HE WON BY SIX LENGTHS.

HOW M'LEAN OUTROWED KEMP ON THE PARRAMATTA.

Hanlan's Protege Never Behind and Once Ten Lengths in Front—Time, 22 Minutes and 13 Seconds—Kemp Will Not Visit America—Curling in Mutual-street and Other Rinks.

As predicted by Ned Hanlan McLean had somewhat of a snap with Champion Kemp in the sculling race on the Parramatta on Dec. 15. A Reuterns cable to The Newcastle Chronicle says:

The sculling match between Peter Kemp and McLean over the Parramatta course for £200 a side and the championship was rowed to-day, and resulted in a victory for McLean. The weather was fine and the water smooth. A good start was effected, and a capital race was witnessed for a mile, when McLean, who was favorite at the start, gradually forged ahead, and when a mile and a half had been completed held a clear lead. This advantage he gradually increased to ten lengths, and although Kemp afterwards slightly reduced the gap McLean ultimately won by six lengths. Time, 22 mins. 13 secs. McLean fouled Kemp when nearing the mile post, but the umpire disallowed the claim.

Another cable from Sydney to the same paper, dated Dec. 16, says that Peter Kemp will not proceed to America, and therefore forfeits his deposit in the proposed match with O'Connor. McLean will now take a rest, and will not row again until after April.

On the Thames, Dec. 15, for £80 H. Fallett of Richmond defeated C. R. Harding of Chelsea in a sculling race in the fast time of 22 min. 21 sec., or only 5 sec. slower than Brightwell's record and 19 slower than Neil Matterson's.

FAVORITES SLAUGHTERED.

Repent, Sparling and Other Cracks Bowled Over at Clifton.

CLIFTON, Dec. 29.—The racing here was good to-day. The track was in fair condition and there were few withdrawals. Hydra, the favorite, ran second in the first race, and Fabian, a split favorite, ran second in the next. Vosburg, the other split, running unplaced. Eminence, the favorite in the third race, ran third. In the fifth race Repent, the favorite, and Sparling, the second choice, ran unplaced, and in the closing race Busteed, who divided honors with Jack Rose in public estimation, ran unplaced.

First race, 5 furlongs—Melrose won, Hydra 2, Baltimore 3. Time 1.04¼.

Second race, 6½ furlongs—Meade won, Fabria 2, Cotillion 3. Time 1.25.

Third race, 1⅛ miles—Ebbis won, William Daly Jr. 2, Eminence 3. Time 2.27¼.

Fourth race, 7 furlongs—Mabel Glenn won, Irene 2, Fitzroy 3. Time 1.29.

Fifth race, 1 1-16 miles—Lemon won, Matinee gelding 2, Question 3. Time 1.51.

Sixth race, 1 mile—Jack Rose won, Prince James 2, Basil Duke 3. Time 1.48.

Small Fields at Gloucester.

GLOUCESTER, Dec. 29.—To-day the track was hard and withdrawals numerous. The fields were generally small. Summary:

First race, 6½ furlongs—Souvenir 1, MacGregor 2, Electricity 3. Time 1.36¼.

Second race, 5 furlongs, for 2-year-olds—Barthenia 1, Ketchum 2, Fleetfoot 3. Time 1.07½.

Third race, 7 furlongs—Silent 1, Mackenzie 2, Philander 3. Time 1.33.

Fourth race, 6½ furlongs—Englewood 1, Bohemian 2, Owen Golden 3. Time 1.25¼.

Fifth race, 1 mile—Sallie Harper 1, Quotation 2, Charleston 3. Time 1.46.

Tobogganing.

At last we have our winter weather and can indulge in tobogganing, the King of Canadian sports. This is the recreation that invigorates the system and gives a healthy glow to the complexion. It is always popular with the young folks and justly so, for it is an innocent and amusing recreation. We notice that Messrs. H. P. Davies & Co. have taken charge of the Riverside Slide, and we are sure the patrons will have reason to appreciate their efforts to make things pleasant. 246

The President Wins.

