Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason.

IT WILL END.

The captain and the colonel still bravely charge the foe; but nothing is eternal in this punk world below; some day when we are snooping around with spirits drooping, fair peace will come kerwhooping, and end the reign of woe. They're shooting and they're blasting, as they have done for years; but nothing's everlasting in this, the last of spheres, all things on earth are ended, the piffing and the splendid, when Father Time has wended, a while, knee deep in tears. To-day is charged with sorrow, and comfort is denied; but there'll be a to-morrow all wool and three feet wide; it's worth our while repeating that mundane things are fleeting; the trials we are meeting some fine day will have died. I'm glad the world keeps shifting until we are perplexed; I'm glad we're always drifting from one thing to the next; I'm glad that every Sunday is followed by a Monday, that I am happy one day, the next day sorely vext. So let us all endeavor to keep our smiles on straight; the war won't last forever, and that's as sure as fate; some morning we'll awaken to see the daylight breakin' upon a world forsaken by every war lord skate.

SHIPPING LOSSES.

By Courier Leased Wire

Washington, June 26.—Allied and neutral shipping sunk by German submarines during the first 28 days in May totalled 233,639 gross tons, according to estimates made by the Navy Department, it was announced to-day in the Senate.

LORD MAYOR EXPLAINS.

By Courier Leased Wire

Dublin, June 26.—(By The Associated Press.—At a private meeting of the Irish anti-conscription conference last night, the lord mayor of Dublin announced that he had called at the American embassy and presented to Ambassador Page the address of the conference to President Wilson. He also gave the ambassador a letter stating the circumstances under which he was prevented from presenting the address personally to the President.

INSPECTOR MUST SERVE.

By Courier Leased Wire

Toronto, June 26.—Judge Riddell in tribunal to-day refused extension of exemption to J. G. Gratton, school inspector in Northern Ontario, Essex and Kent. Inspector Waugh of the Ontario Department of Education asked for exemption on account of the value of Gratton to the department. He said he was a French-Canadian and his knowledge of French made him valuable in settling disputes over bilingual questions. The judge refused exemption, saying he could appeal to Judge Duff.

I. B. S. PASTOR JAILED.

By Courier Leased Wire

Toronto, June 26.—Ernest Spaulding, claiming to be a pastor since 1914 of the International Bible Students' Association and engaged in pastoral work, appeared in the police court to-day charged with having failed to report under the Military Service Act.

He was committed to the jail farm for ten days. The magistrate did not consider him a "clergyman" under the act and asked accused if the organization was not the same as that whose leaders in the United States were recently sentenced to 20-year terms. Spaulding said the International Bible Students' Association here was a separate organization.

KERENSKY IN LONDON.

By Courier Leased Wire

London, June 26.—Kerensky reached London four days ago. Since then he has moved about quietly, though busily, conferring with prominent Russians in England over the necessity of Entente Allied assistance in Russia. He expects to go to America in a week or ten days.

Kerensky was introduced to the British Labor Conference here this afternoon and was received by the delegates with loud cheers.

Kerensky told the Labor Conference delegates:

"I have just come straight from Moscow and it is my duty as a statesman and a Socialist to tell you and the people of the whole world that the Rusian people, the Russian democracy, are fighting against tyranny.

"I believe, indeed I am certain," added the former premier, "that the Russian people will shortly join you in the fight for the great cause of freedom."

LET MEN JOIN UNIONS.

By Courier Leased Wire

Ottawa, June 26.—The following statement was given out this morning by Minister of Labor Crothers:

"Perhaps in larger numbers than ever before, complaints reach the Minister of Labor from workingmen that their employers forbid, upon penalty of dismissal, their becoming members of any labor organization. Upon investigation such complaints are generally found to have been well founded. The Minister deeply regrets this attitude on the part of so many employers, believing it well calculated to produce labor troubles. He maintains that every man must be at perfect liberty to associate himself with his fellow workers in any legitimate labor organization without thereby subjecting himself to penalties or discriminations of any character. He expresses the hope that employers may accept his attitude in this regard and that hereafter no just cause for any such complaints may arise."
