Arguments re:

Considering so obsolete a thing as handles on names when there are more than a million people clamouring for work . . . breeds more Communism than a 1000 Russian Internationales Imagine any national leader talking about gilding names with gold leaf at such a time
as this.

With 1,500,000 victims of unemployment, which he promised to end, looking on, it is titles
he is interested in.

Times says only alternative to honours is money.

Apparently no thought of service.
