these diseases being attributable to the state of the weather. Of the 425 deaths, 249 were children under 5 years of age, and of this number 169 were less than a year old.

☞ Messrs. Rockwell & Stone's Circus arrived in town last evening, and will perform according to notice given in their advertisement.

IMPORTANT.—We have been informed, that the Executive Government of this Province has rendered the stumpage upon timber, cut on that portion of the territory, now in dispute between New-brunswick and Canada, from six shillings, to two shillings and six pence. An important deduction and a great boon to the manufacturer, in the present state of the timber trade.

Lord Falkland, accompanied by his Lady, took their departure from Halifax in the mail steamer Cambria, on Monday last. Previous to his Excellency's leaving, addresses were presented to him by the Executive Council, the city Corporation, the inhabitants generally of the city of Halifax, and by the Charitable African Society; to all of which his Excellency returned suitable and affectionate replies: the reins of government were assumed by Sir Jeremiah Dickson, until the arrival of Sir John Harvey in the Province.

Died.

On Thursday morning, at his residence in King Street, in the 93d year of his age, JOHN WARD, Esquire, who has been considered and justly held the title of "THE FATHER OF THE CITY."

The late Mr. Ward was born in Westchester County, in the British Province of New-York.—He entered the Army in 1776, and was frequently in action. At the peace of 1783, he embarked with his regiment, the "Loyal Americans," for this Province, where the Corps, after a short time was disbanded. Mr. Ward then embarked in commercial pursuits, and at his death was the senior half pay officer, as well as the oldest Merchant in New Brunswick.

The deceased has filled many public situations in this Colony. For many years he represented the County of St. John in General Assembly, and for a long period commanded the Militia; while his name has stood first in the Commission of the Peace, as senior Justice in this City and County, for a number of years.

Thus, full of years and honours, has departed one who has lived an unblemished life, and who carries with him to the grave the highest esteem, and most profound respect of the whole community, to which his noble and venerable appearance, his strict integrity, and amiable disposition, have long been familiar.

On the 18th ult, Mr. Michael Donovan, aged 55 years, a native of the County Cork, (Ireland,) and for many years a resident in this city. He was an honest and industrious man, and has left a large circle of relations to mourn their loss.

On Monday, Mr. Mansfield Cornwall, in the 22d year of his age, second son of Mr. Mansfield B. Cornwall, a young man of much promise and greatly esteemed by all who knew him.

On Thursday morning, Joseph M. youngest child of Mr. Wm. N. Venning, aged five months.

On the 6th instant, in the 62d year of her age, Elspit Sime, wife of Peter Sime, sen., a native of Aberdeen, (Scotland) Mrs. Sime came to this Province in 1811, and to this city in May last: she was a kind wife, affectionate mother, and sincere christian, and has left a husband and a large offspring to mourn their loss. The remains were conveyed this morning to St Andrews for interment.

On Thursday last Robert Alder, fourth son of Mr. William Bond, aged one year and seven months.

Of consumption, at second Westcock, Sackville, Westmorland County, on Thursday 2d ult. Miss Mary Ann, third daughter of Mr. Thomas Carter, in the 20th year of her age, after a most distressing illness of four months, which she bore with pious resignation to the Divine will of God.

On Sunday evening, in the 57th year of her age, Mrs. Ann Campbell, of Cauthness shire, Scotland, after a short illness, which she bore with pious resignation to the Divine Will.

On Thursday the 6th instant, at 6 p.m. Mr. John Lawlor, in the 19th year of his age, much and deservedly esteemed by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, as a truly moral and pious youth. Funeral on Sunday at 4 o'clock, p. m. from his late residence in Union-street, when friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

On Tuesday morning, George, second son of Mr. B. Amley, in the 7th year of his age.

In Portland, on Thursday evening last, Lucy, youngest daughter of Mr. Charles Wilson, aged 11 months and 15 days.

Suddenly at Fredericton, on the 27th ult. Mr. John Schoales, leaving a wife and two children.

At Newcastle, on the 19th ult., Mrs. Elizabeth, wife of Mr. John Rendell, in the 27th year of her age.

On Saturday 25th ult at Lower Granville Annapolis, James Hall, an aged and respectable inhabitant of that place, who died in the full hope of a glorious immortality. He lived to the age of 82 years respected by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

Lately, at Yarmouth, (England,) aged 96, Mrs. Sarah Pycraft. She was found in a basket on a tomb stone, in the Church yard at Yarmouth, in 1750, and taken to the workhouse, where she remained during her life, with the exception of a quarter of a year, when she left to get married to one William Pycraft, a labourer. During that brief period she described her condition as being truly miserable, on account of her ignorance of all domestic economy. On her husbands death, she implored re-admission to the house of her infancy. Grice as she was called in the workhouse, used to boast that she had outlived six governors. The cost of her maintenance amounts to upwards of £748.

The late Captain HENRY STANWIX, whose demise in this garrison we noticed in our last, was 55 years of age: he served in the Peninsula and France from February, 1812 to to July 1814, including the seige of San Sebastian and passage of the Bradassoa and Adour; since which time he has been twice stationed in this garrison. His remains were interred on Friday last: the body was drawn to the Episcopal burying ground by four black horses, and then buried with military honours. Beside the commandant and officers of the garrison, the officers at St. John of the Newbrunswick Regiment of Artillery, by invitation joined in the procession, and four of the Captains walked as pall-bearers on the solemn occasion.