The Caledonian curlers played their annual match of President v. Vice-President in the Mutual-street Rink last night, Dr. Ross' side winning by one shot. One rink failed to respond, so it was decided to conclude the match with those present. The ice was in splendid condition. The members sat down to a good spread in the comfortable club rooms after the contest. The score was:

Fred. Mosson's Hostelry.

There has been a marked change at "Headquarters" since Mr. Fred Mossop took hold of the ribbons. The entire establishment has been redecorated and finished in handsome oiled woods, with plate-glass electric-reflecting mirror bars, which are without a doubt the most brilliant in Canada. The best brands of liquors and cigars are always kept in stock. F. W. Mossop, proprietor. 246

MISCELLANEOUS SPORTS.

Caledonian Curlers to Visit Buffalo—The Legal Hockey Men.

Burns, the English bridge jumper, is coming to America to jump from the Brooklyn bridge, he says, and challenge Steve Brodie.

The well-known stallion Smuggler, one of the first to obtain a record as low as 2.15¼, died in Hornellsville, N.Y., last Saturday.

Dave Bennett and Thomas Humphrey will run a mile on the ice at Alexandra Rink on New Year's eve for $50 a side.

Harry Jackman, a well-known local sport, has opened a billiard room at No. 174 Queen-street east.

Elton Chamberlain is pitching for Buffalo's crack indoor team. Sam Wise, George Meyers and Jack Reidy are also members of the club.

Maine may organize a State league next year. There are to be six clubs "in it," representing Bangor, Portland, Lewiston, Belfast, Rockland and Biddeford.

George Forbes has sent his horses to Gloucester, thinking it easier to win purses there than at Guttenburg. There are good fields there and good horses are necessary to win.—N.Y. Press.

The Caledonian curlers will visit Buffalo next Tuesday to play their annual match with the Caledonians of that city in a four rink contest. The skips selected for the match are Dr. Ross, W. D. McIntosh, W. Christie and D. Prentice.

T. C. Gillespie, the New Brunswick fast skater, gave an exhibition of marvelous speed both forward and backward in the Mutual-street rink last evening. He will be on the ice again to-night.

A Belfast, Ireland, cyclist is at present riding a machine fitted with an extraordinary arrangement of levers connected with the handle bar and cranks, which is worked by the hands. The inventor, strange to say, does not claim that this masterpiece of genius will revolutionize cycling.

Marks, the Buffalo boxer, writes: I see that Paul Pattillo is not satisfied with the last go of six rounds and wishes to arrange another match, in which he agrees to stop me in four rounds. I will meet him on Saturday, Jan. 3, and will try hard to prevent him from stopping me in four rounds, which he could not do in six rounds at our last go.

With Downer and Bates as pitchers, Upton and Corbett catchers, and such material as Trafford, Frothingham, Dein, Soule, Mason, Alward, Mackie, Dickinson and Howe to choose from, Harvard ought to make a strong showing in baseball. Clarkson of Boston will coach the pitchers.

Johnnie Ward has not yet signed with any club for '91, and not likely to for some time. Johnnie is very desirous of becoming a full fledged magnate, and wants supreme control of the club that he goes into. He thinks he has been working for magnates long enough to become one himself.—N. Y. Press.

Jack Fitzgerald, who styles himself champion featherweight of Canada, writes from Cornwall: I hereby challenge Paul Pattillo to a six-round glove contest in the Olympic Hall, Toronto, Marquis of Queensberry rules, on Saturday evening, Jan. 10, for the gate receipts. I wish to hear from Mr. Pattillo at an early date.

"Buck" Ewing thinks the make-up of the New York Club for next season will be Brown, Clark and himself as catchers; Keefe, Welch, Rusie, Sharrott and his brother, "Long" John Ewing, as pitchers; infielders, Connor, Richardson, Glasscock and Denny; and Tiernan, Gore, O'Rourke and Slattery as outfielders.

The Toronto turfmen who attended the Belmont sale have returned and naturally expressed surprise at the low figure Potomac went for. He has few engagements, but it is safe to predict that before the close of the season of '91 he will have earned for his new owner the price of himself twice over. In Strathmeath and Bolero he will have worthy opponents for the Realization, but if performances go for anything, if fit and well, he should be first past the wire for that stake.

