Mrs. Spearing, I am as deaf as a post that stands at the top of Fort Howe,
And never heard a word of a row.
But if I was twice as deaf, says Ellen Spearing
I could not but heard of Montgomery's Clearing.
It is a Sale of Silks, Satins, Ribbons, Hats and Dry Goods of all kinds,
At prices that will suit the most delicate minds.
I will try him again—there is no harm in trying:
There is no doubt his Goods are well worth buying.
His prices for Goods were never so low before,
And I must get my trumpet and hurry down to
his store,
And for Velvets and Velveteens, Dress Goods
Cottons or Lace,
Go to Montgomery's—that's the best place.
When I get my new trumpet, I will make a big sound,
And I will tell all my friends in the country to come down.
I will enter his store with ease and grace,
With my trumpet to my ear, and enquire is this his place.

From Saturday's Second Edition.

J. R. Ruel's evidence continued.

Under these instructions Mr. Gerow proceeded to make an examination of the warehouses, and after correcting some discrepancies in the returns of the warehouses keeper handed me the official returns of all the warehouses; I did not see them until September last, when I found there was no report of No. 9. This was when this affair first turned up. I had no report there was any thing wrong with the warehouses: from the time up to last summer I repeatedly spoke to Mr. Gerow of the necessity of keeping the warehouses up; that the duty must be done, whatever suffered; in September when this difficulty arose, I asked Mr. Gerow if he had done this, and when he examined the warehouses last; he said he had examined all in June except warehouse No. 9. The reason was that he could not get the stock list from the warehouse keeper. About the month of June he spoke to me of not having the list; I cannot recollect what I said to him; apart from this I had no knowledge whatever of the warehouse, or of any goods being removed from it without entry or payment of duty, except that last year, to meet a very urgent demand of the merchants generally, I authorized all the Lockers to deliver small parcels of goods after hours without warrant, on condition that the warrant of delivery was handed to them before eleven o'clock on the following day; on failure to produce the warrant the privilege was to be stopped for the merchant concerned; I repeatedly asked the warehouse keeper whether this order was obeyed, and was always informed that it was. Of course I had no reason to suppose that any locker would extend this privilege and did not know that any did. That was all my knowledge of any goods delivered without entry. I know of no exception and made no exception in favor of any warehouse. The first intimation I had of anything wrong in warehouse No. 9 was on the 25th September last, when the warehouse keeper informed me. I directed him to close the office immediately and proceed to examine. On the following morning I got his report in regard to the efficiency of the place. I directed him and Mr. Gerow to go at once and use the utmost diligence to seize all goods; to secure the warehouse and contents. They reported next day that there had been three seizures—Messrs. Williams, Austin and Kennedy's; these goods were subsequently given up on payment or security being given, and of the goods in the warehouse of Mr Brown reported to me as legally sold before the 25th I ordered to be given up; those that were not sold I detained on behalf of the government; subsequently I got a transfer of the goods to Brown, of the goods belonging to him; that is all know; I know nothing of which goods were put there or taken without duty; both the Locker and the Landing Surveyor informed me verbally that the locks were deficient; can't say whether they said the locks were deficint or no locks, or that Brown has access to his warehouse; the latter was the purport, and that he could remove goods to a small extent. I never had any reason to believe that he had sole control of warehouse No. 9. I knew that the locker was constantly there, and the Landing Surveyor, whose duty it was to supervise, and that no large quantity of goods could be taken without being checked, as most of the private Bonding Warehouses are not very difficult to enter at any time. I mean by "Private" all warehouses except Custom House No. 1; I never had a written report of the warehouses in regard to the locks previous to the 29th October last year. Mr. Knight gave me a memorandum last year. I glanced over it and then he handed it in to Landing Surveyor. I believe it contains some statements in regard to the locks. This report says: "No. 9 warehouse has never been placed under Government locks." I knew nothing about the removal of the goods previous to the 26th September.

Wm. Kennedy: I am a merchant of St John and know John O. Brown. I heard Gerow's testimony. I bought those goods from Brown in May and August last. In the last purchase there were 50 hogsheads of molasses and 20 of sugar. They were in No. 9 warehouse and I bought them as duty paid goods. They were so delivered to me some time in last September, and I put them in J. & T. Robinson's warehouse, York Point; I think there were 102 casks in all of sugar and molasses; they were seized and afterwards released; I did not know the duty was not paid until told by Mr. Gerow. I think fifty casks of molasses and two of sugar were duty paid; I have since become answerable for the payment of the balance; I would like to get quit of that obligation if I can; no locker was present when I removed the goods; Brown's man was there; I told Mr. Brown that I had taken the goods.

Court adjourned until Saturday next at eleven o'clock.

Circuit Court.

This morning the evidence in the case of Eccles vs. Lee was concluded, after which Mr. Skinner addressed the jury on behalf of the defendant after which the Court adjourned until Monday morning.

The Sessions.

The Sessions met in the Court House this morning. His worship the Mayor presiding.

The Committee on the bill relating to Water Lots reported recommending the Sessions to petition against its passage.

Jacob H. Mosure and Samuel Townes, both of St. Martins, were appointed Surveyors of lumber.

The Sheriff requested that the Sessions petition for the law to be changed so that juries in criminal cases, other than capital, need not be kept together.

The report of the Assessment Committee was submitted, and the 9th of January appointed for its discussion. It fixes the poll tax at $3.50, and exempts incomes under $400.

English Mail.

The R.M. S. Hibernia arrived at Halifax this morning, too late to catch the morning train. The mails for St. John will be forwarded by Monday evening's train.

BORDER NOTICES.

(From the St. Croix Courier.)

FIRE.—The house of Mr. Keenan, in Washington Street, Calais, was destroyed by fire at an early hour on Sunday morning.

ROBBERY.—Allen Noble was beset by rowdies near the Union Mills Bridge, Calais, one night last week, and robbed of $10.64, all the money he had with him.

THE LUMBERING INTEREST.—The swamps still remain unfrozen, much to the chagrin of the lumbermen. There is quite a depth of snow in the woods, and a thaw is needed, succeeded by hard frosts. The ice on the upper lakes too, is very poor, owing to the weight of snow.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—Capt. George Sprague, master of the schooner Hanna, suddenly disappeared from St. Andrews on Monday night, and has not since been heard of.

NEW TROTTING PARK.—The Agricultural Society met at the Secretary's office on Saturday. Mr. W. Connors from the committee appointed to enquire about the purchase of a site, reported that Mrs. Blair would sell 15 or 20 acres for the purpose at $100 per acre, accepting $500 down and giving time for the balance. The propriety of the Society's taking stock in the Park was discussed at length, but a motion to sell the present Agricultural grounds and invest the proceeds in the Park was lost.
