Local News.

St. John city council has voted $800 to entertain Prince Louis one day. This includes the champagne.—Sackville Post.

The steamer Calvin Austin, Capt. Mitchell, arrived last night with 112 passengers from Boston. The Austin sailed this morning on her return trip.

Chief Clark received a telegram from Detective Power this morning stating that he is on his way to take George Innes, arrested on suspicion of stealing $65, back to Halifax.

The West India steamship Caribbee arrived at Halifax this morning from Bermuda, Windward Islands and Demerara. After discharging her Halifax freight she will come here.

This morning, between seven and eight o'clock, Officer Lee was called to Peter McCart's house on Queen street to eject Mary Spelman. The officer arrested her as she was very drunk.

George Faulkner, High Secretary C. O. F., of Brantford, Ont., is visiting in the city at present and will attend a regular meeting of Court Yukon tonight in their hall, Simonds street, North End.

The Donaldson steamship Almora, Capt Edward Turner, will sail for Baltimore and Newport News Friday morning. She has on board some general cargo for the south, including 21 Shetland ponies.

Six new houses have been built on Cameron street, Moncton, during the past few months. These houses have all the modern improvement and give the street a greatly improved appearance and add to the importance of the west end as the growing section of the city.—Transcript.

Guy B. Whitehead, son of W. T. Whitehead, M. P. P., who has been employed with the party of G. T. P. surveyors near Andover in charge of David Maxwell, C. E., is here to spend a few days. He was recently kicked on the hand by a horse and blood poisoning developed.—Fredericton Gleaner.

The coal shipments from Louisburg, C. B. last week amounted to 16,000 tons. There will be a large amount of coal shipped from this port to St. John this winter. The Dominion Coal Co. will have their new coal pocket at the end of the North wharf ready for the storage of coal at an early date.

Canadians are today rejoicing in the great crops which are being harvested from this country of ours, and it is only right to say that citizens of St. John should be thankful and show their appreciation of Thanksgiving day by attending the sacred concert in St. John Presbyterian church on the evening of the 26th.

DARKEST RUSSIA

Harkins Company to Present a Strong Bill Here Tomorrow Night.

Local patrons of the drama are anxiously awaiting the opening of the Harkins Company at the Opera House tomorrow evening. The old favorites will, of course, receive a warm welcome, and no doubt before the curtain falls on the last act, there will be several new favorites among the new members of the company. The bill chosen for the opening is "Darkest Russia," the strongest Russian drama ever written. The story is founded on fact furnished the author by a friend who was in St. Petersburg at the time, and deals with life as it was then, and still is, in Russia. It shows how those who have different opinions from those in power are prosecuted by the Russian police, backed by the government. Everybody has heard of the terrible mines in Siberia, where political prisoners are sent to what is practically their death, as few ever outlive their sentences, be they short or long, and very few ever escape. The scenes of the play are laid first in St. Petersburg and afterwards in Siberia. Manager Harkins as specially imported costumes for this piece, and those who attend can assure themselves of witnessing a splendid performance. There will be the usual Saturday matinee, with a special matinee Thanksgiving day.

RING HIM UP---NO. 991

Leonard J. Hughes, of this city, has been selected by The Business Systems, Limited, of Toronto, as their chief representative for the maritime provinces.

Only an expert accountant is eligible for this position, as his duties are to devise systems of accounting and instruct bookkeepers in their use. Quite a number of very unique and desirable time-savers in the line of loose-leaf and card systems have been devised recently and it would be wise for wide-awake accountants to consult this representative. Appointments can be made by telephoning No. 991.

Mr. Hughes is a graduate of the Currie Business University and owes his success to the energetic efforts of the Situation Department of this institution.

HOTEL ARRIVALS

New Victoria—Thos. Farren, Kingston; Henry Entwistle, Westmorland; Charles Fowler, Salem; John Courcy, Maitland.

Copp & Co. of Sackville have made arrangements to erect a hockey rink. It will be much like the Dorchester rink, but will probably be a little larger, so as to afford a wider promenade. The ice space will probably be the same size. Copp & Co. have also decided to erect their woodworking factory a short distance down the line toward the I. C. R station. Work on the rink will begin at once so as to have it ready in time for the hockey season.—Post.

On Monday afternoon, one of the fire hydrants, after having been instrumental in filling a watering cart, refused to be turned off, and as a result there was a small flood on Germain street. For some time traffic was impeded, the water being forced from one side of the street to the other. Officer McCollom finally forced a barrel over the unruly hydrant and thereby freed the street from the flow of water until the water department attended to the matter.

