Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.,

LOGGIE & BURR's clearing out sale opens to-day.

GREAT FIRE.—Nearly the whole of Eastport, Me., has been destroyed by fire.

DON'T FORGET the agricultural Society's Exhibition and Ploughing match on Dr. Street's (Cunard) farm to-day.

QUADRILLE ASSEMBLY.—The second of the series of Chatham quadrille assemblies is to take place next Tuesday evening.

DR. THOMSON will leave Chatham about 1st Nov. and will be absent for several weeks. Due notice will be given of his return.

MESSRS. MERSEREAU & MORRELL have removed their photographic rooms to the Stothart building, Water Street. Their rooms are now equal to the best in the province.

A HEAVY FIRE took place on Friday morning last at Mr. John Flett's mill yard, Nelson, destroying about 100,000 feet of deals, which, however, were not of very good quality. They were owned by Mr. Wm. Richards and valued at about $750.

ATTEND Loggie & Burr's sale of Dry Goods and save money.

THE ODD-FELLOWS excursion from Fredericton to Chatham yesterday numbered 125. The train arrived in good time. The Fredericton Brass band, numbering over 20 pieces, came with the party and as we go to press, are opening a promenade concert in the Skating Rink.

ST. ANDREWS, CAMPBELLTON.—A high tea, is to be given by the ladies of the above church in Masonic Hall Campbellton, on Tuesday next, on the occasion of the laying of the corner stone of their new church. A programme of vocal and instrumental music is also prepared for the occasion.

REV. MR. WINFIELD of the Reformed Episcopal Church is to visit Miramichi next week. On Monday evening 25th he will deliver his lecture "Experiences in West Africa" at Black Brook School House, commencing at 8 o'clock. He will also hold service in the Reformed Episcopal Church, Chatham on Tuesday evening 26th at 8 o'clock.

WHAT A BLESSING to get your winter goods so cheap these dull times at Loggie & Burr's cheap sale.

WRECKED ON RICHIBUCTO BAR.—The bark "Wacissa," Capt Heyburn, has been driven ashore on Richibucto bar and so badly damaged that she has been condemned. Her keel has been pounded out and the hull is considerably smashed up. The "Wacissa" was bound to Liverpool with a cargo of deals. She is 779 tons register and was built at Richibucto in 1878. Messrs. J & T Jardine, of Kingston, Kent Co., are her owners. It is thought she is uninsured.—Times.

MASONIC.—Mr. E. Lee Street, District Deputy Grand Master, will pay an official visit to Dalhousie Lodge next Monday night. On Tuesday he will proceed to Campbellton where he will lay with masonic honors the corner stone of the new Presbyterian church about to be erected there. The ceremonies of the latter are expected to be very interesting, and will be participated in by delegates from all the lodges in the northern counties.—Advocate.

A NEW PAPER is to be started in St. John. It will be an evening journal of eight pages. Mr. Cooper, late of the Telegraph business department is, we hear, the principal proprietor. Mr. Bowes, late of the same paper is reported to be interested with Mr. Cooper in the venture. The editor will be Mr. C. H. Lugrin, formerly editor of the Telegraph. The new paper's politics will it is said be of the independent class. The office of publication will be the News building, Canterbury Street.

CHOICEST Goods will sell fast at Loggie & Burr's cheap sale, therefore come early and secure your chance.

'THE COURT MUSICIANS,' who appeared at Chatham on Monday evening did not seem to perform as well as might be expected of protegees of royalty. Mr. Pelham seems to have lost his hold on the genius which made his success. Age, indifference, family cares or some other cause have taken the genuine fun out of him, although we have no doubt the combination of which he now forms a part would be quite an addition to a tea-meeting programme. We understand they are not going back to live at Windsor Castle.

AGENTS WANTED.—Clement & Co., of 48 Wellington Street East, Toronto, or 81 St. Francois-Xavier Street, Montreal, want a General Agent. They are the exclusive owners of the Schofield Patent Cake Griddle, the Celebrated Emery Knife Sharpener (known as the "Carver's Friend,") the Emery Scythe Sharpener, the Jay-Bee-See Wire Curry Comb, and other Specialities. If you want to make money, write to them at once for an outfit, and to secure what territory you can handle.

PERSONAL.—The many friends of Mr. J. W. Girvan are glad to welcome him home again to Chatham after his sojourn in the Southern States, where he seems to have fully recovered his health.

