Poetry.

UNDEVELOPED GOOD.

To John Newman.

Thoughts to let every human heart
Some not completely barren part.
Where seeds of truth and love might grow,
And fruits of generous virtue blow;
To plant, to watch, to water there—
This, is our duty, be our care!

Has thou o'er seen a garden clad
In all the robes that Eden had—
Or vale o'er spread with streams and trees,
A paradise of mysteries—
Plains with green hills adorning them,
Like jewels in a diadem?

These gardens, vales, and plains and hills,
Which beauty gilds and music fills,
Were once but deserts;—culture's hand
Has scattered verdure o'er the land,
And smiles and fragrance rule serene,
Where barren wilds usurped the scene.

And such is man. A soil which breeds
Or sweetest flowers, or yillest weeds;
Flowers lovely as the morning's light,
Weeds deadly as the aconite;
Just as his heart is trained to bear
The poisonous weed, or flow'ret fair.

Thy outcast brother's blackest crime
May, in his Maker's eye sublime,
In spite of all thy pride, be less
Than o'en thy daily waywardness;
Than many a sin and many a stain
Forgotten—and impressed again.

Here is another one of Tennyson's exquisite little lyrics. It is worthy of his pen, and only Tennyson could have written it:—

Sit down, sad soul, and count
The moments flying;
Come—tell the sweet amount
That's lost by sighing.
How many smiles:—a score?
Then laugh and count no more,
For day is dying

Lie down, sad soul, and sleep,
And no more measure
The flight of times nor weep
The loss of leisure;
But here, by this lone stream,
Lie down, with us, and dream
Of starry treasure.

We dream; do thou the same,
We love forever;
We laugh, yet few we shame,
The gentle, never;
Stay, then, till sorrow dies—
Then hope and happy skies
Are thine forever.

VARIETY.

ADVERTISE YOUR BUSINESS.—Do not hide your light under a bushel.—Whatever your occupation or calling may be, if it needs support from the public, advertise it thoroughly and efficiently, in in some shape or another, that will arrest public attention. I freely confess that what success I have had in life may fairly be attributed more to the public press than to nearly all other cases combined. There may possibly be occupations that do not require, and that it did not pay. This is only when advertising is done sparingly and grudgingly. Homoopathic doses of advertising will not pay perhaps—it is like half a portion of of physic—making the patient sick, but effecting nothing. Administer liberally, and the cure will be sure and permanent. Some say they "cannot afford to advertise;" they mistake—they cannot afford not to advertise. In this country, where everybody reads the newspapers, the man must have a thick skull who does not see that these are the cheapest and best mediums through which he can speak to the public, where he is to find his customers. Put on the appearance of business, and generally the reality will follow. The farmer plants his seed, and while he is sleeping his corn and potatoes are growing. So with advertising. While you are sleeping or eating, or conversing with one set of your customers, your advertisement is being read by hundred and thousand of persons who never saw you, not heard of your business, and never would, had it not been for your advertisement appearing in the newspaper. The business men of this country do not, as a general thing, begin to appreciate the advantages of advertising throughly. Occasionally the public are roused at witnessing the success of a Swain, a Brandreth, Townsend, a Genin, or a Root, and express astonishment at the rapidity with which these gentlemen acquire fortunes, not reflecting that the same path is open to all who dare pursue it. But it needs nerve and faith—the former to enable you to launch out thousands on the uncertain waters of the future; the latter to teach you that, after many days, it shall surely return, bringing an hundred or a thousand fold to him who appreciates the advantages of printers ink properly applied.—Pettengill's Reporter.

A GHOST IN LOVE.—A farmer who had lately became a widower was aroused at midnight by the loud barking of his dog. On going to it the animal displayed extreme terror, whereupon the farmer took his gun and proceeded to an inspection. All at once he saw a phantom, clothed in a white sheet, rise behind the hedge. The farmer turned deadly pale, and his limbs shook with dismay. He however contrived to ejaculate "If you come from God, speak; if from the devil, vanish!" "Wretch!" exclaimed the phantom. "I am your deceased wife, come from the grave to warn you not to marry Maria A——to whom you are making love. The only woman to succeed me is Henrietta A——. Marry her oneperseculion and eternal torment shall be your doom!" This strange address from the goblin, instead of dismaying the farmer, restored his courage. He accordingly rushed on the ghastly visiter, and stripping off its sheet, discovered the fair Henrietta B—— herself, looking extremely foolish. It is said that the farmer, admiring the girl's trick, has had the banns published for his marriage with her.—Gateshead (Eng.) Observer.

