The Chilcoot Avalanche.

Two Members of Laforge's Party Were Lost.

Laforge Himself Is Back in Windsor—The Party Was a Failure.

Windsor, May 6.—The report of the breakup of the Laforge Klondike party was corroborated yesterday by the return to Windsor of the leader, A. L. Laforge. On being asked the reason for the breaking up of the expedition he said enigmatically:

"There are some of these follows who have more muscle than brain."

Adam Van Sickle and J. Smith, both of West Lawrence, Ont., lost their lives. They organized the Windsor expedition, but separated from the other members at Vancouver. They were caught in an avalanche in the Chilcoot Pass and were killed. One of them wore a coat that had been bought from a tailor near their native town. This led to the identification of the bodies.

THE YUKON CONTINGENT.

Ottawa, May 6.—If the Yukon military contingent do not start upon their travels in right good cheer it is no fault of the minister of militia. Last evening Dr. Borden entertained the officers of the contingent at dinner in the senate restaurant, and included among his guests the major-general commanding the militia, the officers at headquarters and the military men of parliament, irrespective of politics. In the course of his speech the minister gave the officers every encouragement to understand that the faithful performance of their duty would not be unrecognized.

BABY IN A BOILER.

Dresden, May 6.—Mrs. W. Collin's little baby very narrowly escaped being drowned in a boiler of water on Monday. Mrs. Collins was hanging the clothes out on the line, and when she came in she found that the baby had fallen into the boiler, which was full of water. The baby had its face downwards, and it was quite a few minutes before it showed any signs of life. It will recover.

About Teeth

Don't abuse the teeth—they will retaliate if you do. Neglect is the worse kind of abuse. Keep them clean and in perfect condition by using

ODONTINE

(Cairncross & Lawrence.)

It whitens the teeth—perfumes the breath and makes the gums firm, rosy and healthy.
