THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., OCT. 5, 1894.

Local and Provincial.

Thanksgiving Day this year is to be on Nov. 22d.

College opened on Wednesday, and the students go about the streets.

Supreme court will be held in Kentville next week.

A new proverb and a very good one is "if you want your sign read, hand it in the newspaper."

For sale or to let, the 1st Nov., the House now occupied by C. B. Munro. Apply to C. A. Patriquin.

The latest in Stiff and Soft Hats at Bordens.

Rev. D. J. Fraser has been absent this week, attending the meeting of the Presbyterian synod at New Glasgow.

Mr J. W. Kingman, the well known cowmercial man of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., was in town this week.

Mr P. M. Benjamin, of Gaspereau, has just returned from Silver Cliff, Colorado, after an absence of over five years.

The ladies of Lower Horton are to hold a goose supper and tea-meeting in the vestry of the Methodist church on Wednesday evening next. A good time is promised.

Men's Cordovan leather lined walking Boots at Bordens.

Mr H. S. Eagles, who is home from Boston, called yesterday and subscribed for the ACADIAN. It is ten years since Mr Eagles left here for Uncle Sam's country, and his adopted home appears to agree with him.

The Prohibition Convention for the Maritime Provinces will be held at Annapolis on Oct. 17th and 18th. Reduced fares on all railways and steamboats. All churches and temperance societies should send representatives.

A trial of the new road machine was made on Friday last, but owing to the dry and hard condition of the streets the test was hardly a fair one. However it was shown that good work could be done under favorable circumstances.

The annual address in connection with the opening of the College will be delivered this year by Dr D. F. Higgins. The exercises take place next Monday evening at 8 p. m. in College Hall. The public are invited to attend.

Buy the newest thing in Neck Wear at Borden's.

On Friday evening, Sept. 22d, in Almerie Hall, Miss Frances Cox, a graduate of the Seminary in class of '84, and also a graduate of the School of Christian Workers, Boston, gave a lecture upon the work of the Y. W. C. A., also of the College Settlements in that city. The lecture was enthusiastic and full of useful information.

Bicycle, Jockey, Yachting and travelling caps, at Borden's.

On Tuesday evening next Rev. W. T. D. Moss, of Portage la Prairie, Manitoba will lecture in the basement of St. Andrews church, on "Experiences in the Northwest." Mr Moss is a pleasing speaker and his lecture is said to be a most entertaining one. The object is to raise funds for Sabbath-school library, and it is hoped the lecture will be liberally patronized.

Ladies will find Special Value in Boots, Shoes and Slippers, at Borden's.

The exhibit from Acadia Seminary at the recent Exhibition in Halifax attracted a great deal of attention from those interested in education and from the public generally. The paintings in Still Life were much admired and as an evidence of their excellence, they received an "Honorable Mention" from the judges, thus ranking second to the Victoria Art School, Halifax, which was accorded the first grade. The scientific drawings in Zoology and Botany also received a special award from the judges.

Headache Specific still ahead. If you have headaches try a 10c. package, and be convinced. Two sizes 10c. and 25c. Drugstore. 44

Local and Provincial.

Mr W. W. Robson and wife, are in town for a few days.

Bliss Carmon, the well known Canadian poet and journalist, has been visiting in Wolfville.

Mr and Mrs L. E. Duncanson, who have been spending some time in Boston, returned on Tuesday last.

Mr Walter Wyatt of Portland, Me., is registered at the American House. He is an extensive lumber merchant in that city.

Mr Fred J. Fielden, of Gaspereau, brought into our office on Tuesday a ripe wild strawberry. We feel safe in pronouncing it the last of the season.

A mobilization of the Halifax militia forces, the 63d, 66th and Garrison Artillery, together with the King's troop of Canadian Hussars took place Tuesday at the drill shed in Halifax.

The three prizes for best collection of apples grown in Kings, Hants and Annapolis counties all came to Kings county, and were won as follows: 1st, Mr A. C. Starr, Starr's Point; 2d, Mr C. A. Patriquin, Wolfville; 3d, Mr J. E. Kinsman, Centreville.

The public dedication of the new hall at Port Williams will take place on Friday evening, Oct. 5th. Prominent Sons of Temperance are expected to be present. Come and see the new hall. A silver collection will be taken for the benefit of the Division.

Mr J. E. Sherwood sent us yesterday two magnificent specimens of Blenheim pippin apples. They were perfectly formed and highly colored and the larger one measured 12 inches in circumference. Mr Sherwood informed us that he has twenty barrels of this fruit, equal to the sample sent us.