Captain M. J. Kelly has organized an indoor baseball club to play between Boston and Chicago. He has engaged the following players: Edward Crane, Morgan Murphy, Tom Brown, Harry Stowe, Arthur Irwin, Arlie Latham, Con Dailey, Tom McCarthy, Paul Radford and John Irwin. John B. Day has engaged Madison Square Garden, New York, and Kelly's nine will play there against a team organized from the professionals in that city.

A meeting of the committee of the Osgoode Hall Hockey Club was held yesterday. The president, Mr. William Creelman, has succeeded in procuring the Caledonian Rink, Mutual-street, for four nights a week for practising purposes. The necessary qualifications for admission to this club are a connection with the legal profession and a receipt for $1 from the treasurer, Mr. John Thomson of McCarthy & Co. To this officer those desirous of becoming members are referred.

On his return from the East A. G. Spalding said to a newspaper man: "In Boston the League people were opposed to the introduction of a second club. They claim with good precedents that two professional clubs could not be made to pay. When I pointed how, with the many popular players, two teams working on a friendly basis ought to receive good support, the objections first formed were partially removed. Prince is quite willing to compromise by being given an association franchise, and I rather think that may be done. Under such circumstances I could not very well oppose an association club. It is possible that the Wagners may secure a franchise. The League circuit will not be changed. Cincinnati will be a member. Not a player unreserved has been signed, nor even approached. It cannot be done until the conference committee gives the word."

DEATH FROM PERITONITIS.

The Jury's Verdict in the Scarlett Case—Mr. Douglas Discharged.

Coroner Johnson concluded the Scarlett inquest last night. Drs. Oldright and Spencer, who conducted the post mortem, were the only witnesses and they gave evidence to the effect that the deceased's death resulted from peritonitis, but could not definitely assign any particular cause.

In charging the jury the coroner spoke strongly in favor of Mr. Douglas, leaning to the view that there was no evidence whatever to show that he was at all concerned in the death of Scarlett.

The jury brought in a verdict of death from peritonitis, practically leaving the cause of the fatality a conjecture.

Mr. Douglas was thereupon discharged, so far as the coroner's inquest is concerned, but he will have to appear before the Police Magistrate on Monday next to be discharged from the $8000 bonds under which he is at present.

A Classical Association Formed.

Some time ago a circular was sent to the teachers of classics throughout the province with a view to forming a classical association. In response to the circular a large number of teachers met yesterday in the biological department of Toronto University and proceeded with the work of organization, electing the following officers: Honorary president, Prof. Goldwin Smith; president, Prof. Hutton, Toronto University; vice-president, Prof. Fletcher, Queen's; secretary-treasurer, William Dale, M.A., Toronto; committee, Prof. Lloyd, Trinity; Prof. Bell, Victoria; Prof. Nicholson, Queen's; J. E. Hodgson, M.A., high school inspector; J. Henderson, M.A., St. Catharines C.I.; H. R. Fairclough, M.A., Toronto; A. Carruthers, M.A., Parkdale C.I.; J. C. Robertson, B.A., Owen Sound.

Mr. J. Waugh, B.A., read a pointed paper on "The Position of Classics in the High School Course," arguing for a greater amount of attention for the subject in the early stages of education and a more appreciative system of instruction. A considerable number took part in the subsequent discussion.

The session will conclude to-day.

The Entertainment at St. Patrick's.

The friends of St. Patrick's Church crowded to the doors of the hall in McCaul-street last night to witness the play founded upon scenes of the Nativity. The presentation of the different characters was excellent and reflected much credit on those who took part. Special praise must be given to Master S. O'Brien for the manner in which he took the character of King Herod, and to Miss L. Hamilton for the recitation "A Christmas Legend." The proceeds which amounted to a handsome sum, were devoted to the building fund of the church.

4,000,000 Miles.

In the life of 70 years the blood travels 4,000,000 miles. If impure and unhealthy it carries disease with it. Purify your blood with B.B.B.

I was up night and day with a bad arm, and could find no cure from Doctors' medicine, so I took two bottles of B.B.B., which cured me.

MISS GERTIE CRUNCH, Aylmer, Ont.

The City Swarms with Begging Impostors.

