TROOPS CALLED OUT.

Three Thousand Members of the National Guard on Brooklyn Streets.

The Strikers Incensed at the Action—The Company Succeed in Running Cars.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Jan. 19.—The leaders of the railroad strike last night received information that Mayor Schieren would call out the troops. They decided as a retaliatory step to cause a general strike on all the railroads in Brooklyn.

SOLDIERS CALLED OUT.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Jan. 19.—At 7 o'clock this morning nearly 3,000 soldiers of the National Guard were under arms in this city. The first precinct was covered by the military, who occupied the depot of the Atlantic avenue line at Ninth avenue and Twentieth street. The soldiers were hissed and jeered at. Pickets were stationed at various corners.

The strikers and their sympathizers are loud in denouncing the city authorities for ordering out the troops. About the Fifth avenue depot the strikers gathered around their headquarters, Centennial Hall, and watched the military officers place out their pickets in silence. All the local assemblies, the strikers say, where the motormen and conductors are out, will hold meetings today to take action regarding the present situation. They claim that the action of the city authorities in ordering out the troops was unnecessary, as they expect to win the struggle without resorting to violence for the reason that the companies cannot procure new men to take their places.

The members of the militia freely expressed their disgust over the situation, and more than one declared his intention of resigning from the National Guard.

Twenty-five non-union men were sent out of the depot in the mail car under police protection, and it is said they were going to the Bergin street depot, where the company hopes to begin operating for the first time today.

President Norton telephoned to Inspector McKelvey this morning that he would begin running cars on the Seventh and Ninth avenues and Bergen street lines today.

The mobilization of the troops was effected in a way that demonstrated the effectiveness of the National Guards. At 8:30 a.m. the Bergen street line was opened. The Court street and Flat Bush avenue cars were started without trouble. There was no indication up to 9 o'clock of any trouble at any of the trolley depots. The strikers seemed to realize that the troops meant business. At 9 o'clock 30 cars were running on the Halsey street line. The full complement is 54 cars. Cars were in operation on all the lines that were open yesterday, and the Bergin street line was added to the list early today.

The action of the mayor in calling out the troops was denounced, and the men resolved to stay out six months if necessary.

Political Points.

The annual meeting of the West Huron Liberal-Conservative Association was held Friday at Clinton. Officers were elected, and a resolution passed indorsing Mr. J. C. Patterson, Minister of Militia, as their candidate.

The Vigilant could beat the Valkyrie, but not the Britannia. No competitor could beat Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

Rev. H. P. Welton, of the House of Hope Church, Detroit, who was recently ordained in the Baptist ministry, has accepted a call to become pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church, Toronto, and will leave for his new charge Feb. 1.

A number of notable people from a distance will attend the cricketers' ball in Toronto next Thursday evening. In addition to Lord Ava, there will be Sir Roderick and the Misses Cameron, of New York, and Mr. and Misses George Gould.

LONDON WEST WINS

Its Suit Against the Guarantee Company.

The Jury Disagreed in the Vaughan vs. McClary Case—Another Suit for Damages

Friday Afternoon.

The disposal of cases on the docket is proceeding very satisfactorily, and the whole list will probably be cleared off by Thursday. The jury cases have occupied the whole week, and now only one remains. The non-jury suits will occupy a short time compared with those where juries have to be sworn in and three addresses given. There are thirteen altogether. The will case of Hindmarsh vs. Comfort will likely give rise to a big fight, and some interesting developments are expected.

THE JURY DISAGREED.

The jury in the case of Vaughan vs. McClary retired about 1 o'clock. They returned some two hours later and wanted further information as to the instructions given by Mr. Hussey (foreman in McClary's) to young Vaughan when the latter started on the press. They deliberated in the case for almost three hours more, and then reported a disagreement. Eleven favored a verdict for the plaintiff while one held out for the company. The case will come up at the next assizes.

THE VILLAGE WINS.

