HASZARD'S GAZETTE

Wednesday, August 10, 1853.

The long discussed question as to the representation of the First District of Queen's County is ended for the present—the Sheriff having returned George Beer, Esq., duly elected. We shall hear no doubt of the return being petitioned against and Mr. Beer being turned out, &c., but in the mean time one thing is certain, Mr. Coles is no longer a member of the Legislature. A crisis has, indeed, arrived and we shall now see of what metal he is made. A fair opportunity is now given to us of judging as to whether he is sterling or counterfeit whether he will still pass current though impaired in value, filed and clipped, or whether he is to be nailed to the counter as a rap. Verily his trying hour has come, and whether he can stand the test, a short time will decide. It is not our business to dictate to Mr. Coles nor will we presume to do so, much less will we exult over his fall. Misfortune will ever be sacred to our eyes, and to men of his temperament we can hardly conceive a greater. All depends upon his conduct at this peculiar conjuncture. Conduct, it has been said, is fate, and if so, the Hon. George Coles' fate is in his own hands. A few hours, will, perhaps, enlighten us as to the intention of him who has hitherto styled himself the "Head of the Government."

CHARLOTTETOWN HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The Summer exhibition of Fruits, Vegetables, and Flowers, of this Society came off yesterday at the Temperance Hall, much to the satisfaction of the members of the Society and the public. JOHN LAWSON, Secretary.

The Lieut. Governor has further prorogued the House of Assembly until the 19th day of September.

The Editor of Whelan's Gazette makes some rather personal remarks in his last issue, on our notice of Capt. Rice's appointment. This is a trick which this veritable editor has of evading an argument, and his forte lies in this, rather than his ability to answer it.

On Saturday last, a little boy aged 2½ years, son of Mr. John Stewart of this town, got away from his mother for a short time, when search being made, he was found in a tan pit on the adjoining premises. Medical aid was instantly procured but life was found to be extinct.

MR. DONALD M'PEE has been appointed collector of Land Assessment; under the Education Act, for Charlottetown and Royalty.

THE LONDON CRYSTAL PALACE.—This magnificent building, our readers will recollect was taken down from where it was originally erected at Hyde Park, and has been re-erected at Sydenham, in the suburb of London, and is now being fitted up as a Winter Garden, rivalling in beauty, variety and grandeur, the far famed splendour of the east. A description will be found in our first page.

WARRANTS from No. 56, of the date of 22d February, 1853, to No. 57, of the date of 30th March, 1853, (both inclusive,) will be paid at the Treasury on demand, together with the Interest due thereon.

She brought an American Mail this morning but it contains no news.

At Liverpool, on the 13th July last, Mr. William Hancock, aged 32 years. Mr. Hancock left here on the 12th June in the Brig Yarra Yarra. When passing through the Gut of Canso, in a heavy squall, he was thrown overboard by the main sheet; he was soon, however, picked up by the vessel's boat; and, although much exhausted, by due care, was so recovered that he did not feel any serious injury. The vessel anchored in Ship Harbour for the day, but as Mr. Hancock was much better, she proceeded next day on the voyage. On the third day afterwards, however, he get much worse, and continued in a very weakly state, and a few days after his arrival in Liverpool, he died.

SECOND EDITION of "PINE FORESTS AND HACKMATACK CLEARINGS; OR, TRAVEL, LIFE, AND ADVENTURE in the BRITISH NORTH AMERICAN PROVINCES," by Lieutenant-Colonel Sleigh, C. M., late of her Majesty's 77th Regiment, Richard Bently, New Burlington Street, London.

REVIEWS.

"Colonel Sleigh has had every opportunity of making himself thoroughly acquainted with the scenes he describes. The information he has imparted is varied and extensive. To those who want information on the state of public opinion, many of the author's statements will be as amusing as instructive. As a book of Travels the work possesses great interest. The author misses nothing of interest in his way, and tells his own adventures with considerable humour and force. The description of his crossing Northumberland Straits, and the perils undergone in the "icy passage," is admirably done, and is calculated to make "gentlemen of England who live at home at ease" thank the fates that they live in a country of railroads and bridges. We can recommend Colonel Sleigh as an admirable guide through the Provinces, and whose opinions as to the political evils of the Colonies and their remedies are entitled to great respect."—Daily News, July 5th.