Adirondack Murray was married to a Miss Rivers of Montreal on 11th, at Boston where he is entertaining audiences at Tremont Temple.

Hon. Provincial Secretary McLellan is on the passage from Queenstown to Rimouski, on the Vancouver which left Queenstown last Thursday.

Mr. A. S. Brown, formerly of the railway-contracting firm, Brown, Brooks, & Ryan, died at Belleville, Ont, last week.

The death of Mr. Samuel Holts of Indiantown is announced.

CHANGE IN BUSINESS AT LOGGIE & BURR'S.—Loggie & Burr's stock of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods to be sold out regardless of profit.

UNUSUAL. One of the queerest freaks of nature on record is reported in this city upon the authority of many witnesses, including a well known medical man. On the 30th of March, 1885, Rev. J. F. Avery married William Lewis and Eliza Ma[illegible] H is a native maker aged 21, [illegible] 21 [illegible] a partner of Charles M[illegible] employed in the dock-yard. Ten days after their marriage, Lewis left for New Brunswick with the Halifax battalion. He returned to the city with his corps on the 24th of July. Ten months later his wife presented him with a son. This was on the eighth of May last. On Monday, the 11th inst., Mrs. Lewis gave birth to a second child, [illegible] months and three days after the birth of her first child. The [illegible] to on undisputed authorities and are a leading subject of discussion in the medical circles. Mrs. Lewis resides at No. 165 Brunswick street.—Halifax Herald

Municipal Elections

Several Northumberland parishes from which we have heard have returned candidates by acclamation.

In Nelson the old Councillors retired and Messrs. Peter Eson and John O'Brien go in without Opposition.

In Hardwicke Councillor T. B. Williston retires and Councillor Bransfield and Geo. W. Fowlie, Esq., are returned unopposed.

In Glenelg, Councillors Cameron and McNaughton are unopposed.

There are three candidates in the field for Newcastle parish, viz. Councillor Wood and Messrs Joseph McKnight and C. E. McKeen. Douglastown has the distinction of furnishing the first two named and Newcastle the latter.

In Alnwick, Councillor Savoy and Messrs. Jas Anderson and Anthony Adams are in the field. The two latter make a strong team.

It was thought that in the parish of Chatham Mr. Troy would reconsider his determination to oppose the re-election of Councillors Flanagan and Smith—especially after his admission that he had written his card hastily and apology for accusing them of having "ground axes." He seems, however, to still believe they are responsible for the sins of the Street service and for his not having been able to have the sewer leading from his tannery opened, and has filed his nomination.

We have not yet heard what has been done in the other parishes, but understood, some time since, that there would be no contests in several of them.

Ploughing Match and Cattle Show.

The Blackville and Derby Agricultural Society held its annual Ploughing Match and Cattle Show at Indiantown, Derby, on the 13th inst. The exhibition this year was not as large as usual, the number of enteries being very few. This was accounted for by the fact that a great many of the farmers were employed on the railroad and could not spare the time and expense to attend to the exhibition. We think some efforts should be made to have this dairy and farm product exhibition, which is held later in the season, combined with Show, thus saving much inconvenience to exhibitors and giving a greater incentive and interest to the exhibition by the increased variety and number of exhibits. The Society now owns the large field in which the Cattle Show took place and expect soon to erect buildings for the storing of grain and the general accommodation of exhibitors. The Society also, we understand, expects to secure one of the horses lately imported by the local government and to travel him under conditions favorable to the public. The ploughing match was successful, but owing to the continued hard dry weather the ground was not in the best of condition.

The following is a list of the prize winners:

James D McKay of Redbank had a very fine Steer on Exhibition which was much admired.

Yours W H GRINDLEY, Sec.

Mr Frank Jardine was genial and accommodating as usual, and provided a good dinner for the broad and deep agricultural appetites that gathered around the table.

Those who participated in the ploughing match expressed the not unreasonable opinion that the owner of the field that was ploughed should in the future stand the expense of the dinner of the plough men entered. This rule should be grafted on to the bylaws of the society.—Advocate

School Meetings.

The Annual School Meetings were held last Thursday.—

DISTRICT NO. 1. CHATHAM.