Children's Tam O'Shanter Caps, cheapest in town, at Borden's.

On Sept. 22d, a party of eighteen teachers and students of Acadia Seminary made an excursion to Baxter's Harbor and the Lookout, and the week following the class in Geology visited Horton Bluff for the purpose of studying the rock formations and collecting specimens.

Astringent Cordial for diarrhoea. Never fails to cure. 50

Mr C. Y. Johnson is making extensive changes and improvements in his residence. Since Mr Johnson purchased the farm he has made steady improvement in it, until it has become a most valuable property. The changes he is now effecting will make the place one of the best in the neighborhood.

Fly paper; large supply "Tanglefoot" and poison. Drugstore.

We notice in last Saturday's issue of the Western Chronicle a notice advertising a raffle to be held in Kentville. Possibly our cute young friend is not aware that in publishing this adv. he lays himself liable to the penalty of a two years' visit at Dorchester, but such is the fact, just the same. In cases where the offender is worth anything there is also a fine of one thousand dollars. No journal of any pretense at respectability would be guilty of being accessary in such a gross violation of law.

Our $1.00 Unlaundried Shirt is a bargain. Have you seen it at Borden's

Wolfville, Oct. 3d, 1894.

Port Williams.

Miss Laura Newcombe, of Antigonish, after spending a few days with her uncle, C. A. Campbell, has gone to Church St.

Before long we expect to call on Wm. Stevens and family in their new house, on Fox Hill. The house was formerly occupied by Mrs James Donaldson.

Last Friday evening the members of Lily of the Valley Division met for the first time in their new hall. There were present members of Maple Leaf, also brothers of Wolfville Division. The latter were very humorous, but at last came to facts and told "what might be." The dedication ceremony takes place on the evening of Oct. 5th. Several temperance speakers are expected, and the public are cordially invited.

The Port has looked very pretty lately. On Oct. 2d it was especially so. As to the weather, we might say that it tried in vain to rain. As if in defiance the sun would burst through the clouds and brighten the scene. Standing in the centre of the village, and looking away to the south east, at high water one would notice that the tide covered the marsh and ran to the very dikes. The river thus presented a much larger appearance. The haystacks which dotted the river for a long distance, somewhat resembled beavers' houses. To the south lay the dike land, then fruitful farms and away beyond the Ridge, the top of which commands a fair view of "the gateway of the tide." North and east we see more farms and the North mountain far away. Down by the Point with sails set a schooner is slowly coming to port. Here the Ava has just left her moorings to the Ella May, and Frederica (brigantine) is loading lumber from the South for Paraguay. Something small and white has caught the eye. 'Tis a swift sailing yacht which came and is now returning with the tide. Making toward Wolfville she passes a grey sailed schooner bound for the same place and is lost to sight.

Last Sunday morning, Sept. 30th, at 9 o'clock, Daniel Cogswell, one of the oldest residents of this place, was called home. He will be much missed from his accustomed place in the church of which he was a faithful member for more than 30 years. He had looked with patience for the rest beyond and after a short illness passed peacefully away after a life of four-score years. The services on Wednesday morning were conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev. Martell, assisted by Rev. T. A. Higgins. The funeral was largely attended. Two sons of the deceased, Johnson and Otis, were present. Addie, the youngest daughter, although in very ill health, accompanied her mother to the grave. The community extend heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved ones.

COM.

Clergymen Recommend It.

REV. J. LEISHMAN, ANGUS, ONT. writes: "It gives me much pleasure to testify to the excellency of K. D. C., as a cure for Dyspepsia. I have recommended it here widely, and in every case it has proved successful. It is the very best remedy for that frightful trouble, that I know of, and never fails to help or cure when used as you direct. It deserves the name, "King of Dyspepsia Cures."

Married.

COLDWELL—LINDSAY.—At the residence of the bride's sister, Lowell, Mass., Sept. 27th, by the Rev. J. Q. Campbell, Freeman E. Coldwell, of Gaspereau, N. S., and Rebecca, daughter of the late Thos. Lindsay, of Alton, N.S.

Died.

HARRIS.—At Upper Canard, Oct. 1st, Stephen, Harris, aged 84 years.

COGSWELL.—At Port Williams, Sept. 30th, Deacon Daniel Cogswell, aged 80 years. He leaves a widow, two daughters and four sons.
