

C 54648

and we view with alarm the reversion to governmental methods of colonial days, which places a usurper at the head of the national affairs of our country.

In the name of Liberty and Right, we call upon all well intentioned and fair minded, patriotic citizen electors of Canada to vindicate the constitutional priveleges of this nation, to rally to the polls on the fourteenth of September, and with their ballots thunder forth the verdict, that in this land, freedom and justice will prevail, that oligarchy and usurpation of power will not be tolerated, and that Canadian citizenship will be as proud a boast with every one of us as was the declaration of the Roman of Ancient History: "Civis Romanus Sum".

Port Hawkesbury,
August 31st 1926.