F. E. Winslow, Esq, was elected Chairman. The trustees' report was read by Dr. J. S. Benson. After referring to the vote of last year to discontinue the Grammar School and the fact that the Board had continued it, the retirement of Miss Williston and the engagement of Miss Carter as assistant at $90 a year, the report was as follows.—

There are at present 212 children attending the various schools in our district. Of this total number 17 are non-residents. The average cost per head is a fraction under $6.

The Government by the Grammar School grant of $200, more than covers the expense of educating these 17 children, for, calculating the same per head as the rest, a balance is in our favor of $98, and should the Grammar School be continued with standard VIII. as its lowest grade, the number of non-residents be some much less, while the Grammar School grant remains always the same. The percentage of children graded is as follows—standard I., 80 per cent: II., 78 per cent; III., 96 per cent; IV., 62 per cent; V., 47 per cent; VI., 87 per cent; VII. 100 per cent; VIII., 83 per cent; IX, 100 per cent.

The difference between the salaries of last year and this is as follows:

1885		1886
[illegible]	600.00	J M McCon[illegible]	450.00
[illegible]	200.00	Mrs Duff	200.00
[illegible]	250.00	Miss Stanland	200.00
Miss Haviland	240.00	Miss Carter	90.00
Saml. Irving	118.50	Thos. Green	80.00
Rent of room in Masonic Hall	80.00
	$1858.50		$1220.00

Comparing then, these two years, you will find a saving, financially, of $638.50.

The total amount from all sources this season so far has been	$4001.99
The expenditure	3994.35
Balance on hand	$7.64

Our schools are very much overcrowded, and the work entirely too much for the teachers, who are now laboring under very great disadvantages. In consequence of this overcrowding our schools are not in that state of efficiency which we, the Trustees, should like, but they are as good as can be for the amount assessed and used in carrying them on.

The number of children now requiring education belonging to our district cannot be satisfactorily taught unless further school accommodation be provided, another room procured, and another teacher placed in charge.

The number of children entering the primary department this term has been large, while so many families moving into the district has increased the numbers in the other grades.

We would like to call your attention to a certificate of indebtedness to Mr. John McGaffigan, dated 15th May, 1883, to the amount of $450 with interest at 8 per cent. Now not one dollar has been paid of principal or interest towards the reducing of this amount, which was payable in five years from date. It will be necessary then for you to take this matter into your consideration and make such arrangement as the case requires.

The amount probably required for the whole current expenses of the ensuing year will be about $1985, as follows (that is, provided the ratepayers are desirous of sanctioning the suggestions of the Trustees for the satisfactory carrying on of the schools in the district)—

Teacher of Grammer School	500.00
Four female teachers at $250	1000.00
Janitor	80.00
Rent of Academy	100.00
" " additional room	80.00
Fuel	75.00
Unpaid bills and incidental expenses	150.00
	$1985.00
Deduct from this the amount unpaid assessments probably available	400.00
County School grant	300.00
	700.00
	$1285.00

We would recommend that the amount of $1600 be assessed for school purposes for the ensuing year, which will leave a balance over and above the current expenses. This balance can be appropriated towards the payment of the McGaffigan indebtedness.

J. S. BENSON, Sec'y.

The Auditor, Mr. W. T. Connors read his report, part of which censured the Trustees for concealment of a note they had given several years ago on School account.

A portion of the report stating the correctness of the accounts was adopted.

Dr. Benson retired from the Board of Trustees and Messrs. W. C. Winslow and John Shirreff were nominated for the vacancy. Mr Shirreff was elected.

Mr. Connors was re-elected Auditor, Mr. Wm Wyse handed in his resignation as Trustee, which was referred to the Board.

$1,600 assessment was voted for the coming year.

There was a good deal of discussion at the meeting which was divided into Grammar School and anti-Grammar School parties, the former being the strougest. Neither, however, seemed the worse for the little sharp shooting indulged in.

DISTRICT NO. 8, CHATHAM.

Meeting was called to order by the Secretary, Mr. James F. Connors and Mr. Saml Waddleton was elected Chairman.

The Trustees' report showed a balance of $559,22 available with which to defray expenses of current quarter, the probable balance at the end of the year being stated at about $100 out of this amount and $100 additional to be collected from those who had not yet paid this year's assessment.

The auditor, Mr. L. M. Abbott, reported the accounts correct. The trustees' and auditor's reports were passed. Mr. Waddleton, retiring Trustee was re-elected and Mr. Abbott was re-elected auditor. The estimated expenditure for next year was $1,656.98 and the Trustees recommended an assessment of $1 000 which the meeting voted unanimously. There was some discussion in reference to the heating arrangements in the upper School building, which the trustees were asked to improve. The trustees were also empowered to fence the School grounds.

