From Albany Evening Journal, Jan. 26, 1889.)
"REMINGTON."
Typewriting Extraordinary.
Remington Typewriter speed record placed still further beyond the reach of competition.
OFFICIAL REPORT.

At exhibitions of speed on the REMINGTON STANDARD TYPEWRITER, made in Albany and Troy, Jan. 16th, 1889, and which were witnessed by large audiences, Mr. F. E. McGurrin made the following records in rapid writing:
EDITORIAL MATTER, selected at random, and dictated from daily papers of the day's issue, at Albany, 98 WORDS PER MINUTE; at Troy, 90.
LEGAL TESTIMONY, from dictation, at Albany, 124 WORDS PER MINUTE; at Troy, 123.
COURT PROCEEDINGS, while blindfolded, at Albany, 108 WORDS PER MINUTE; at Troy, 110.
LEGAL TESTIMONY, read by himself from copy, at Albany, 107 words PER MINUTE; Troy, 111.
The MEMORIZED SENTENCE, "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party," at Albany, 160 WORDS PER MINUTE, with a few errors in spacing; at Troy, 150.
On second trial in Albany the same sentence, without errors, 150 WORDS PER MINUTE.
Seven carbon copies were made of each test, all being practically without error, and which were distributed as souvenirs among the audience.
Mr. McGurrin attributes his remarkable speed and accuracy to the COMPACTNESS OF THE "REMINGTON" KEY BOARD, the entire area of which he covers with his two hands.
Signed,
G. H. MACDOUGALL, SAM'L P. MCLELLAN,
JAMES A. FINCH, WILLIAM B. WILSON,
Albany Committee. Troy Committee.
This breaks all previous records, and places the Remington still further ahead of all other writing machines in speed, as it is in durability, ease of manipulation and quality of work.