At the meeting of the Associated Charities yesterday many tales were told of rank imposition on the part of young and old beggars from door to door and on the streets. They have been reaping a rich harvest this Christmas time. The outcome of the discussion was that the chairman, Professor Goldwin Smith, consented to write a letter to the Toronto newspapers cautioning the public against this persistent and increasing class.

Mother and Babe.

GENTLEMEN,—I have used Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam for a bad cough, and was cured by one bottle. My babe, only two months old, also had a cold and cough, and on giving him some it helped him very much.

MRS. E. J. GOADIER, Florence, Ont.

Much distress and sickness in children is caused by worms. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator gives relief by removing the cause. Give it a trial and be convinced.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

An Elegant Performance of "My Jack"—Rose Coghlan at the Grand—Lester & Williams' Attraction.

The powerful realistic drama "My Jack" was produced for the first time at the Academy last night before an appreciative audience. The fortunes of the hero, Jack Meredith, were many and varied, and afforded an opportunity of introducing some remarkably fine scenery. The beach at Falmouth, with the cliffs towering above, and the raging thunder storm produced a fine scenic effect.

Walter Sanford as Jack Meredith and Edgar Forrest as Charles Prescott made an excellent impression, while Charles Frew as Patrick Doolan of H.M. gunboat Sea Gull caused roars of laughter.

The play will be repeated to-night, to-morrow and New Year's night, with matinees Wednesday and Thursday afternoons.

The Rose as "Peg Woffington."

Rose Coghlan appeared in her own version of Charles Reade's four-act comedy "Peg Woffington" last night at the Grand and attracted a large and fashionable audience. Miss Coghlan appeared in the title role and the applause and recalls during the evening show her continued popularity with Toronto theatre-goers. Her support was individually first-class. The magnificent costumes worn by the company charmed the ladies present. A feature of the play was the graceful dancing of the minuet in the first act.

An unexpected treat was the violin solos of Mr. Thomas Whiffin in the character of Triplet, the penurious playwright, who with the star was compelled to appear before the curtain at the end of the third act.

The piece was well staged and ran perfectly smooth throughout with scarcely any waits between the acts.

"Peg Woffington" will be given to-night and to-morrow night and New Year's matinee. On Thursday night "London Assurance" will be given, and on Friday night, Saturday matinee and Saturday night Charles Coghlan's latest comedy, "Lady Barter."

Variety at Jacobs & Sparrow's.

Lester & Williams' London Gaiety and Novelty Company attracted a full house at Jacobs & Sparrow's last night, where a capital variety performance was given. A burlesque hit, "Me and Jack," opened the program and showed a bevy of good-looking girls with shapely limbs and pleasing voices. West and Gallagher, as "Me and Jack," were two choice tramps.

After the burlesque came Annie Queen and Sid Austin, in a clever boxing bout in which the buxom girl had decidedly the best of it. "The great, the only Engelhart" and Louise Blanchard gave a finished exhibition with the foils, showing that the members of the gentler sex thoroughly understand the art of fencing. The familiar and popular Polly McDonald, Lester and Williams, Burke and Forrest, the Bissett Sisters and Elsie Earle, Estrella Sylvia, Gallagher and West, and Lew Carroll gave their specialties and concluded a capital entertainment.

Miss Engelhart's standing challenge to present any swordsman with $25 whom she fails to defeat was accepted by Prof. Reid, the well-known local fencer, and the contest will come off to-night at the Toronto.

At the Musee.

Robinson's musee theatre has an unusually good list of attractions this week. Miss Mattie Lee Price of Georgia, who is called the human magnet, gives some wonderful exhibitions. By some means she lifts apparently with ease a large chair on which are seated three heavy men, and does other similarly difficult feats. A genuine Tyrolean band give some of their native music. In the theatre the greatest curiosity is the troupe of Imperial Japanese, who perform some new and original feats. One is very clever balancing an open parasol. The program concludes with the performances of T. J. Hefron, a very amusing one-legged song and dance man.

Other Amusement Matters.

To-morrow evening Miss Coghlan will recite "The Charge of the Light Brigade."