REVOLUTION IN SHOE MAKING.—A paragraph is going the rounds of the American paper stating, that some Frenchmen have invented a machine for the manufacture of boots and shoes. It is said that the cost of making a fine shoe will be only ten cents, and that of a fine boot but fifteen or twenty cents. The Utica Telegraph says, that the owners are now in Washington, securing a patent for this machine, and it thus speaks of its performance: "The machine is so perfect, that it is only necessary to place in it two pieces of sole and upper leather, and in an incredibly short space of time, it turns out a complete boot or shoe as is finished. We learn that a number of capitalists of this city are negotiating for the purchase of the patent, and that it is their intention, should they succeed in securing it, to purchase the Globe Mill, and to convert them into an extensive boot and shoe manufactory, employing some seven hundred hands. A gentleman in this city, now extensively interested in manufacturing, is in New York negotiating for the purchase of the patent."

CAPOUT IN A TRAP.—It appears that several young Americans who have taken service under the Czar, as physicians, &c., find it easier to get into the Russian trap than out again. It is said that they cannot resign their positions until the close of the war, but they should impart information to the Russian officers of their employers. In the meantime, they have no such restriction upon their liberty in regard to Americans will [illegible] Russian soldiers are those who [illegible]

FRIENDS OF THE CONSUMPTIVE!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE FOR ASTHMA!!

as we are daily convinced from reasons of our Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thomas Watson, (Book Seller,) Toronto, dated the 5th October, 1853.

Sir,—Gratitude compels me to make known to you the extraordinary benefit my aged parent has derived from the use of your Pills. He another was afflicted for upwards of four and twenty years with asthma and spitting of blood, it was quite agony to see her suffer and hear her cough; I have often declared that I would give all I possessed to have cured him; but nothing did any good, and I despaired of ever seeing her well. Some time ago, I thought of trying your Pills; might benefit her, at all events I resolved to give them a trial, which I did; the result was marvellous—by their assistance my mother became better, and after persevering from exertion for nine months, she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health, although seventy five years old.

I remain, Sir, your obliged,

(Signed) THOMAS WESTON.

REMARKABLE CURE OF DROPSY!!

AFTER BEING TAPPED THREE TIMES.

Copy of a Letter from Anthony Smith, Esq., the Elder, New Boston, dated 26th August, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I desire to add my testimony to the value of your Pills, in cases of dropsy. For nine months I suffered the greatest torture with this distressing complaint; was tapped three times, and finally given up by the doctors; having become in appearance as a skeleton, and with no more strength in me than a child just born. It was then that I thought of trying your Pills, and immediately went for a quantity, and commenced using them. The result I can scarcely credit even now, although true it is. After using them for four weeks, I felt much better, and by persevering with them, at the expiration of two months, I was completely cured. I have since enjoyed the best of health.

I am, Sir, yours sincerely,

(Signed) ANTHONY SMITH.

ASTONISHING CURE OF GENERAL DEBILITY AND LIVER COMPLAINT.

Copy of a Letter from James Reeves, of Charlottetown, Prince Edwards Island, dated 17th Nov. 1854.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir—I am happy to say that your Pills have restored me to health after suffering for nine years from the most intense general debility and langour, my liver and bowels were also much deranged for the whole of that time. I tried many medicines, but they were no good to me, until I had recourse to your Pills, by taking which and following the printed directions for seven weeks I was cured, after every other means failed to the astonishment of my neighbours, acquaintances and friends, I shall ever feel grateful to you for this astonishing restoration to health, and will recommend your Pills to all sufferers, feeling it my duty to do so.

I remain Sir, your humble servant,

(Signed) WILLIAM REEVES.