DISTRICT NO 9 CHATHAM

Wm. Kerr Esq. was elected Chairman. The trustees' and auditors' reports were adopted, the retiring trustee, Mr. Daniel Desmond was reelected and Mr. A. D. Smith elected Auditor. $1,000 assessment was voted for the coming year.

DISTRICT NO. 5, LOWER NAPAN.

Mr. John Gunn was chosen Chairman. The Trustees accounts were read and approved. Mr. John S. Taylor, retiring Trustee was re-elected. Mr. John C. Taylor is auditor. The sum of sixty dollars was voted for School purposes for the coming year.

Quebec Redeemed.

The Toronto Globe says:—

The victory in Quebec is a satisfactory though not unexpected one, which, unless it leads the party everywhere to overconfidence, probably presages the accession of the Liberals to power at Ottawa. We must insist first of all on the evil consequences that may result from undue elation over Mr. Mercier's success. An examination of the yet incomplete majority returns does not lend to the opinion that the revulsion against Toryism in Quebec is anything like so general as might be surmised from the bald statement that a Liberal minority of thirty has been turned to a majority of five or six over Tories and Independents combined, or of fifteen or sixteen over the Tories alone. Though many Tory constituencies have come over, the number of voters who have changed sides does not amount probably to more than three or four thousand. It must not be forgotten that in 1874 the Liberals carried Quebec for the Dominion; that in 1878 Mr. Joly's Cabinet just about evenly divided the electorate with Mr. Chapleau's friends, and that, even in 1881, when the Liberals had to fight against Senecal's money, and hence gained only fifteen seats, they polled within 4,500 votes of their opponents. Obviously a change of opinion among that number of electors is enough to give Mr. Ross' majority to Mr. Mercier. Hence the necessity for strengthening the Liberal organizations and keeping them in shape for the immediate contest which we still believe Sir John Macdonald will bring on. With proper precaution it is altogether probable that the Liberals will do even better both in Ontario and Quebec than they have done in the latter Province.

That a moiety of the few thousand converted Quebec voters were influenced by that abhorrence for defenders of the misgovernment of the North-west, which is common to nearly all Canadians, we do not doubt. But not to believe that the Flynn-Taillon-Ross rump of the Chapleau-Mousseau-Flynn-Ross Government would have been handsomely beaten on their own evil record, would be to insult the intelligence and honesty of Quebec. The outgoing Ministers are either members or associates on the North-shore-Frauds-and Tannerie-Land-Swap gang, Chapleau, having sold the railway and the Province, took refuge in the congenial Cabinet of Ottawa rather than wait to be spued out. Mousseau then took the leadership of Chapleau's confederates, and being soon found out in selling the Parliament Buildings contract, escaped to a fat place. Ross then became the 'pard' of Taillon and the others who had approved and supported every rascality of Chapleau and Mousseau. Through these evolutions the Ministry always kept the old rotten leaven vastly more in quantity than the rest of the lump. It was clear that at the first opportunity the people would justly exact from the Government the penalty which a succession of rascals had invited. There was only one chance of escape from the Ross-Taillon Administration. If they had fulfilled their loud promises to put the finances of the Provinces into decent shape it is possible they might have obtained forgiveness. But extravagance, corruption, and incapacity ruled the Council table. Year after year the tale of expenditure exceeding income was presented with a garnish of tricky bookkeeping and palpably false excuses. According to the last Financial Statement of Quebec the Province has to face a deficit of $1,127,663 for the two financial years '86 and '87; it has a floating debt of $6,597,479; and a total funded and floating debt of $24,831,322! If Mr. Mowat's Government had run Ontario into such a position how certainly they would suffer the loss of many more than three or four thousand supporters? In extricating Quebec from the financial slough where she has been put by Tory government, Mr. Mercier will find his main trouble

