A FAMOUS MAN!

What His Researches Have Done for the World.

DR. CHASE.

All successful and distinguished men have their imitators, and Dr. Chase, the well-known author of Chase's Recipe Book, proved no exception to the rule. Dr. Chase's discoveries have many pretended rivals, but no equals. Long scientific researches produced Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Chase's Ointment, the first a certain cure for all kidney, liver, stomach, bladder and rheumatic troubles; the latter an absolute specific for chronic and offensive skin diseases. Among his other discoveries were Chase's Catarrh Cure and Chase's Linseed and Turpentine for colds and bronchitis.

During 1895 the Canadian manufacturers, Edmanson, Bates & Co., 45 Lombard street, Toronto, gave away free 500,000 samples of Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and 100,000 samples of Chase's Ointment. The return they brought proved how much they were appreciated. The same free distribution of samples will be continued during 1896. Those at a distance should enclose a 5-cent stamp and also receive a sheet of the latest music in return.

ATHLETICS.

KILLED AT A FIGHT.

New York, Jan. 7.—Henry Rodriguez, 20 years old, of No. 2,233 Second avenue, died at midnight last night from injuries supposed to have been received at a prize fight, which is alleged to have taken place at One Hundred and Sixteenth street and East River. Thomas Russell, 26 years old, of No. 2,037 Third avenue, the supposed referee, has been arrested by the police. The police are looking for three men who carried Rodriguez to his home. The fight was for a purse of $20.

The Very Latest.

A Most Extraordinary Condition of Affairs.

The Indignity Meted Out to Lord Aberdeen.

Probability That Premier Bowell Will Resign Today.

Our own correspondent telegraphing this (Tuesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock says: "Nothing came of the conference last evening between Messrs. Foster, Tupper, Bowell and Daly except perhaps to declare the proposed caucus of the party called for today off and agree to meet again. Things are in no shape to fling on the floor of the caucus. Heads might be smashed in the present state of feeling. That feeling is high. One section are denouncing the black treachery of the malcontents; the other section, the insane folly of the Premier, as they call it. Sir Mackenzie Bowell cannot take these men back, and they will not come back anyway. Nothing is left except Sir Mackenzie Bowell's resignation, because the wreckers did not undertake to wreck and make a poor job of it. It is as impossible for the Premier to fill their places and go on with the session as it is for him to fly. The malcontents are determined to prevent a session with a Remedial Bill, and they could defeat the Ministry on a motion to adjourn if necessary. A sesssion without a Remedial Bill is equally impossible, so that whether Bowell resigns or whether a new Premier takes hold, dissolution is inevitable. If Laurier is sent for he, of course, would make a dissolution.

The position the Cabinet have placed his Excellency in is most embarrassing. They advised him to deliver the speech from the Throne and then combined to prevent Parliament adopting the address in reply. Such an indignity of the Crown is unparalleled in British history and Lord Aberdeen must resent it.

The prospect is that the Premier will resign before night, and that his Excellency will send for a new adviser.

The Citizen demands Bowell's resignation.

It is again rumored that Daly has resigned.

Laurier, Cartwright, Mills and Davies are here.

• • • •

The following significant statement is from the Ottawa dispatch of the Montreal Star: "The most enthusiastic supporters of the Government today see little prospect now of the Administration being able to weather the storm. It will be wrecked on account of internal dissensions in the Cabinet, and that friends and foes call the policy of drift and do nothing, which has characterized the reign of the present Government. The worst political enemies that Premier Bowell has had sat alongside him in the Cabinet, and, instead of ruling with a firm hand, he allowed those who were opposed to him to still further extend their influence against him."

• • • •

The Winnipeg correspondent of the Toronto Star says: "The proposed reconstruction of the Federal Government with Sir Charles Tupper as Premier has created no enthusiasm here. It is too plainly apparent that it is a mere make-shift. There appears but one mode of reconstructing the Conservative party, and that is by a term of opposition."

Premier Bowell Reported to Have Resigned That Tupper May Get In.

Great Excitement in the House of Commons This Afternoon.

(Special from Our Own Correspondent.)

Ottawa, Jan. 7.—Hon. Mr. Montague has stated that he will this afternoon in the House charge Clarke Wallace with being the author of anonymous letters against Sir Adolphe Caron, and of being the one who gave them to the press.