The name of Rev. Dr. W. O. Raymond of St. John is being prominently mentioned in connection with the rectorship of the Parish Church. Although it is not said that Dr. Raymond would accept the position, he is one man who would be most acceptable to the vestry and congregation.—Fredericton Gleaner.

A meeting of the board of management of the Seamen's Mission will be held this afternoon, when arrangement for making out the report for 1904 will be made. S. L. Gorbell, manager, said this morning that the mission needed a thousand dollars for the winter's work.

William Gourley, of the Clifton House staff, returned to the city last evening from a successful hunting trip in the Canaan woods. Mr. Gourley says that game is very plentiful there this season, and all the hunters are having good luck.

From the 9th to the 16th of October sixty-three schooners cleared from the port of St. George for Lubec and Eastport all loaded with sardine herring—about 1000 hogsheads. The market is about glutted with the fish.

Battle line steamer Nemea, Captain Shaw, sailed from Batoum today for Baltimore.

Furness line steamship Evangeline arrived this morning at Halifax from London. She will be due here on Friday with a general cargo.

A case of diphtheria was reported at the board of health office this morning in the family of Mrs. Charlotte Jones, 28 Autumn street.

MORE OCTOBER BRIDES

Lord-Walker

An event which for some time has been looked forward to with interest in St. John social circles took place in St. Paul's (Valley) church at three o'clock this afternoon when Miss Jessie Walker, third daughter of Dr. Thomas Walker, was married to Calvin Lord, of Brookline, Mass., by the rector, Rev. A. G. Hamilton Dicker, assisted by the bride's uncle Rev. Millidge Walker, of Florida.

The sacred edifice was beautifully decorated for the occasion and special seats were reserved for relatives and guests.

Shortly before three o'clock the choir entered the church and took up a position in the centre aisle near the font, and on the arrival of the bridal party proceeded to the chancel, rendering the "Voice that Breathed o'er Eden." The bride entered the church on her father's arm and looked charming in a costume of cream crepe-de-chene over white taffeta silk with trimmings of Brussels lace, with bridal veil, and carrying a bouquet of lily-of-the-valley.

Miss Madeline Barker and Miss Madge Robertson were bridesmaids and wore pale yellow ranza silk and white felt hats, shaded with yellow velvet and feathers, and carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. The groom was supported by Edwin Goodrich of Syracuse, N. Y.

The bride was given away by her father. The choir, under the direction of the organist and choirmaster, T. Percy Boyne chanted the proper psalms to cathedral tones and rendered the hymn "O Perfect Love." As the bridal party left the church the organ pealed forth Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The ushers were Harold Wright, of Somerville, Mass. Dr. T. Dyson Walker and Edwin Blake Walker, of Ayr, Ont.

The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends.

After the ceremony luncheon was served and a reception held at the residence of the bride's parents, 156 Princess St. The happy couple will leave for their honeymoon trip by the evening train with the best wishes of a large circle of relatives and friends.

Bosworth-Birchall

Montreal, Oct. 17—Word has been received from England of the marriage of G. M. Bosworth, fourth vice-president of the C. P. R., and Miss Alleyne Birchall, only child of Mr. and Mrs. W. Dorsett Birchall, of Montreal, which took place on September 28, at St. Matthew's church in London. The bride and her mother have been traveling in Europe since April, and were joined in London a few days before the wedding by Mr. Birchall and Mr. Bosworth.

The marriage was solemnized in St. Matthew's church by the rector, only a few friends and some English relatives of the bride being present, besides the bride's parents. Afterwards breakfast was served at the Carlton Hotel, and during the day Mr. and Mrs. Bosworth left in a motor for the Isle of Wight and Cornwall for a fortnight. They are now on the continent, and will return by a fast steamer via New York by the end of the month.

Hamilton-Gray

A pretty house wedding took place this morning at the residence of William Gray, Main street, north end, when his daughter Miss Louisa Gray was married to William James Hamilton, formerly of St. John, and who came here from the Philippines to claim his bride, who is one of St. John's most popular young ladies.

The wedding took place at six o'clock this morning, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Dr. Fotheringham, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian church. The bride was unattended and wore a navy blue tailor-made travelling suit.

At the conclusion of the ceremony which was witnessed only by relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties, a wedding breakfast was served and the happy couple left for Fredericton accompanied by relatives. After spending a few hours at the capital Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will proceed to Winnipeg and Vancouver and from thence to Hong Kong where they will spend a fortnight before taking their journey to Cebu where they will reside the groom being a member of the firm of Hamilton & Borree, of that city. The bride is very popular which is attested by a large number of wedding gifts and while her many friends regret her departure from the city they are unanimous in wishing her every happiness in her wedded life.