His programme for reform has been very well received by every section of his supporters, and as his majority is a sufficient one, we may safely reckon on the carrying out of his propositions in due time. Some of them are entirely within his authority, for instance the enhancement of municipal powers; the broadening of education on a technical basis; the extension of Provincial suffrage; reform of the laws relating to masters and workmen; law reform designed to cheapen and expedite litigation; reform of the civil service, the cessation of expenditure on immigration and administration. Among other features of his programme he promises to observe carefully the sound doctrine of Ministerial accountability; to pursue economy; and to maintain to the utmost the constitutional principle of Provincial autonomy. In respect to the latter, the Quebec Liberals, and Liberals everywhere, will be much assisted by the establishment of a Liberal Administration at Ottawa. To sweep away those whose main design is to minimize, if not to destroy, all Provincial privileges, is the next great public task. Its performance will not be helped, we say again, by undue elation over the victory in Quebec. Let Liberals rejoice reasonably that they have the enemy on the run everywhere, but let them not forget that discipline and thorough organization are never more needed than by an army in pursuit.

That Boy!

A well-known gentleman called on the widow Cullin. During an interesting conversation—interesting because the widow had reasons for suspecting that the gentleman was about to propose— Mrs. Cullin's little boy entered the room,

'Davy,' said the widow, 'can't you speak?'

'Can if I want to.'

'Speak to Mr. Gray.'

'Don't want to right now. Will after awhile.'

'You are a fine little man,' said the visitor. 'How old are you?'

'Five years old.'

'Oh, you are not that old,' the widow, with an air of embarrassment, replied.

'That's what you said, anyhow.'

'Davy!'

'Said it some time ago—'

'David!'

'Before he got to comin' here.'

'Oh, you are such a young pest. Mr. Gray, please excuse me a moment. I must go out and give instructions for dinner.'

When the widow had gone the boy turned to the visitor and asked:

'Did you come to see my maw?'

'Well, er—that is, my little man, I came to see both of you.'

'How old are you?'

'Oh, not very old.'

'Older'n my paw?'

'How long has your father been dead?'

'Ain't dead.'

'What?'

'I say he ain't dead. Paw and maw fit, an' paw went away, an' one day maw told me not to call him paw any more, but I do, all the same. How much money have you got?'

'Not much.'

'Yes, you have.'

'How do you know?'

'Maw told Mrs. Buck that you had a bushel of money. Are you going to marry my maw?'

'You must not ask such questions,' said the visitor, coloring deeply.

'Have you got any sense?'

'Why, of course. What makes you ask?'

'I know.'

'Well, tell me.'

'You might git mad.'

'Oh, no I won't.'

'Sho 'nuff?'

'Yes.'

'Well, maw told Mrs. Buck that you didn't have no sense, but said she didn't care.'

The widow entered. 'Davy, have you been a good boy? Why, Mr. Gray, you are not going to leave us?'

'Yes, madam, I must go.'

'Oh do wait until after dinner.'

'I am not hungry. 'Good-day.'

In the evening, when the katydids begin to file their saws, the lonely widow wonders why Mr. Gray does not come to her. Gray knows. He is paying his court to an old maid.—Arkansaw Traveler

CARD.

To the Electors of the Parish of Chatham.

Gentlemen:—At the solicitation of many friends I offer myself as a Candidate at the approaching Municipal Elections.

I have no special inducements to present to you in my card, as has always been the practice with Candidates seeking Municipal honors and I will leave you to form judgement as to my future by my past conduct, as I have had the honor of your confidence for the past four years. You all know that when any changes were necessary in the interest of the parish I was always ready and willing to make them. I do not expect to see you all before the coming election as the time is short, but I trust when you are polling your votes you will not forget those who have, to the best of their ability, endeavored to serve you faithfully.

I remain, Gentlemen, your ob't servant,

ROGER FLANAGAN

CARD.

To the Ratepayers of the Parish of Chatham:—

Gentlemen: Many of you having requested me to again offer as a candidate for the representation of this important parish in the Municipal Council, I shall place myself in your hands for re-election on the 26th inst.

Since the time when I was first honored with your confidence my aim has been to so discharge my duties as to merit your approval, and while I may not have succeeded in realising all the expectations of my friends or myself, it has not been because of any want of loyalty to those duties or undervaluation of your interests.

The experience I have had as a councillor will—should I be re-elected—enable me to serve you the better, and if it is your pleasure to again return me with my present valued associate, we shall look forward to being able to accomplish more than could be reasonably hoped for from untried and inexperienced men.

My business engagements are such that I cannot visit many of you between now and polling day, but I hope that you will find in my course at the council sufficient merit to induce you to again elect me. I am, gentlemen, your ob't servant.

D. G. SMITH.