It is rumored that Premier Bowell has resigned, and that the elder Tupper is to come in.

Excitement is intense and crowds are gathering round the House of Commons.

ELOPED WITH A LASSIE.

He Blew the Horn in the Salvation Army—Deserts His Wife for a Young Domestic.

Paris, Jan. 7.—The Review says: Tom Pearson, commonly spoken of as the laziest man in town, made a quiet move that has set the gossips talking. Tom blew the horn in the Salvation Army, and, it is said, has fallen a victim to the wiles of Ethel Robinson, a damsel who unworthily wore a poke bonnet and an army dress. Ethel has seen probably 21 new years, while Pearson has braved the storms of over 50 summers, and has reared a family who are a credit to any father. Ethel is not overly good-looking, and if her face is her fortune there is a balance on the wrong side of the ledger.

But she practiced the wiles of an artful woman on Pearson, and he, poor man, was won over from the love of a faithful and hardworking wife, and in company with the Robinson girl, fled the town.

For eighteen years Pearson had been a resident of Paris; Miss Robinson has earned a living here as a domestic for about three years. She was at one time a member of the Salvation Ladies' Band, playing a cornet with the same ability as she played with Pearson's heart strings.

The couple took a train from Galt.

Nomination for the Bye-Election This Afternoon.

(Special to the "Advertiser.")

Goderich, Jan. 7—3 p.m.—The nomination of candidates to contest the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hon. Mr. Paterson took place this afternoon.

Newman, the P. P. A. candidate, withdrew at the eleventh hour in favor of Weismiller, Conservative.

The candidates nominated were M. C. Cameron (Liberal) and Weismiller (Conservative).

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—Judge Edward Elliott, Warden Leitch, County Clerk Robson and High Constable Schram are auditing county constables accounts for the quarter ending Dec. 31.

—James H. Hodgins, deputy reeve of 1895, was elected reeve of London township yesterday over Peter Elson, who served as reeve last year. His majority was 45.

—The public schools reopened yesterday, with the exception of the classes occupying rooms used for election purposes. Today these rooms opened also with a good attendance.

—At the last regular meeting of Branch No. 4, Federated Association of Letter Carriers, the following officers were elected for the year: President, R. Walsh; vice-president, Jas. Cushing; financial secretary, P. Phillips; treasurer, M. O'Meara; recording secretary, W. R. Pate.

—A meeting was held in Jones' Hall last night, at which speeches were delivered by Reeve Saunby, Deputy Reeve Moore, and Councilors Hamilton, Duff and Collins—the successful candidates in yesterday's election. The meeting was largely attended and very orderly throughout.

—Mr. James Kilgour, of Dundas street, has received notice of the death in Bay City, Mich., of Mr. Wm. Strathdee, aged 79 years. The deceased was for many years a well-known resident of this city, and a member of St. Andrew's Church. On the death of his wife in January, 1890, Mr. Strathdee moved to Bay City, where he has since lived with a married daughter. He leaves two sons—A. C., of the Grand Trunk Railway, Brantford, and John, of Hamilton.

—Harry, the 5-year-old son of Mr. M. R. Brown, cheese manufacturer, of Appin, was out riding on bobsleighs the othe day in company with several other boys of his own age. He endeavored to get on a slowly moving sleigh on which was loaded a large sawlog, but he missed his hold and fell under the runner. The driver noticed the accident and brought his horses to a standstill before the sleigh had passed over Brown's body. The child was picked up for dead and removed home, where it was found that several ribs were broken at the spinal column, and that severe internal injuries had been sustained. But slight hopes are entertained for the boy's recovery.

THE WESTMINSTER ELECTIONS.

The majority of the Westminster elections were by acclamation. In two wards (two and three) there was a contest for councilmen. In ward 2 the fight was three-cornered, and John McDougall was elected by a majority of 33 over Wm. H. Beattie and Robert Nichol. In ward 3 David Nichol had a majority of 65 over Henry Wickerson. Mr. McDougall's victory is a source of great satisfaction to his many friends.

A WEALTHY M. P. DEAD.

London, Jan. 7.—Sir Julian Goldsmid, Member of Parliament for the south division of St. Pancras, died this morning at Brighton, where he had been ill for several weeks. He was 58 years old and one of the wealthiest, most charitable and best-known Jews in England.
