From Ottawa.

(Special to the Tribune.)

OTTAWA, March 11.

Hon. Mr. Muirhead has been here for some days; leaves to morrow.

He has submitted to Minister of Public Works a scheme for dredging the Bar at mouth of Miramichi River, which meets with Langevin's entire approval.

During last Session Parliament granted a charter to Huburtus and others for an Air Line Railway from Ottawa to Toronto. It is understood the building of the road was contingent upon the construction of the North Shore Railway from Quebec hither; as the latter is now under contract, the charter of the former becomes valuable.

Col. Maude, Senator Frank Smith and other capitalists have been here negotiating with Huburtus for the purchase of it. It is stated they offer him $50,000 and the Secretaryship.

He has not decided to accept, but is off to Montreal to consult Hugh Allan.

Huburtus is the Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto Globe.

British and Foreign.

[By Telegraph to Associated Press.]

The Prince and Princess of Wales departed yesterday for the South of France via Paris, where they will remain three or four days before proceeding South.

The Observer states that Secretary Fish's reply concerning indirect damages has been received, and expresses the desire of the American government for a final amicable settlement of the whole question.

The Observer adds that neither the British nor American governments is in favor of re-opening the proceedings of joint high commission.

Guizeppe Mazzini, at Tirano in the Tyrol, is making preparations for a revolutionary invasion of Italy.

Le Temps says that the authorities of Seville anticipate revolutionary outbreak soon, and measures are taken to suppress any demonstration.

L'Univers asserts that a revolutionary plot was recently discovered in Madrid, and several ringleaders executed.

There was a stormy scene in the Assembly Saturday, and a violent assault on Thiers by Garand, who said he had prevented a Republic or a Monarchy and nothing remained but the Empire and Chaos.

—Some grand dinners have recently been given in Paris by the Duke d'Aumale and M. De Rothschild. In addition to the interest imparted to these entertainments by the rank of the illustrious guests, the unwonted elegance of the toilettes worn, and the splendor of the banquets themselves, there was an innovation inaugurated for them which is worthy of particular notice. This was the addition to the ordinary formula of invitation of the names of the persons who were to be present.