Cora Tanner, in her romantic drama, "The Refugee's Daughter," will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House next week. "The Refugee's Daughter" is said to give Miss Tanner the opportunity of her professional career and that she accepts the gauge most fascinatingly. Her portrayal of Helene is a powerful, accomplished and finished representation.

The concert to be given on New Year's evening in Association Hall, will doubtless attract a large audience. The program promises contributions from the best of Toronto's talent, and will embrace elocution and vocal and instrumental music. Miss Jessie Alexander and Mr. Grenville P. Kleiser, elocutionists, will give solos on Monday. Mrs. J. W. Bradley, H. M. Blight and Harold Jarvis are secured as singers; and in addition we may add that W. J. McKendry, cornet soloist, has been engaged.

A Government Defeat in the Mock Parliament.

A stormy session of the Young Conservatives was held in Temperance Hall last evening. G. W. Bruce was moved to the chair and J. A. Oliver acted as secretary. The debate on the Chinese question was resumed, and after some animated discussion the bill, upon motion of Mr. Jennings, was given the six months' hoist. E. Cross, acting leader of the opposition, in a masterly speech then arraigned the Government for incompetence and criminal neglect of duty, and moved that it no longer possesses the confidence of this society. Notwithstanding the vigorous attempt of the Government to defend itself the motion was carried by an overwhelming majority. J. Castell Hopkins, leader of the Opposition, will be called upon at the next meeting of the society to form a Ministry.

The Ladies Held a Fancy Fair.

Brockton Town Hall yesterday presented a pretty sight. The ladies of St. Helen's Catholic Church opened their biennial sale of useful and fancy work and devotional accessories. The object, which from yesterday's auguries will doubtless be attained, was to raise $800 in liquidation of the seven debt on their parish church. Two well-stocked tables were in the charge of the ladies of the Altar Society, the others in charge of the ladies of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin. Brisk was the business which these ladies transacted: Mrs. John Lappin; Miss Esther Lappin, Miss Rahilly. Busy too, were Mrs. Daly and Miss Mary Woods at the refreshment stall. Dean McCann and Father McPhillips were present afternoon and evening and enjoyed as much as the youngsters the fun of the fishing pond and "the old woman in her shoe." The fair will continue the rest of the week and there will be vocal and instrumental music each evening.

Sir Joseph's Successor.

[From The Montreal Gazette.]

Mr. Seargeant's services to the company have already been many and important. Trained in England, where he was connected with prominent railways, such as the Great Western, he came to Canada in 1874, bringing with him evidences of the highest consideration and friendship from the companies with which he had been.

Mr. Seargeant was, we believe, the first appointed traffic manager on this continent; he also holds the position of vice-president of the Chicago & Grand Trunk Company, and that of director of several companies affiliated with the Grand Trunk. He has ably represented the interests of the Grand Trunk in the trunk line executive and has made a special study of the problems of interstate and competitive traffic. Mr. Seargeant brings, therefore, to the discharge of the more responsible duties of general manager a full knowledge of the business of the country and an intimate acquaintance with the company's affairs.

Mr. John Porteous is named as the probable successor of Mr. Seargeant, promoted to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Sir Joseph Hickson. Mr. Porteous is now with the Central Vermont, but was an old employe of the G.T.R.

Dr. Winnett Heard From.

A letter was received in the city yesterday from Dr. Fred. Winnett, dated Berlin, Dec. 14. The Doctor went over to study the effects of Koch's cure and so far appears to be highly satisfied. He says that speaking generally the remedy is all that Koch has claimed. He will contribute an interesting letter on his observations of the effects of the lymph in the next Practitioner.

Elopers Caught.

THREE RIVERS, Que., Dec. 29.—A lady, the daughter of a well-known citizen here, eloped with the son of a lawyer. They went to Montreal last night and were found at a hotel there. Detective McMahon brought them back and they will shortly be married.

This enterprising firm deserves great credit; it has been asserted by one of the older members of the trade that their show surpasses any previous show that has been in St. Lawrence Market for many years. Their Beef although heavy is profitable to the consumer as well as to themselves. It has been the study of this firm to procure the best the market can produce regardless of cost. Trusting their patrons will patronize them in the coming year as they have done in the past.
