SOLD WHOLESALE BY

SOUTH WHARF.

A PECULIAR case has happened at Burton some time since that will likely find its way into the law courts. The sum of thirty-five dollars mysteriously disappeared from the pocket of an overcoat that was hanging up in a room in the house of a widow. The house had a visitor during the absence of the widow, and it is to be shown that the visitor carried away the money. Some of the bills have been found, and it is known who offered them in payment for articles purchased. It will be the means, if not privately settled, of sending the visitor for a trip to Dorchester.—Gleaner.

We have written "There are no bargains in Kid Gloves. We said it, and believed it true, even while having our 39c. glove in stock."

Said it and thought it actual, with a fair knowledge of what others were offering as marvellous value in Kid Gloves.

Said it, adopted it as a tenet, looked upon it as datum from which we might argue.

But now!

But now!

Our new spring stock has arrived, in response to a telegram from us, "we expect our Kid Gloves for Easter." What shall we say of the 58c. and 77c. lines? To what shall we liken them? To the undressed kid at 78c., which many have seen and that only disappointed one customer, who wanted 8s. By the latter we place the new arrivals for comparison, and if they are not dwarfed in their presence, and they're not, it is only because these too are of equal value.

THE CONCERT TONIGHT, to be given in aid of the Carleton Cornet band in City hall, West end, promises to be a rich musical treat. The friends of the band should therefore muster in strong force tonight and fill the hall.

MR. He has contributed his voice in concerts, for nearly all the churches in the city and for the entertainment of our citizens. Now that he is about to leave St. John it is only fitting that the opportunity being thus afforded all those who have called upon and who have been granted his services, should render their meed of recognition and give him a bumper house.

EASTER SUNDAY.

A BEAUTIFUL DAY TAKEN UP WITH INTERESTING SERVICES.

Large Attendance at the Churches—Profuse Floral Decorations—Soul Stirring Music—41st Anniversary of Brussels Street Church—Notes of the Day's Services.

Easter Sunday was a splendid day, and the special services in the churches throughout the city were largely attended and much enjoyed. In most of the churches the floral decorations were profuse and beautiful, and the services were made doubly impressive and pleasing by the rendering of appropriate Easter music by the choirs.

AT TRINITY.

Magnificent Easter lilies, arranged in sprays, surrounded the reredos, and the pulpit and lectrn were prettily decorated with roses, chrysanthemum, smilax and lilies. Rev. Dr. Brigstocke preached in the morning. In the afternoon, a service for children was held, addressed by the rector, and in the evening, Rev. Mr. Eatough preached. Singing of the the choir was much admired, the anthem in the evening, Why Seek Ye the Living Among the Dead, being especially well rendered. The offertory was in aid of the Diocesan Church Society.

AT ST. MARY'S CHURCH

the usual morning and evening services, with children's carol service in the afternoon, were held. Tasteful decorations and unusually good music made the services most interesting.

AT ST. LUKE'S CHURCH

The music by the choir was very fine, Gerrish's Te Deum being rendered with much power and feeling. Calla lilies, potted plants, and beautiful bouquets were tastfully arranged around the altar and on the baptismal font. In the afternoon a baptismal service was held. Thirteen children and one adult were baptised.

AT ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH.

In the evening the choir sang a beautiful Easter carol by Pflueger, and Mr. Titus rendered Rotali's Our King in fine voice. The services during the day were very interesting.

AT CENTENARY CHURCH

the congregations were large and the singing by the choir was good. The church was finely decorated.

Yesterday was the 41st anniversary of

and the services were of more than ordinary interest. A prayer meeting was held at 10 o'clock and at 11 o'clock Rev. W. J. Stewart preached an interesting and practical sermon from Psalms I. 7 and 12v., "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." At the close of the service five candidates were baptized, making 29, new members received into the church during the year. In the afternoon the pastor reviewed the Sunday school, and in the evening he preached a sermon on Foreign Missions.

An offering was made for missions and the service closed with a prayer meeting.

AT PORTLAND METHODIST church the choir rendered special music and the altar platform was beautifully decorated with flowers and plants.