The case of London West against the London Guarantee Company was also heard. In June, 1890, shortly after John M. Lord was appointed collector of the village, Squire Lacey (then reeve) applied to the guarantee company for a bond on the collector. It was granted, the sum being $1,000. When Lord left last summer and took up his residence in Detroit, the corporation asked the company to pay the bond, but it was refused. Investigation into Lord's books spurred the village on to shove their claim, as it is alleged a shortage of about $2,000 has been found. The suit resulted.

The plaintiffs proved that, according to the books, Lord had received some $1,800 after Jan. 16, 1894, and that the balance due the village after crediting Lord with all payments was $1,540. Ex-Treasurer Nicholls and Treasurer Rockett also showed that no part of this sum had been paid to either of them.

Mr. Riddle, for the defense, endeavored to show that in the applications for a policy misrepresentations as to the system of doing the village business were made by the reeve, Mr. Lacey. Two applications had been made by the village. The first was returned on account of an unsatisfactory answer.

THE ANSWERS WERE TRUE.

Judge Meredith submitted a series of questions relative to Squire Lacey's answers. It was found they were correct, and a verdict was given for the plaintiffs. Judge Meredith offered the defense the privilege of referring to the local master (if they desired) to fix the amount to which the village was entitled. As the alleged defalcation is said to be very much in excess of the policy, the village feels certain they will recover the $1,000.

A WILL CASE SETTLED.

The will suit of McCorquodale vs. McKenzie, the parties in which belong to Ingersoll, has been settled. The deceased was a bachelor and lived with his brother-in-law. No charge was made to him for board or other care, as it was expected the old man would will his property to his nephew—the brother-in-law's son. However, the money was all willed to other relatives, and then suit was brought for pay for years of board and care.

The settlement was for $1,000 without costs.

Saturday Morning.

At the assizes this morning Mary Ann Stilson, of Komoka, brought action for damages against County Constable John Edwards, of this city. Early last spring Mrs. Stilson was fined $60 or a term in jail for selling liquor without a license and was given time to pay. The time elapsed and as the fine was not paid. Edwards went to Komoka on April 2, placed the plaintiff under arrest and brought her to London. The fine was subsequently paid. Mrs. Stilson asks that the $60 be refunded and that she be allowed damages for assault and injuries sustained by exposure to the cold.

The case is in progress.

—Mrs. E. B. Smith, city, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Hay, Toronto.

—The adjourned annual meeting of the Victoria (Masonic) Club was held on Thursday evening. The president, W. Bro. A. B. Greer, presided, and the attendance was good. The following officers were elected: Honorary president, W. Bro. A. B. Greer; president, R. W. Bro. A. B. Munson; vice-president, Bro. L. W. Burke; Sec.-Treas., Bro. W. White; executive committee, R. D. Macdonald (chairman), J. W. McIntosh, C. E. Keene, Thos. Jones and Oliver Ellwood. The annual report showed a very satisfactory financial standing. A few members were in arrears, and if they fail to settle before Feb. 15 they will be stricken from the roll.

Opening Council Ceremony.

On Monday morning at 11 o'clock the first meeting of the new council will be held with fitting ceremony. Nearly all the members, including the mayor, have taken the requisite oath. Although there is no hard and fast rule established by precedent in the matter of handing over the civic leadership, the retiring mayor generally takes the chair until the council convenes. Then, without a word, he rises, and, taking the hand of his successor, leads him up to the seat on the dais. It is optional with the retiring mayor to make a speech. The new mayor's inaugural follows, and the interesting ceremony of "striking" committees then occurs. It is customary to open the meeting with prayer, the officiating clergyman being chosen by the mayor, and usually is of the same denomination. The ceremony attracts a large crowd to the city hall as a rule.

A New Mission.

Dedicatory services will be held tomorrow at the new Methodist Mission adjoining the Port Stanley track on Hill street. The mission, which has existed for six years on South street, is in a very flourishing condition, and has the names of over 200 children on the Sabbath school ro