"Colonel Sleigh's adventures are many and amusing. He has seen almost every degree of American society. As the author's opinions are drawn from the experience of ten years passed in every class and in every part of British North America, it may well be supposed that they are well founded and valuable. But knowledge without the power of expressing it is valuable only to the owner. This power however the author possesses in a high degree. He expresses thoughts evidently the result of wide observation and of deep reflection. Colonel Sleigh truly says the system under which the Colonies are governed must contain some principle radically wrong. The opinion of a man of such evident talent and experience must have considerable weight."—Standard, May 28th.

"Colonel Sleigh's work is both instructive and amusing. The whole of the volume will repay perusal with interest, as much from the information it conveys as well as from the general tenour of its observations. It is therefore recommended to public attention as the latest, and perhaps also the most authentic, work upon the Canadian Colonies hitherto published."—Observer, June 5th.

"Colonel Sleigh has claims to be heard on the social and political questions raised in his volume beyond those which can be granted to most writers. We refer therefore to this volume of Travels and Adventure with more than usual confidence,"—Leader, July 2d.

"Colonel Sleigh's title to his work we hardly think does full justice to its contents. There is a considerable mass of historical and other information in it; it is also a volume of Travel, Life, and Adventure, in the British North American Provinces."—Bentley's Miscellany, July.

"Lieutenant-Colonel Sleigh has a good right to be heard about the British North American Provinces. He was born on the shores of the St. Lawrence, and at different periods of his life has resided for a long time in those Provinces. He was quartered as an officer in Nova Scotia, Cape Breton, and Lower Canada, and even as late as the spring of 1852 he crossed the Icy Straits to Prince Edward Island—an expedition of the dangers and difficulties of which he gives a very graphic account. The political institutions, the commercial progress, and the industrial resources of the Colonies engage, however, the largest share of his attention; and upon these subjects his information is copious and accurate. He records also his impressions of the United States, and he does not hesitate to express his clear opinion that it is essential to the cause of freedom on the American continent that the Provinces which are now British should remain so. Yet he regards their retention as next to impossible unless institutions are conferred upon them better suited to their advanced condition than those which they at present enjoy. To do justice to the Colonies, and at the same time to maintain the integrity of the Empire, he proposes a legislative union of all the Provinces; the appointment in England of a separate Secretary and Under Secretary of State, to attend exclusively to the affairs of these Colonies; the establishment of a Regency, to be held by a Prince of the blood royal; the organization of a Provincial Army; and the admission of the French Canadians to suitable honours and dignities; and all his propositions he supports by arguments drawn from experience and from a long acquaintance with the feelings of the Colonists themselves. The book demands an attentive perusal, and the reader who studies it with any care will find himself well repaid."—London Morning Post, July 21st.

ARCHIBALD SCOTT, Esq.

SIR,—As the Agent of various Fire Insurance Companies, I beg to bring under your notice my PATENT ARTIFICIAL SLATE. This composition has been upwards of, three years extensively used in New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island, the Canadas and Nova Scotia, principally for covering shingled roofs, as you will perceive by the accompanying circulars of certificates. It has been severely tested, and proved most successfully its fire proof qualities under most extraordinary circumstances; so much so, that I am of opinion that Fire Insurance Companies should encourage its general application to all kinds of wood building (where the color would be no objection to its being used, such as the back walls of dwellings in the city, out houses, ware-houses, &c., as well as the roofs) by lowering the premium of insurance on such buildings as are covered.

I have the honor to be, sir,,
Your obedient servant,
J. W. ROSS.
Patentee and Manufacturer.

Halifax 14th July, 1853.

SIR,—In answer to your note of the 12th inst. I consider the use of your "Artificial Slate Paint" on shingled Roofs, as greatly diminishing the risk against Fire—I have frequently reduced the premiums on Buildings in the Country, upon its application,

I am, sir, your ob't servant,
ARCH'D. SCOTT.
Insurance Agent.
