PICKWICK'S FEATURE AT THE FAIR GROUNDS

Slippery Elm Second, and Lucky B. Third in the Handicap at a Mile.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 25.—W. C. Clancy's speedy son of Garry Herrman and Tools, Pickwick, this afternoon accounted for the D'Esperey Handicap, the feature of an excellent Saturday Fair Grounds program. The event, which was at a mile, for three-year-olds and upwards, and had an added value of $1500, despite the bad condition of the track, brought out one of the best fields that could be mustered here, and the contest was an exciting one throuout. In closest pursuit of the winner at the finish was the Woodland Stock Farm's Bannockburn—Schwalbe gelding, Slippery Elm, while M. Shields' Jim Gaffney colt, Lucky B. was awarded the short division of the purse. Pat Dunne's prospective Kentucky Derby candidate, Under Fire, substantially supported by the speculative element, disappointed by finishing outside the money, with Violet Bonnie, Franklin and Waukeag, the other members of the originally bulky field, having been withdrawn. Summary:

FIRST RACE—Three-year-olds and up, claiming, purse $500, 5½ furlongs:

1. Amelita, 107 (Molesworth), 7 to 2, 7 to 5, 7 to 10.

KITCHENER'S ALIBI.

Kitchener, Jan. 26.—Manager Harry Wismer when asked today for a reason for the defeat of the world's champions put it in a nutshell: "A good team in condition beat a better team not in condition." There has been no ice in Kitchener since the game against St. Patricks ten days ago, and except for the workout in the Toronto Arena on Wednesday night the champions have not had their skates on since that time.

BASEBALL GOSSIP.

Some deal will doubtless be made at New York whereby the Reds will dispose of Hal Chase.

Tom Hughes, old Brave pitcher, is snooping around New York, and may go away with a managerial berth in some minor league. He wanted to come to Toronto.

The Anglo-American Baseball League, made up of enlisted men in England, played more than 150 games this year. There is talk of organizing a league made up of London, Manchester, Sheffield, Birmingham, Leeds, Glasgow and Edinburgh, and, in addition, two clubs in London.

In order to assist in the release from the army of major league ball players who are in overseas service, the National Commission mailed a request to club-owners to send in the address, the name of the division, the regiment and company in which the players are located. This information is to be turned over to the government. President B. B. Johnson of the American League, said, to aid in efforts to get those men who have jobs awaiting them released from service in the near future.