IN THE CATHEDRAL

of the Immaculate Conception the altars were prettily decorated with flowers. Masses were said at the usual hours, 7 and 9 o'clock. Grand pontifical mass was celebrated at 11 o'clock by his lordship the Bishop of St. John, with Rev. T. Casey as assistant priest, Rev. Chancellor Walsh, deacon, and Rev. F. J. McMurray, sub deacon. The choir sang Farmer's Mass in B. While his lordship was robing they sang Gaudeamus, by A. Diabelli, and at the offertory Lombiotto's Regina Cœli. Prof. White with his violin assisted the organist. After the first gospel Rev. T. Casey ascended the pulpit and preached the sermon of the day. In the afternoon at 3.15 o'clock solemn pontifical vespers was sung by his lordship Bishop Sweeny and the clergy.

AT ST. PETER'S CHURCH

the earlier morning masses were very largely attended. At the high mass, commencing at 10.30 a. m., very Rev. Father Hayden, the rector of the community, was the celebrant, Fathers Borgman and Wynne being deacon and sub deacon respectively. The always excellent choir surpassed any of their previous efforts by the artistic presentation of Farmer's Mass in B. flat. The soloists, Misses A. Tomney, E. Morgan, J. Doherty and Messrs. H Campbell and C. J. Tomney, were in fine voice.

Farewell to Mr. Finlay.

A number of friends of Mr. Andrew Finlay entertained him at dinner at the Union Club on Saturday night. Mr. A. W. Adams presided, having on his right the guest of the evening, while Mr. R. R. Ritchie filled the vice chair. After dinner Mr. Finlay's health was proposed and many of those present referred in most flattering terms to the pleasure of their past associations with Mr. Finlay and their regret at his early departure from the city. Mr. Finlay made an appropriate and feeling reply. At the close of the proceedings he was presented with a travelling companion, and an instantaneous photograph of the assembled diners was taken as a souvenir of the occasion.

A large number of Mr. Finlay's friends attended at the station last evening to say good by to him on the eve of his departure for Texas.

Want Co-operation.

The secretory of the board of trade received this morning a communication from Mr. N. Levasseur, secretary of the board of trade of Quebec on a matter which is set forth as being of importance to the trade of the Dominion and especially to the dry goods trade. The communication explains as follows:—As it is now the federal government is exacting duties—ad valorum—on articles which are of no commercial value, such as samples of goods sent from England and elsewhere, and consisting of small pieces of cloth, linen and woolen goods. The council of the Quebec board desires to know if the St. John board would be willing to support them in securing the abolition of the custom duties levied upon such articles as being unwarranted and unjust.

SURVEY ON THE GENESTA.—The portwardens held a survey Saturday on the schooner Genesta, on Wilson & McLaughlan's blocks, Carleton. They found the oakum working out of the butts, gripe gone and forward part of shoe broomed up.

They recommended that butts, wood ends, garbard and waterways be recaulked; that the seams be carefully examined and caulked where necessary; that a new gripe be put on, and the shoe repaired and all other damage made good.

They estimate the vessel to be worth $4,000 as she now lies with her tackle and apparel.

Sir,—Your paper has always been in favor of harbor works; you always believed in getting ready and not waiting,—will you please tell me:—

1st. Will this new bill at Fredericton make Mr. Leary free of taxes and of rent, or will he pay it forever just like the rest of us?

2nd. If it turns out to be a mighty good bargain for Mr. Leary, can the city force him to give it up any time within five years? If it turns out a bad bargain and the C. P. Railway make their terminus at Halifax, can Mr. Leary force the city to take it off his hands?

3rd. Will Mr. Leary make a deposit of $10,000 to $20,000 on signing the contract, to guarantee the carrying out of the work?

4th. What taxes will we have to pay if the council board of works should spend $300,000 in wharves, etc. at Carleton, and what rent would we get back?

Prince ward and Wellington ward are deeply interested in these harbor improvements, as it will give all of us more work and more trade; but we want to get it done in the cheapest way possible. It looks as if the Leary scheme was a cheap way to get it done.

Yours faithfully,

PRINCE WARD VOTER.

St. John, March 30.
