ST. JOHN MARKETS

Raw sugars advanced five cents in New York yesterday and the local dealers are looking for the price of refined sugars to rise any time. In the produce line new potatoes are coming in freely and the price has dropped to eighty cents and $1 a bushel. There is said to be a lively demand for chickens, but dealers complain the supply is very short. Beyond this there is nothing worthy of note in the local markets. The following were the principal wholesale quotations yesterday:

FINED THE FARMERS

Railways Prosecuting for Permitting Cattle to Get on the Tracks.

Three Rivers, Que., Aug. 2.—Dolphis Lizee, of Batiscan; William Lizee, of the same place, and Euphariste Lajoie, of Yamaipiche, were before the magistrate today and fined $20 and costs, the maximum amount allowed by law, for leaving their farm gates open, thus permitting their cattle to pass through them on to the railway track.

Several railway accidents have recently occurred in the province of Quebec through farmers allowing their cattle to get on to the track, and with a view to removing this danger to the traveling public, the head officers of the companies have notified their local agents to prosecute vigorously every farmer whom they find leaving their farm gates open.

Section 201 of the railway act, under which section the actions against the Lizees and Lajoie were taken, reads:

"Every person who wilfully leaves any such gate open without some person being at or near it to prevent animals from passing through it onto the railway, or who takes down any part of a railway fence, or turns any horse, cattle or other animal, upon or within the inclosure of such railway is liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty of $20 for each offence, and is also liable to the railway company for any damage to the property of the company by reason of his gates being left open."