The drawing-room in which the wedding took place was tastefully decorated with flowers and ferns and the dining-room presented a pretty appearance with decorations of rowan-berries, etc.

Ryan-Jennings

FREDERICTON, Oct. 18.—Special). —Arthur J. Ryan, the well-known druggist, was married at St. Dunstan's church at five o'clock this morning to Miss Margaret Jennings, niece of Wm. Jennings. The wedding was a quiet one, only the intimate friends and relatives being present at the ceremony. Miss Lizzie Morgan of St. John was bridesmaid and Arthur Rowan supported the groom. Rev. Father Hannigan was the officiating clergyman.

The bride wore a grey homespun travelling suit with a red velvet hat and the bridesmaid's costume was of blue broadcloth with hat to match. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle. After luncheon at the bride's home the happy couple left by the 6.30 train on a trip to Boston and New York. The bridal presents were very numerous and included a beautiful sofa, the gift of the groom's friends.

Scullion-Langstroth

Nauwigewauk, Oct. 17—On Monday evening at 8.30 o'clock, at Hampton, Frank Scullion, of French Village, was united in marriage to Mabel Gertrude Langstroth, of the same place, Rev. Mr. Fulton, Methodist, tied the knot, and the happy couple returned to the groom's home and leave by Wednesday's boat for Boston. The wedding was quiet and rather unexpected owing to the death of the groom's mother a short time ago.

SOLD 360 BLANKETS

Advertised Them Last Night and They Were Sold at 9.15 This Morning.

There are still some business men who doubt the value of advertising. But a firm on King street told in yesterday's papers about 360 blankets they would put on sale this morning. At 9.15 this morning the blankets were all sold.

The fact proves two things. It proves the value of advertising in general, and also the importance of up-to-date advertising. The readers of the papers were told all about the goods, and on reaching the store they merely had to examine them and learn if they were as represented.

This incident, and there are others like it day after day in all the stores that advertise judiciously, proves that people read advertisements, and that the advertising columns are not the least interesting part of a newspaper.

PROBATE COURT

Yesterday afternoon the will of the late Harriet Barnett was admitted to probate and letters testamentary were granted to David Oliver, of Harvey, Albert Co., the executor named in the will. The estate is valued at $1,369.22 personal property. C. A. Peck, of Hopewell Hill, Albert Co., proctor.

FUNERALS

The funeral of the late Margaret Price took place this afternoon at 2.30 from her husband's residence, Prince street, west end. Rev. W. H. Sampson conducted a service at the home, and interment took place in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Mrs. John Treadwell of Oakland, Cal., and Miss Eva Stoop of St. Andrews, N. B., are the guests of Mrs H. K. T. Bartsch, 128 Charlotte St.

Edward Finnigan, who has been quite seriously ill since Monday, is somewhat improved today.

POLICE COURT

Victims of an Abnormal Thirst Quickly Disposed of by the Magistrate.

In the police court this morning, Magistrate Ritchie presiding, George Bell, Wm. Bougan, and John McGill were fined $4 each for drunkenness. George Adams, for the same offence, was fined $8. The prisoner lives with his wife on Sheffield street, and while under the influence of liquor, it is alleged, endeavored to choke his better half.

John Watts, of pugilistic fame, visited the north side of King square last night about 11.40 o'clock, and as a result was also invited to spend the night in a cell at the police station. Watts was charged with taking the Lord's name in vain and pleaded not guilty.

Policeman Ira Perry said that last night, at the hour mentioned, his attention was attracted by loud talk on the north side of King square. On investigating he ascertained that some four or five men, among whom was Watts, were endeavoring to get a teamster to take them out the road. The driver did not wish to go as they had no money. Officer Perry ordered Watts along and he used profane language, and he gaffled him. The pugilist did not take kindly to his adversary, and forthwith attempted to put his muscles into play. Ira, however, got a strangle hold and Watts went to the pavement. His prisoner then went quietly with him. This morning Watts said that the driver was only in fun and often drove him to his home, where he intended going last night. Officer Perry said that he moved Watts away from a bar-room at closing time, and that the scrapper had been imbibing. Magistrate Ritchie fined the prisoner $8.

The Campobello steamer Aruro, Captain Ingersoll, has about made her repairs, and today she is at Walker's slip. She has received extensive repairs to her hull and is newly painted.
