Free Art Galleries.

The Society of Arts of Canada, Ltd., is an institution founded to create a more general interest in art. The Society has large galleries in Montreal and Toronto as well as Free Art Schools in both these cities. They have about 150 artist members, and 60 of these are exhibitors at the Paris Salon. The paintings in these galleries are sold at artists' prices, and the Society also holds a drawing weekly in which the public may take part on payment of 25 cents. Canada is too young a country to rely entirely upon sales of good paintings, and hence the privilege is given to this Society to hold distributions. If a painting is not drawn the sender has the satisfaction of knowing that the 25 cents will assist in maintaining the free galleries and free school. Scriptholders are entitled to purchase the paintings of the Society at 5 per cent. reduction. A postal card sent to Mr. F. E. Galbraith, 108 King-street west, Toronto, will send you all information. 35

HEARD TWO SHOTS.

The Charge Against William Moody, Jr., Dismissed.

William Moody, jr., was arraigned at Cooksville last evening on a charge of shooting with intent to kill, the complainants being Samuel and Alexander Oliver, the two occupants of the Williams' homestead in the Middle-road. There was a brilliant array of magistrates to try the case: Sir Melville Parker, Andrew Aikins, John D. Hickie, Herbert Shaver, Andrew Shook and James Hamilton.

When the Oliverts got into the box they swore that they did not see Moody fire any shots, but that they heard two shots and thought Moody fired them. The case was therefore promptly dismissed.

Mr. T. C. Robinette appeared for the private prosecution, County Crown Attorney McFadden of Brampton was also present.

A MONTREAL SENSATION.

Alleged Implication of a Member of Parliament in a Malpractice Case.

MONTREAL, July 13.—A sensational malpractice case will come before the courts shortly. Judge Dugas, the Police Magistrate, was called to the Police Court this morning to take the dying deposition of Louise David, a young French-Canadian woman who confessed to having undergone an operation. The authorities refuse to disclose the facts of the confession until further proceedings are taken. The party implicated is said to be a prominent member of Parliament and sensational developments are expected.

A GLASGOW MIRACLE.

A SCOTCH LASSIE RESCUED BY A CANADIAN.

Her Life Was Despaired Of—Subject to Fainting Spells and Hears Trouble—Doctors Said Recovery Was Impossible—A Wonderful Story.

[From The Glasgow Echo.]

The case of "Little Nell," whose miraculous cure was reported in the newspapers with a subsequent letter from the Rev. Samuel Harding, is but one in a series of similar cases in Glasgow. The latest is that of Miss Lizzie Duncan, a young woman who has been snatched back to life. She was in what is termed a "decline"—wasting away by inches before the eyes of her parents, and her sad condition seems to have been known to a number of people. Consequently when she was found to have escaped the threatened death and to be apparently as well as anyone in Glasgow a tremendous impetus was given to the prevalent talk, and an Echo reporter was directed to make a searching investigation, with the result that this strange story was entirely confirmed.

Arriving at 208 Stirling-road, the reporter was conducted into the presence of Mrs. Duncan by a rosy-cheeked young woman, who proved to be Miss Duncan, who looked in no way like an invalid.

"This is the lassie," said the mother. "Heaven knows that a miracle has been wrought upon her. Eighteen months ago Lizzie began to pine away. The color left her entirely, and she appeared to be as weak as water. One Sunday morning she said, 'Oh, mother, I canna rise to-day,' and before she had got out the words her whiteness became like that of a corpse, and she fell away into a faint. I sent for the doctor, who said she had heart disease. When he saw her again she had grown worse, and the doctor said: 'The poor lassie is very far through.' We expected that poor Lizzie would not live long. There was no color in her face. She was wasting away, her cheek bones sticking through as if they would break the skin. Her arms and legs were just bones. The doctor said: 'Lizzie may stand the winter, but if she does that will be all.' One day, however, I chanced to read of several cases in which dying persons had been restored to life by a new scientific method — some pills, not like other medicine, but altogether of extraordinary virtue, called Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I said to my husband, 'In the name of God, let's try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.' Well, before the first box was empty there was an improvement. She persevered, and when she had finished her fifth box she was perfectly well, and there is not now a stronger young woman in the townhead of Glasgow, though at one time she was a living skeleton. You can ask any of the neighbors," said Mrs. Duncan in conclusion, "or any person in the street and they will confirm my story."

"I am stronger than ever I was in my life," added the daughter, "yet I can hardly describe how ill I was. I was certainly dying. I could neither go up nor down stairs; I was afraid to walk on account of the fluttering sensation at my heart. I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as my mother has described, and feel that they saved my life."

Miss Wood, the lady who drew the reporter's attention to the case, said that the parents had their daughter's photograph taken, for they thought that she would soon be sleeping in her grave. Lizzie once visited her, and was so weak that she had to carry her back to her house. "The change," said Miss Wood in conclusion, "has been wonderful. She is now a sonsie lass, and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been an instrument in God's own hands."

Right through this hot weather trade keeps at a smart pace,

LIGHT WEIGHT CLOTHING

Is in demand, and we seem to be pleasing shoppers with what we've to sell—for sales are easily made. If the styles and finish were not the latest and best, if the goods were not right up to the mark—and lastly—if our low-down prices were not a feature—you wouldn't trade here. You do, and it's proof of satisfactory service. 46
