking all the medicine the headaches had left me and my catarrh trouble was much better. I continued taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and have derived so much benefit from it that I would advise any one troubled with impure blood to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier.
